

Healthful Sleep

Sleep is the slowing down of all the organs of the body, Nature's period of rebuilding. Loss of sleep means drawing on the reserve forces of the entire human system. The soothing qualities of are due to the tonic properties of Saazer Hops. Malt-Nutrine is a combination of the soluble extracts of the choicest Saazer (Bohemia) Hops, and the best Barley the earth produces. When taken before retiring it promotes healthful and refreshing sleep.

ANHEUSER-BUSCH'S Malt-Nutrine

For sale by all druggists and grocers. Malt-Nutrine, when mixed with milk or sparkling water, makes a most palatable and healthful drink. Malt-Nutrine declared by U.S. Revenue Department a pure malt product, not an alcoholic beverage. Contains 48 per cent malt solids—1.49 per cent alcohol.

fall in love with you for yourself and not because —"

"I have also said that I will not marry any man, prince, duke, king, count or anything else unless I am in love with him. Don't overlook that, please."

"But he is really very nice. I should think you could fall in love with him. Just think how it would please your father and mother. Just think —"

"I won't be bullied!"
"Am I bullying you?" in amazement.

"No; but father tries to bully me, and you know it."

"You must admit that the — this Mr. Schmidt is handsome, charming, bright —"

"I admit nothing," said Miss Guile resolutely, and ordered Marie to dress her hair as carefully as possible. "Take as long as you like, Marie. I shall not go on deck for hours."

"I — I told him you would be up soon," stammered the poor, man-hating ex-governess.

"You did?" said Miss Guile, with what was supposed to be a deadly look in her eyes.

"Well, he enquired," said the other. "Anything else?" domineered the beauty.

"I forgot to mention one thing. He did ask me if your name was really Bedella."

"And what did you tell him?" cried the girl in sudden agitation.

"I managed to tell him that it was," said Mrs. Gaston stiffly.

"Good!" cried Miss Guile, vastly relieved, and not at all troubled over the blight that had been put upon a very worthy lady's conscience.

When she appeared on deck long afterward, she found every chair occupied. She started for a walk; then, feeling that people were following her with their eyes — admiringly, to be sure, but what of that? — she abandoned the pleasant exercise and sought the seclusion of the sunless corner where her chair was stationed. The ship's daily newspaper was just off the press and many of the loungers were reading the brief telegraphic news from the capitals of the world.

During her stroll she passed several groups of men and women who were lightly, even scornfully employed in discussing an article of news which had to do with Mr. Blithers and the Prince of Graustark. Filled with an acute curiosity, she procured a copy of the paper from a steward, and was glancing at the head lines as she made her way into her corner. Double-leaded type appeared over the rumored engagement of Miss Maud Applegate Blithers, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of the great capitalist, and Robin, Prince of Graustark. A queer little smile played about her lips as she folded the paper for future perusal. Turning the corner of the deck-building she almost collided with R. Schmidt, who stood leaning against the wall, scanning the little newspaper with eyes that were blind to everything else.

"Oh!" she gasped.
"I'm sorry," he exclaimed, crumpling the paper in his hand as he backed away, flushing. "Stupid of me. Good morning."

"Good morning, Mr. Schmidt. It wasn't your fault. I should have looked where I was going. 'Stop, look and listen,' as they say at the railway crossings."

"'Danger' is one of the commonest signs, Miss Guile. It lurks everywhere, especially around corners. I see you have a paper. It appears that Miss Blithers and the Prince are to be married after all."

For a small garden, where a good deal of hand weeding is necessary, an apple corer will prove more satisfactory than the regular weeder.

The corer cuts right down into the earth and lifts out the root of the weed just as it does the core of an apple.
