SCHOOL KIDS BREAK HOODOO

Children Overcome Ladies' Day Jinx and Omaha Wins, 7 to 3.

SCHIPKE AND COCHRAN STAR Each Score Two Runs, Steal Three Bases, Including Third, Make One Hit and Scintillate on Fielding Chances.

The school kids put the absolute blink on the ladies' day jinx at Rourke park yesterday and Omaha tore home with a regular victory, score, 7 to 3. A wreath of olive leaves should crown the noble brow of every school child in Omaha for lending his or her efforts to drown the hoodoo which has been following ladies' days in Omaha for the last umsteen Years.

As a result of yesterday's victory the oldest inhabitant is privileged to engage in discussions concerning Indies day battles Top and relate of the times in $83 and 1894 when Omaha won such games. And those school kidn can tell their children that once upon a time leng ago they saw Omaha win a game on a Friday when members of the fair sex were admitted

Also to Mr. Bert Grover should a wreath be donated. Mr. Grover performed on the slab with much eclat. He held the Kawa just as much as they needed to be held and he deserves credit for so doing. Whenever the Kansana became perniclous and evidenced a desire to poke out his Grover shifted from the right hand box to the ports'de rubber and the stuff was off as far as Gear and his paid entertainers were concerned. Bert showed rare judgment in shifting from side to side of the pitching staff and pernaps that is why the hooden was busted. Anyway the other Omaha twirlers ought to try it on ladies' day and maybe it would give them

When Umps Gaston yelled play ball some 10,000 howling dervishes rose from the dusty boards and clamored for the Rourkes to open a full battery on the worthless Kaws. The Rourkes responded nobly to their dimitive supporters' cries. They made two runs right off the reel and from then on it was all Omaha.

Schipke and Cochran Star. Skipper Bill Schipke, the noted aquatic athlete, and George Cochran, the recent benedict, were the star performers of the afternoon's pastime. Both of the estimable gents swiped three bases, each including in his repertoire one steal of third. Also each nailed a hit and each acored two runs. Skip made a couple of nice stops and Cochran did likewise. Once the Kaw jammed head on with the grandstand to catch a foul ball off Chase's hat and once he was knocked down by Ward's vicious drive, but he recovered in sufficiently quick time to heave his rival out at first

As was remarked before Omaha got the jump on Gear's hired hands. Clancy singied and went to second on Thomason's infield out. Ward then proceeded to demonstrate that the clean up position in the lineup is rightfully his by poking a triple to center. He scored when French made a wild heave to third to catch him after he had perched safely on the bag Bases on balls to Skip and Clancy, Skip's stenl of second and third and a passed ball gave Omaha the third count.

Claner Triples Twice. Schipko's single and Clancy's triple garnered another in the fifth and a base on and one out Clancy started a double on balls, Higginbotham's soak at Congalton's running pin, a force out and Chase's double to right netted Omaha
