SCHOOL AND COLLEGE WORK

Trouble Started Over Official Rating of Colleges. MANY NOTED SCHOOLS OMITTED. Silent Halls Proclaim the Holiday Vacation Season—Plans for the New Year—Educational Notes. A report of the secret investigation of "all the colleges and universities of this land," made by Dr. Kendrick C. Babcock, formerly president of the University of Arizona, for the United States commissioner of education has started a disturbance in educational circles. Dr. Babcock divided colleges into first and second classes, enumerating those entitled to each rating, and omitting a number entirely to classification. Copies of the report are difficult to obtain, "only 200 copies have been issued." The United States commissioner of education explains that the object of the investigation was not to sit in judgment, but to raise the standard for bachelor degrees. He regrets the distribution of college into classes, pronouncing that part of the report "unfortunate."

Here is the list of the institutions in the first and second classes, the total for those of the first and the most familiar of those in the second:

- FIRST CLASS. Ancherst. Unl. of Michigan. Belmont. Unl. of Colorado. Bowdoin. Mt. Holyoke. Bryn Mawr. Unl. of Nebraska, Northwestern. Cal. State Univ. Berkeley. Cal. State Univ. Fresno. Univ. of California. Unl. of Pennsylvania. Univ. of Chicago. Purdue. Radcliffe. Columbia. Bryn Mawr. Dartmouth. Stevens Institute. Goucher. University of Texas. Hamilton. Unl. of Vermont. Harvard. Vanderbilt. Kansas. Kansas State Univ. Unl. of Illinois. Unl. of Virginia. Indiana University. Unl. of Washington. Iowa State Univ. Iowa State Univ. Johns Hopkins. Wellesley. Unl. of Kansas. Wesleyan. Lafayette. Williams. Leland Stanford. Unl. of Wisconsin. Lake Forest. Yale except Sheffield. M. I. T. field school. SECOND CLASS. Adelphi. University of Maine. Alameda. M. A. C. Science. Allegheny. Middlebury. Army in Tech. New Hampshire State. Bates. Col. of City of N. Y. Boston College. Penn. State Univ. Buchtel. Unl. of Cincinnati. Unl. of Pittsburgh. Colby. Unl. of Rochester. DeWitt University. Rutgers. Fordham University. Francis Xavier's. Franklin and Mar-Shellfield Scientific. Swarthmore. Georgetown. Trinity College. Holy Cross. Union. Worcester College. Manhattan. Worcester Poly. Inst.

Reviewing the main features of the report, having secured a copy, the New York World says: "In general, excepting the Catholic university at Washington, no one college or university in the United States conducted under Catholic auspices was able to stand Dr. Babcock's test. Georgetown, one of the oldest Catholic institutions of learning in the country; Boston college, Fordham, Holy Cross, Creighton university and others conducted by the Jesuits were rated in grades below the first. In that report also Chancellor Day's Syracuse university was knocked out of the first class, but when the chancellor demanded, 'What's Babcock's Syracuse was speedily shifted to the first class. Day says that a lot of colleges and universities have been treated unjustly and that he will be found fighting with the heads of those institutions for a square deal. The College of the City of New York, New York university, Manhattan college (under the auspices of the Christian Brothers), the University of Rochester, Wells college, the University of Pittsburgh (Carnegie's foundation), Sheffield Scientific school (under the mothering care of Yale) are some of the institutions that have been relegated to second place."

Dr. Babcock defines the first class as follows: "Institutions whose graduates would ordinarily be able to take masters' degrees at any of the large graduate schools in one year after receiving their bachelors' degrees, without doing more than the amount of work regularly prescribed for such higher degrees." There are fifty-nine in this class.

In the second class there are 181 institutions, which he defines thus: "Institutions whose graduates would probably require for masters' degrees in one of the strong graduate schools somewhat more than one year's regular graduate work. Perhaps one or two extra courses would supply the deficiency."

NEBRASKA UNIVERSITY.

Vacation Activities, Dairy Tests and New Building. "There are 300,000 cows in Nebraska," says Prof. J. H. Prandson of the department of animal industry at the University of Nebraska. "That do not give enough butter fat to pay for their board. Moreover, 100,000 more can easily be made to do their present business by proper feeding." These estimates are made in Bulletin No. 129, published by the Nebraska Experiment station, gives the results of these tests, and can be secured by writing to the director of the station at Lincoln. The new law building is nearing completion and will be ready for partial occupancy next semester. Besides the law department, the departments of political science and economy will occupy the building. Four teams chosen from the active workers in the University Young Men's Christian association are to do evangelistic work during the vacation, visiting Arlington, Milford, Maxwell and Waco. Their work is chiefly among high school boys. The university campus is the first in the west to receive a clock, an instrument for recording climatic conditions. The shelter and instruments have been received and will be installed as soon as the foundation is set. About a dozen members of the faculty of the University of Nebraska are attending the meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, Duane Charles E. Besser, is the retiring president and will give the opening address. Among other Nebraska representatives to deliver papers are Prof. R. H. Wolcott, W. A. Wilford, F. D. Barker and R. J. Pool. Prof. E. W. Davis, A. E. Guenther, E. A. Emerson, C. W. M. Poynter, Leva R. Walker and Floyd Galt will also be in attendance. Great Pyramid is Symbol of Life that Comes Hereafter

The great pyramid, as it symbolizes the restoration of all things. Acts 3:21, 22. The subject upon which J. A. Gillespie spoke at college hall, Nineteenth and Farnam, Sunday afternoon. After reading the scripture bearing upon the subject he showed that restitution is the great work of the next age. "The heaven must retain Jesus Christ until the times of restitution of all things. The head of the church, Jesus Christ, at his first advent performed all that was ordained to do at that time. He is the head, his body is being selected, the church in course of preparation, the bride making herself ready. When this is done, and it will be done at the close of this gospel age, which time will mark the union of the head and the body, the church, of the bridegroom and his bride. This will mark the beginning of the great work of restoring that which was lost, the period noted by the text as the second advent of our Lord to assure the reins of government of the earth, and begin the great work of the 'Restitution of all things.' "The Bible does not state that man will be restored to spirit nature. He did not lose spirit life, but earthly life. This is what will be restored. This is what the 'queen's chamber' shows. The sides of this chamber, seven in number, symbolize perfection. A floor line drawn to the first ascending passageway intersects it, just thirty-three and one-half inches below the north line of the grand gallery, an inch for a year, representing the exact age of Jesus, thirty-three and a half years, thus symbolizing that He was born under the law, "that He might redeem them that were under the law." Thus there, as we understand the scriptures, is the plan of the ages. Ephesians 1:11, and corroborated by this great pyramid of which the prophet Isaiah 65:17, speaks. This pyramid is not only in the midst of the land of Egypt, but is in the midst of the land surface of the earth. By the direction of the Lord Jehovah, it was erected as a witness and to speak "in that day," which is the beginning of the "times of restitution." As we see it, the scriptures tell us and the great stone witness corroborates this view, "that sign is near at hand, nearer than many of us think. Soon will be true the prayer we have all learned, ' * * * Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is done in Heaven.' "

Men's Forum at the St. Mary's Avenue Church Opens Work

From the former Men's club of the St. Mary's Avenue Congregational church there has grown the present and more comprehensive organization known as the Men's Forum. Its first meeting was held yesterday after the morning services at the church. Judge Howard Kennedy opened the work that the forum is designed to do with a talk entitled "Community Responsibility for Juvenile Delinquency." He brought out many interesting points in the relation of religion with our everyday government. Judge Kennedy suggested that the community spirit should be developed and that religious institutions should exercise a censorship over current literature, picture shows and theaters. He believes that the success of life depends upon the proper regulation of amusement. He said nearly everyone needs recreation, but too often it happens that it is sought under dangerous conditions. He referred especially to the younger folks and now their earlier influences mark their whole lives. After the judge's talk there was a general discussion among the members present and his views were discussed pro and con. It is the plan of the organization to hold a similar meeting every Sunday morning and to each one will invite some authority on some particular thing to open that week's meeting with his views. It is also the intention of the forum to have a lecture in the field give a encouragement a wider interest in its work. Next Sunday Rabbi Cohn will talk, taking as his subject "One Benefit of the Social Service Board."

NEGRESS DRAWS RAZOR, SLASHES BARKEEPER'S CHEEKS

Joseph Nachinskie, a bartender, called Calvin Tillis, a negro, a vile name when the latter tried upon his nose yesterday afternoon in a saloon at Tenth and Capitol avenue and as a result his two cheeks were split wide open with a razor flashed by the negro. Both were taken to the police station and Dr. Foltz repaired the white man. Tillis was arrested.

MAN IS ARRESTED WHEN THE CASH REGISTER RINGS

When her cash drawer rang while she was in a room adjoining her restaurant at 1322 Dodge street, Mrs. George Gift got suspicious and called the police. She caught the arrest of H. K. Foster, who was in the store at the time. When she came out of the room and mentioned the ringing of the cash register to Foster he explained to her that her 2-year-old baby sitting in a chair near the cash drawer had touched it, and made it ring. Mrs. Gift did not believe the story, however, so Foster was placed in jail. He told the police the same story about the baby and the cash drawer. He made no effort to get away when the police were called. The officers found him standing in front of the restaurant when they arrived.

Fox and other salesmen. The salesmen visited the Orphanage in the evening and closed their festivities with an after-theater supper at the Benschaw.

Now You Can Get Beer Without That "SKUNKY" Taste!

All you have to do is to ask for Schlitz in Brown Bottles. Sunlight grows hops, but spoils the beer. "Beer acted upon by light soon takes up the very disagreeable, so-called 'light taste,' and also a repulsive, skunk-like odor," says no less an authority than the Wahl-Henius Institute of Fermentology, the scientific authorities on the subject. "Beer so affected," they say, "is offensive to the palate of most consumers."

Light starts decay even in pure beer. Dark glass gives the best protection against light. The Brown Bottle protects Schlitz purity from the brewery to your glass.

Why don't you, too, drink Schlitz? More and more people every year are demanding it.

We started in a hut. Today our agencies dot the earth. Our output exceeds a million barrels a year.

See that crown or cork is branded "Schlitz."

Now You Can Get Beer Without That "SKUNKY" Taste!

All you have to do is to ask for Schlitz in Brown Bottles. Sunlight grows hops, but spoils the beer. "Beer acted upon by light soon takes up the very disagreeable, so-called 'light taste,' and also a repulsive, skunk-like odor," says no less an authority than the Wahl-Henius Institute of Fermentology, the scientific authorities on the subject. "Beer so affected," they say, "is offensive to the palate of most consumers."

Light starts decay even in pure beer. Dark glass gives the best protection against light. The Brown Bottle protects Schlitz purity from the brewery to your glass.

Why don't you, too, drink Schlitz? More and more people every year are demanding it.

We started in a hut. Today our agencies dot the earth. Our output exceeds a million barrels a year.

See that crown or cork is branded "Schlitz."
