Four More Days Eight More Churches

Seventeen Churches, representing congregations aggregating about 4,000 church members, have already held their sales and when the eight more finish next Saturday night over 5,000 church members will have been identified with the

Christmas Fair of the Churches

There will be plenty of fancy work, plain sewing and home cooking to provide many Christmas gifts. If you haven't attended the Bazaar go to the Bee Building Court and see what handsome articles are offered December 18 and 19.

ST. MARY'S CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Chairman Mrs. John A. Kuhn, 132 South 38th St.

The money derived from their sale enables the church to carry on their Charity work to a large extent; the Indian Children out in this state, as well as poor children of Omaha derive some benefit therefrom. A baby booth will be one of the specialties, where toys, dresses and baby clothes will be displayed. Fancy work, household linens, Christmas cards and candies will be offered.

Unity Church in charge of Mrs. H. D. Reed, 4911 Farnam street, will be represented for the first time in connection with the Christmas Fair of the churches, and will make a special effort to have a good collection of fancy articles of all kinds.

Church of the Covenant, Mrs. Lemmert, 4002 No. 29th St. McCabe M. E., Mrs. C. C. Shiner, 116 So. 42d.

Special Announcement

Mrs. Anne Knapp of 4325 Camden Ave. has asked permission to show three comforts during the bazaar with a view to selling them. She is confined to a wheel chair and has not stood on her feet for eight years, her time being occupied with such work as making comforts. She does not ask charity, but wants to sell her hand work and needs the money. You can see these in The Bee Business Office.

Beginning Wednesday only 6 more days in which to buy gifts for that Christmas box. Do your buying now at—
