Mrs. Edholm Calls the Movies to Her Assistance in Promotion.

GRADUATE NURSES TO HELP

Association of Nurses Says it Hopes to Sell Thousands Dollars Worth of Red Cross Seals Before the First of the Year.

Mrs. K. R. J. Edholm, secretary of the Nebraska association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis, has enlisted the aid of the Omaha General Film company in carrying on the Red Cross seal campaign in Nebraska this winter.

The work of getting out the Red Cross seals is keeping Mrs. Edholm extremely busy. She says that about 300 agents in Omaha will sell Red Cross seals this winter.

The state association of graduate nurses have agreed to sell $1,000 worth of these stamps before January 1. Last year the graduate nurses sold almost $1,000 worth and this year they will exceed that amount.

The various woman's clubs in Omaha have taken hold of the stamp proposition. One member of each organization has been appointed to take charge of the boosting of Red Cross seals and already the work done by them is beginning to loom up.

The following towns have been booked to show the moving picture "Hope" at their theaters: Omaha, Hastings, Lincoln, Fremont, Norfolk, Wayne, Seward, Fairmont, Red Cloud, Albion, Coleman, Grand Island, Schuyler, Kearney, North Platte, Fairbury, Minden, Neligh and Superior.

Bill Ure is Butt of Baker's Daffydil

Judge Ben S. Baker, city corporation counsel, says he doesn't fall much for the Bee's daffydil. "But I've got one that's pretty good," he concludes.

Sometime ago, now on to a year, the judge made a bet with City Treasurer Ure. The judge won, but he forgot until recently that he had a new lid coming at Ure's expense.

Ure called on the judge and asked for some legal advice. He wanted to know if a delinquent taxpayer couldn't pay either the principal or the interest without paying both principal and interest.

It seems that taxpayers in many instances owe personal taxes for a long series of years, so that the interest not infrequently amounts to twice the principal or even more.

Judge Baker ruled that the principal or the interest could not be accepted and the taxpayers would have to dig up for all. Ure had hoped for something better. And so he went back to his office, looked up Judge Baker's record, found he owed some personal taxes for 1902, and promptly mailed the judge a bill for the same with interest amounting to $2.47.

Just as promptly the judge forwarded a check for payment in full.

Then Judge Baker strolled to the nearest haberdasher and purchased a new hat which cost more than the interest on his personal taxes and had it charged to Ure.

When the judge returned to his office the assistant city attorney looked at the hat. "Is it a velvet?" he asked. "No," said the judge, "it's a Will-Ure."

Some Late Corn in State May Be Soft

There will be a great deal of soft corn in the state this year, according to J. G. Hastings, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants bank of Decatur, who was in Omaha. He says he has been out on the farms some recently and finds that although the farmers are husking and cribbing the corn there are a great many soft ears. This, he says, is due to the fact that some of the corn was planted too late to mature properly, some being replanted after the first planting in the spring failed to grow. The farmers are cribbing it, he says, as they feel that it will dry in the narrower cribs being used nowadays.

WALKS FROM SOUTH DAKOTA TO JOIN UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

W. W. Orendorff of Champlin, S. D., walked the entire distance from that town to Omaha in order to join the navy. The nearest recruiting station to his town is Lincoln, but he preferred to enlist from the Omaha station. After his long walk, which is over 400 miles, Orendorff was in good physical condition and passed the examination without trouble. He was sent to the naval training station at San Francisco. Orendorff left his home early in September, but stopped on the way to take odd jobs.

RONEY'S BOYS TO APPEAR AT THE Y. M. C. A. SUNDAY

"Roney's Boys" Concert company, an excellent organization of juvenile musicians, will appear in a special program at the Young Men's Christian association Sunday afternoon. There is no company like them or remotely approaching them in either this country or Europe. The works of the greatest composers of all time, as well as of the finest composers, are drawn upon for their programs, yet old-time favorites and laugh-provoking jingles are often given as encores.

The guests were the "blues," who were winners in the contest, and also the Philatheas. About sixty were present. A number of interesting games, together with readings by Miss Beattie Freeman, made a very enjoyable occasion.

Michigan Alumni Banquet.

Local Michigan alumni will give their annual banquet at the University club Monday evening, November 25, at 6:30 o'clock.

How Old Tempus Fugit!

Many of us were exasperated upon reading immediately after Christmas last year, the headline, "Fifty-one Weeks 'Till Christmas." Christmas seemed very remote then and we disliked the suggestion that we should "do our shopping early"—and yet, here we are with only

OF SPECIAL IMPORTANCE IS THE Grand Ribbon Sale
Saturday, November 23, at 10 A. M.

When the designs, the widths, the colorings, the magnificent qualities and the Prices are considered. We believe we are within the limits of truthfulness, when we state no Ribbon Sale in years, in this neck of the woods, equalled this one—

3 GLORIOUS LOTS at 3 PRICES—69c, 39c and 25c.
LOT 1—Quite a variety, several widths, pure silk, worth 50c, at yard 25c
LOT 2—A beautiful aggregation, many widths, splendid designs, quite a pick in this lot, many easily worth 85c, at the yard 39c
LOT 3—Simply gorgeous, rich designs, heavy brocades, printed warps, some very wide, all beautiful quality; $1.25 would be cheap for most of them, Saturday. 69c

THANKSGIVING HINTS IN CENTER WINDOW—
Special Sale of Linens
Special sale of linens commencing Saturday, continuing for one week—table napery, Madeira pieces, all reduced and one-fourth off—a new importation of cluny pieces.

Our New Shoe Section
Is having really marvelous business. We sincerely urge you to make an effort to come Saturday morning for satisfactory service and perfection of fit. Terribly hurried and rushed usually afternoons. Women take kindly to the new street boots—flat forepart and low heels—in tan calf lace, dull calf lace and button. The price is $5.00 and the value is there.

The young women are simply in love with the low heel dancing pumps—$4.00 is the price and they're worth it.

PARTY SLIPPERS—There's a wonderful difference in satins—ours are made of the best grades—made especially for slippers—receding toes and French heels have the call; they come in pink, blue, white and black—these also are, a pair $4.00

Boudoir Slippers in red, pink, black and lavender, at a pair $2.00

Four Weeks Until the Joyous Season

We Are Delightfully Ready—And Right Here is Where We Intend to be Helpful to You.

Evening dresses, dancing frocks, street dresses, fine serges, French challies, imported velvets, English cords, charmeuse and chiffon.

And here's a special in keeping with the suggestion of Yuletides' near approach—Just in—A lot of felt, fur trimmed house slippers, wonderfully comfy if the floors are a little cold in the mornings, and regardless of these nice, sunshiny days—that too will come—Juliette style, red and black are the best colors, will be $1.50 later, but on Saturday, at the pair 98c

Scores of holiday books arriving daily—Christmas Cards, Stickers, Calendars, etc., now in stock and it's a mighty good time to make selections.

DO YOU REALIZE THAT BEFORE THIS LAST YEAR WE HAD ZERO WEATHER?

Under same conditions this year we could not recite this story from the children's section. Mild weather finds us with too many children's coats. While cold weather will come as sure as "Death and Taxes," it's not our way to wait, and so we have laid out a splendid lot of coats, and put a season's end price on them to sell them Saturday.

COATS FOR ALL AGES—Fine broadcloths, Zibelines, etc., for youngsters of 2 to 6 years, and some excellent winter fabrics for those from 6 to 14 years; plain weaves and the rough or curly boucles, for juniors from 13 to 17 years, coats that sold up to $18, at one price $8.75

OUR DOLL FAMILY—Invites you to an at home Saturday. They are here from every clime, nearly every race is represented, except those red haired, light skinned Eskimos (the lost tribe who were discovered recently); many sizes and complexions, nude, dressed and undressed.

The SOCIETY BEE-HIVE

By MELLIFICIA. Friday, Nov. 22, 1912.

THE social calendar is rapidly filling up with social affairs, both formal and informal. Each day brings invitations of interest. Mrs. Gould Dietz and Mrs. Charles A. Hull will issue invitations Saturday for a tea to be given Thursday afternoon, December 5, from 4 to 6 o'clock, at the attractive new home of Mrs. Dietz. This will be the first large affair given by Mrs. Dietz since moving into her new home.

Mrs. Arthur Keeline will entertain at bridge Monday afternoon at her home.

Mrs. G. W. Megeath will give a large afternoon reception next Tuesday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Freeman, and for Mrs. Windsor Megeath of Kansas City.

Mrs. Frederic W. Thomas will entertain at bridge next Wednesday afternoon at her home.

Wednesday evening the Original Cooking club will give a dinner and dance at the Country club.

Thursday will be Thanksgiving day, when there will be many family dinner parties, and many will attend the foot ball games.

Friday evening the officers and ladies of Fort Crook will inaugurate their series of winter dances with a hop, to be given in the post headquarters. Thereafter the dances will be given on the second and fourth Friday evenings of each month, from December to next April, inclusive.

Invitations for each dance will be sent by individual officers during this season, a slight variation from the custom of preceding years, when the army people have invited their friends to the entire series at the beginning of the winter.

The hop committee for the winter includes Captain Nuttman, Captain Van Duyn, Lieutenants Kelley, Fulton and Brown.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. George Thummel will give a debut tea for her daughter, Miss Katherine Thummel. Besides these large affairs, many small theater and bridge parties will be given next week.

Numerous affairs are also scheduled for the first two weeks in December. Mrs. Robert S. Anglin will entertain at bridge December 3 for Miss Margaret Greer Baum. December 5 Mrs. Dietz and Mrs. Hull will give a tea and December 6 will probably inaugurate the winter season of military hops at Fort Omaha. The officers and ladies of the post are planning to have the hops the first and third Fridays of the month, alternating with Fort Crook. The following week Mrs. R. L. Carter will entertain at two afternoon teas, December 10 and 11, in honor of her daughter, Miss Alice Carter.

Holiday week is also filled with social entertainments, but most of the affairs are for the school set.

Personal Gossip.
Mrs. Morier and Miss Amy Morier of Chicago arrived this morning to be the guests of Miss Morier's fiancé, Mr. Thomas H. Malters, Jr. Saturday Mr. Malters will motor to Lincoln to attend the Lincoln-Oklahoma foot ball game, when his guests will be Miss Amy Morier of Chicago, Miss Helen Smith of Boston, Miss Helen Matters, Mr. Chester Dudley and Mr. George Agnew.
