

Satisfying Sales Saturday at Kilpatrick's

THERE IS NO TIME OF THE YEAR WHEN THE GREAT MAJORITY OF PEOPLE ARE SO BEWILDERED AS DURING THE HOLIDAY SEASON. WHAT TO BUY! AND WHERE TO BUY IT! THAT IS THE QUESTION, OR TO BE GRAMMATICAL, THESE ARE THE QUESTIONS, CHRISTMAS TIDE WHICH SHOULD BE A PERIOD MOST JOYOUS, KNITS THE BROW WITH CARE AND EMPTIES THE PURSE OF SHEKELS. WITH A DESIRE TO BE HELPFUL, WE HAVE PREPARED MANY INTERESTING, ATTRACTIVE AND USEFUL ITEMS FOR SATURDAY'S SELLING. MINDFUL ALWAYS TO GIVE YOU QUALITY MERCHANDISE AND TO AID YOU IN MAKING

YOUR DOLLARS DO EXTRA DUTY

Go with us if you please up to the top floor—there's a new section filled chuck full with helpful hints—let's quote a few. Stick a pin in this ad when something takes your eye, and then make a beeline to see the goods—Curtains, Portieres, Matting Covered Boxes, Cedar Chests, Screens, Carpet Sweepers, Electric Vacuum Sweepers, Mission Smoking Stands, Sweet Grass Baskets, Comb and Brush Trays, Pillows, Peanants, Telephone Stands, Knit Slippers, Kensington Bags, Sewing Baskets, Tapestry Trays and Boxes, also Table Covers, Tapestry Pillow Tops, Vanity Bags and Books, Auto Bags containing necessary toilet articles, Shirt Cases, Spoon Holders, Centerpieces, Traveling Aprons, Stamped Towels, etc. for you to embroider. Didn't think we had such a variety did ye? Well this isn't a circumstance to what we actually do have—but the list may help. New goods, fairly priced.

Now take the elevator or walk down to the next floor with us. On this floor we have laid out for Saturday's selling many items away below regular prices.

We could go on and on—like Byron, we are almost sorry that we e'er begun "for we think of so many things that we have not space to mention—We must say something about Books. December is the big month. Then we're stocked with the new books for children, boys and girls—travel, biography, poetry, real literature, history, fiction all the best, rag books, linen books, reference books, dictionaries. Everyman's library which contains alone over 500 titles—baby records, guest records, philosophy, art, science, mythology and other ologies—cards, stationery, calendars, hand painted satchets, beautiful books specially prepared for Holiday Gifts. This illustrates

On the Main Floor in the West Aisle

You will find a little corner of Regent Street, London, or as it were, a little bit of the Boulevard des Capuchins, Paris. Travelers to England and the Continent never fail to visit the establishments of Liberty & Co. Their wares and fabrics are found wherever you find civilization. We are exclusive agents in this section. Our first display occurs Saturday.

Quint Calendars, Satchets, Postal Books, Unique Jars to hang up, Pungent Perfumes mixed and moulded with the clay, making a perpetual sweet smelling savor which will make your room redolent with delicate perfume that will last. Rugs of Silk Plush with Ermine tails (real) sewn on to the white plush can be made up into a Royal Opera Robe at will. Beautiful Silks from India; other fabrics from China and Japan; Curtains and Drapes, also Bed Spreads from Turkey and India. Evening material of Wood Raye, a kind of wood silk, lustrous as the product of the worm and much lighter. A great opportunity for those who like exclusive things. This first lot is not very large; if interested, come Saturday.

You will be at the Dress Section where for 10 days we will charge only $2 for making Skirts to your measure. Well tailored by men; if the skirt does not fit you can't have it. Several special values in Dress Goods to make the Skirts from.

AND NOW WE REACH THE SILK SECTION—Saturday we will place on sale the very latest Winter designs of Silk Foulards—made by the best maker of Foulards in the world. Sold all over this country at $1.00 and $1.25, and at a higher price in CANADA, just for ONE DAY, SATURDAY, YARD..... 69c

Wm. Carter & Co. are makers of women's fine underwear. They have adopted rather a unique method of advertising. They have supplied us with a very dainty sachet made from underwear material, enclosed in a little envelope bearing their name. Sachet is designed to be attached to the under vest, delicately perfumed. We will hand them out for them Saturday at the underwear department. We carry all weights in this famous underwear.

PARTICULAR PEOPLE LIKE IT. HOLIDAY APRONS—Embroidered or lace trimmed, plain, sheer, dotted Swiss, etc., whether at 25c or on up to $2.50. The very best of their kind, and always at THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICE.

BIB APRONS—A special kind—long with embroidered bib at 35c—And here, again, we have them up to $2.50.

JUST IN—Silk Crepe de Chine Petticoats, lace trimmed, rosebud trimming—$7.50—LITTLE BULK, CLOSE FITTING.

And now at the risk of writers' cramp we want to write a line or two on Candy.

In every city there's a standard! It is our aim to have you think of Kilpatrick's when you think of candy—and to have you think of Kilpatrick's when you think of best. The Cobbs have dish up something fine for Saturday:

FAVORITE NO. 1—Chocolate covered caramel—Mr. Cobb says they are elegant—A cream caramel covered all over with a thick, rich chocolate which yields to tooth pressure (or as he says is soft and chewy), priced for regular business at 40c a pound. While they last Saturday, per pound box..... 25c

FAVORITE NO. 2—Peanut Brittle. Do you remember when we referred to our uncle's colonial possessions before? It was on a similar offering. Peanut Brittle made from Porto Rico molasses, cooked to the right consistency and filled with southern peanuts. There's something toothsome for you. No wonder that last time they were sold out at 2 p. m. Saturday, per pound box..... 15c

French Jordan sugar almonds, usually quoted at 60c and 80c, Saturday only, at the pound..... 50c

Family chocolates, a nice assortment of creams, but not quite so large as the 60c kind, at the pound..... 40c

Cream dipped grapes, creamed marshmallows, imported stem ginger, dipped Brazil nuts, imported stem ginger, dipped Brazil nuts, marshmallow croquettes, salted almonds, extra fine Pecans, Cachous, Pistachios, chocolate and bon bon de luxe, 60c

We ship candies wherever candies can be shipped. Orders are now being placed for Christmas. Get yours in now. We will ship any time. Mr. and Mrs. Cobb will fill your special orders with special care.

Exact size and contents of a big value package containing different size Christmas cards, tags, stickers, etc. for your convenience put up in box at 25c. Center window is filled, but does not contain samples of half which we have for your inspection and delectation. Stationery bargains displayed in window for Saturday. We haven't room to tell you about them here—Come!!! from every part of the store the call issues—COME! If you have engraving work to order DO IT NOW.

Coats for Women

How easy it is to think of VOTES FOR WOMEN in that connection, and by the way the gathering here of so many prominent women from all over the state at this time is what makes this sale so OPPORTUNE JUST NOW.

There's about 150 Coats—the latest models, made from Wide Wale Serges, Boucles, Chinchillas, Broadcloths, Velours and Fancy Mixtures—Coats in the lot worth $35.00 (not many, it's true) but very many worth $25.00, all at one figure Saturday, $15.00 each.

And as if that would not cause enough excitement for one day—we will cause an uproar on DRESSES ALSO. Dresses of Taffeta, Velvet, Charmeuse, Chiffon, Chally, Serge, etc. Most of them sample dresses, one of a kind, worth up to $25.00, will be offered at $10.00.

Silk Hosiery

Mr. Baxter wishes us to direct especial attention to 3 remarkable numbers of Silk Hosiery for Women. Remarkable because of the beauty of make and finish; remarkable because of the value of the merchandise; remarkable because of the timeliness of the offering. A decided saving for you on popular and practical gifts. Make note of the numbers, and ask for them, please. No. 510 is a dollar grade, 3 pairs in a box, for $2.50
No. 612 is a dollar fifty grade, 3 pairs in a box for $3.90
No. 122 is a two dollar grade, 3 pairs in a box for $5.00

We will accept telephone orders on these TILL 10:30 A. M.

You Know Where the Glove Section Is

Immense business continuing daily for weeks at this department would almost indicate that glove wants are supplied, for it would seem as if all Omaha had patronized us lately. The unexpected has happened. We didn't intend to have another great sale here this week. Two weeks or so ago, when in the midst of a merry whirl of business, a glove importer offered us a big lot at a low price. We didn't think we could use the lot. Big sales made a place. Saturday it's your chance and the lot is choice—whites, tans, blacks, etc. White with self-stitching or with black stitching. (What a demand has sprung up for whites), lots of them. A splendid $1.25 glove, just to help you with one Holiday Gift, Saturday, at the pair 98c
Can't Fit 'Em Sale Day.

From the Shoe Section

Comes news of new arrivals for Christmas Gifts—slippers for women and children, the real cozy kind—Gray felt, Comfy slippers, padded heel and sole; also low heel gray felts, at the pair 90c
Juliette—Why Juliette we don't know unless because they're so pretty, fur trimmed, ribbon trimmed, buff, brown, black, lavender and red; these are, the pair $1.75
Satin quilted (mule style), we don't know why of this name either—certainly not for kicking—for they are delicate pinks, blues, lavender; some low heel, opera cut blacks, all at the pair $2
Another lot at, the pair $1.75
Boudoir slippers with pom poms, all colors, at the pair $1
Turkish slippers with pom poms and tinsel, at the pair 59c
Not likely to be any more for some time—take a while to recover from the present unpleasantness.
Children's red felt, Juliette style, red, for those from 2 years up—regular little dear—at, the pair $1
Red kid for 2-year-olds, up at pair $1
And children's satin quilted slippers with pom poms, for those from 2 years upwards, at the pair $1.25
Of course it goes without saying—no place can you get better shoes.

Bear Little Children! Who Can Forget Them at This Time?

How expectant—What thoughts are theirs in the day time, and how they dream at night of dear old Santa scampering over the roofs. You'll deny yourself to gratify their wishes. AND THAT'S THE CHARM OF CHRISTMAS. We want to help you here—FOR WE LOVE THE LITTLE TOYS.
Chinchilla Coats, full lined, up to 6 years, Saturday, at $5.00
Short belted coats, heavy mackinaw; in tan, green, navy, scarlet and cardinal; all sizes, even for small women, Saturday $5.00
A few fine coats for juniors, which sold from $12.50 to $20.00; to close out Saturday $8.75
Suits for juniors; winter fabrics, plain and mixed, including English corduroys—Saturday $10.00
Fur sets for children—Can you imagine anything more pleasing—Selection can be made to your advantage SATURDAY.

TRAVELERS' SPECIALS

Then there's valises for men and women, traveling bags, suit cases, the lightest and prettiest imaginable for misses, Wicker cases. At this section you'll find bath robes for men, smoking jackets, lounging robes, brass ware for desk, for den, for smoking, etc.

AT JEWELRY SECTION

Glass sugar and creamer with Sterling silver deposit, Saturday, each 75c
And now we are right in the midst of hundreds of articles suitable for Gifts. Perhaps a few more hints will be welcome. The proverb says: "There's naught like leather." "Our ancestors were not so clever." We don't know who to credit with this, it's not original with us. Our ancestors didn't have—Dainty leather books for motor trips, engagements, vacation, "My Trip Abroad," laundry, year by year, cooking recipes, hasty line, reminiscences, visiting guest book, address book, score card, playing card case, telephone list, cribbage, bridge, whist, traveling clocks, writing cases, portfolios, picture frames, drinking cups, flasks, coat hanger sets, brush sets, collar bags, handkerchief cases, tie cases, glove cases, picnic luncheon set for 4 or 6 for the auto, sewing bags, work baskets, medicine cases, jewel boxes, stick pin boxes, dressing cases, manicure sets, traveling cases, air cushions, scissor cases, cigar cases, bill rolls, letter cases, card cases, wallets, hand bags, auto bags, back strap books, muff bags—indeed all the latest novelties—ladies' shopping bags from $1 up to $40 each. Some of these are exquisite—$19 for a bag would seem extravagance. You won't think so when you see the bag; "the value is there"—Pin Seal, Dull Seal, Grain Seal, Goat Seal, Morocco, Yachette, Long Grain, Patent, Russian Calf, English Pig, Alligator, Sea Lion and every skin which is made up into popular bags.

SATURDAY, THEN A CHINA SALE

Mr. Koenig's good taste in selecting china is so well known that it is only necessary now to say "CHINA" SALE to attract crowds of buyers.
Novelties in wicker and porcelain trays, from 85c to $8.00—Tea trays and fancy trays.
A small, but attractive, collection of electroliers or lamps made from white bisque; beautiful figures with fancy shades, $6.75 to $20.
New designs in English and French Service Plates, Rock Crystal Vases, 35c to $7.50—Pretty and practical jardinières, Douillon Tea Pots and Pitchers.
Quaint and ornamental Tea Tiles—Constanters, from 10c up.
Cut Glass Pitcher and six glasses, Saturday, $5.00—Worth much more.
Five-inch nappies at 69c instead of $1.00—Saturday.
Cut glass bowls, special Saturday, $1.39—have others up to $8.50.
New from Dresden, plates, cups and saucers—trays, etc. One table of odd pieces, worth up to $1.00, at 50c Saturday.
Another table contains French and German China, many pieces worth 50c; on Saturday at 25c each.

Thomas Kilpatrick & Co.