ROME HOTEL TEAM TO TAKE ON FIRE LADDIES THURSDAY The Rome hotel ball team, which has won every game it has played so far this season, will play the city firemen at Thirty-second and Dewey avenue Thursday afternoon. The Romes have already beaten both shifts of the fire laddies, but the latter are showing their confidence by putting up some cash money on the side, so a hot contest is expected. Blair Wins in Ninth Inning Rally from Council Bluffs

> BLAIR, Neb., May 18 - (Special Telegram.)-Blair defeated the Council Bluffs Imperials here today in a sensational ninth inning finish by a score of 8 to 7. Blair had the game on ice and had not made a misplay up to the eighth inning, when the team went up and made five errors in the last two innings and gave the Council Bluffs boys six scores. With two behind Blair came up in the last half of the ninth and run in three scores before there was an out.

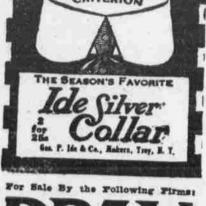

> Nex. Sunday Blair plays the Armours of South Omaha. The Armours are a fast team and a great game is expected. Blair has lost one out of four games played and has the fastest team on the field this year they have had for years.
