ROOSEVELT TOUR IS PLANNED

T. R. Wires Johnson He Will Stump California for Him.

BIG BATTLE IN PENNSYLVANIA

Colonel in Quaker State Will Call Upon Republicans to Leave Party and Go with Progressives.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., May 22.—The most important political conference in which Colonel Roosevelt has participated since the close of the campaign of 1912 was held at Sagamore Hill tonight. It brought together representatives of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, in which states the colonel probably will do his hardest fighting this fall.

At the meeting were George W. Perkins of New York, chairman of the executive committee of the progressive national committee; Walter Brown of Ohio, member of the national committee; Clifford Pinchot, progressive candidate for United States senator from Pennsylvania, and E. A. Van Valkenberg of Philadelphia, one of the foremost figures in the affairs of the party in that state.

It was decided definitely that the tentative plans for Colonel Roosevelt's campaign trip from the Atlantic to the Pacific should be adopted. This tour probably will take the former president into almost every state of the union.

Will Stump for Johnson. This decision was reached when Colonel Roosevelt sent word to Governor Hiram Johnson of California, his running mate in 1912, that he was going to California next fall to stump the state for him in his campaign for re-election.

After Colonel Roosevelt had talked with the progressive leaders he dictated a statement which was interpreted as indicating that in one state at least he will carry the fight into the ranks of the republicans by appealing to its members to ignore their past affiliations and go with the progressives. His statement was made with particular reference to the situation in Pennsylvania, where Senator Penrose is opposed in his fight for re-election by Mr. Pinchot.

Pinchot to Good Citizens. "Crises come up," Colonel Roosevelt said, "when it is the duty of all good citizens to sink party differences and stand up against flagrant wrongdoings in public life or against policies fatal to the welfare of the nation at home and to the honor of the nation abroad. All good citizens should on such occasions stand together without regard to past party differences.

"I have confidence in the integrity of the rank and file of the republican party and that they will support Mr. Pinchot." The colonel's old neighbors welcomed him back from the jungles today and they did it in a way that made the former president strangely silent as he arose to face them.

Flags were everywhere, and nailed to a telegraph pole was a huge sign, which read: "1912 and victory."

SPRING SICKNESS COMES TO EVERYONE

Spring sickness comes in some degree to every man, woman and child in our climate. It is that run-down condition of the system that results from impure, impoverished, devalued blood. It is marked by loss of appetite and that tired feeling, and in many cases by some form of eruption.

The best way to treat spring sickness is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Ask your druggist for this all-the-year-round medicine. It purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood.

MELLEN TELLS HOW HE SHIELDED MORGAN FROM INDICTMENT

Morehouse, were too ill to appear as witnesses.

Mellen Dislikes Bosses. Mr. Mellen expressed his opinion of "political bosses" today when he resumed his testimony.

Joseph K. Folk, chief counsel for the commission, asked Mr. Mellen about the purchase of the Terrytown, White Plains & Manhattan railway, an electric line, which the New Haven bought at auction for $300,000 and $1,000,000.

"Who bid against you?" asked Mr. Folk.

Mr. Mellen intimated the people who objected to New Haven's purchase were the political bosses. "They usually are on hand," he said. "I haven't had much experience with them. I had my experience with them in the West Chester transaction. That was enough."

Gets Into Lighting Business. Mr. Mellen testified the New Haven's entry into the lighting business was due to its leasing the Connecticut Railroad and Lighting company. The par value of the Waterbury gas stock was $25.

Mr. Folk read a letter to Mellen from Mr. Whitcomb, a director of the Waterbury concern, in which he said he was willing to sell 1,300 shares at such a price as it could afford to pay, at not less than $50.

Mr. Folk thought this was in effect an offer to sell at $5, but Mr. Mellen did not think so. He said Mr. Whitcomb was paid $50 a share for his stock.

Mr. Folk interrogated Mr. Mellen concerning the acquisition of the Worcester Railway and Investment company. He asked why William A. Read & Co. of New York got $10 more a share than had been paid to others.

"That was a holdup," answered Mr. Mellen, adding: "An intimation came to me that if we wanted legislation it would be a good idea to trade for stock."

"Was this in writing?"

"These things never come in writing, but they reach the spot nevertheless."

Mr. Mellen, repeating previous testimony given by him regarding the payment of $100,000 in commissions to S. P. Kelly, was asked by Mr. Folk:

"Have you told us everything about this transaction?"

"Well, after I go to bed at night, since I have been testifying, I think of things that might have been brought out and I turn over and congratulate myself that they were not."

In efforts to get control of the Worcester street railway it was necessary for the New Haven to have a bill passed by the Massachusetts legislature.

"Finally we got our bill passed through the legislature by the uprising of the body politic in our favor," said Mr. Mellen.

Prayer from the Hills. "Did the 'prayers from the hills' of the Hill town association have anything to do with the enactment of that legislation?"

"Yes, I think so; all prayers of that kind toward the right are efficacious."

"It made no difference to you what party was in power?"

"Well, we always tried to get under the best umbrella," responded Mr. Mellen.

Reading the "prayer from the hills," Mr. Folk asked Mr. Mellen if he knew what was paid for it.

"I do not know, but it was worth what we paid for it."

"Now, that opening sentence," said Mr. Folk, "I will lift up mine eyes to the hills, sounds very much like you."

"Oh, Governor," exclaimed Mr. Mellen, "have you not read the Bible? That sentence is from the scriptures."

Prayer from the New Haven. "So the prayer from the hills, supposed to come from the people, in reality came from the New Haven? What would have been the effect if this had been known?"

"It would have given us a reputation for literary talent that we did not deserve."

Asked if he had employed Prof. Bruce Wyman of Harvard at $10,000 a year to deliver lectures in the interests of the New Haven, Mr. Mellen replied:

"I suppose so."

Mr. Mellen said he believed the New Haven spent less in its campaigns for publicity than other roads had spent in a similar way.

"Was not something paid to practically every newspaper in New England?"

"I do not know as to that."

"The records show that more than 1,000 got something," said Mr. Folk.

"Well, I have no doubt that is correct," Mr. Mellen replied.

Twenty Plunged Into River from Gang Plank; Three Missing

NEW YORK, May 22.—A gang plank leading to the Scandinavian-American line steamer Frederick VIII gave way this afternoon just before the vessel sailed from Hoboken, and more than twenty persons, men, women and children, fell into the Hudson river. Many were rescued but three are missing. They are Mrs. J. W. Edwards of New York City and her 3-year-old daughter, Mary, and Oscar Feltshen, a 4-year-old boy from Astoria, L. I. Seven persons were badly injured and were rushed to hospitals. Every available ambulance in the city was hurried to the scene. Estimates varied as to the number of persons who were thrown into the water. Some ran as high as fifty. Only quick work by the steamship's crew and by dock laborers with pike poles and ropes and ladders prevented larger loss of life.
