KRUG STARS ON THE BASES Flusters Topeka Players by Reckless Running.

ALMOST STEALS HOME PLATE

Might Have Swiped Fourth Station if Willis Had Not Blocked Him and Prevented His Making Dive.

You have got to hand it to Johnny Gonding. He's a devil in his own homtown. Four straight did Johnny grab from the unsuspecting and unsophisticated Kaws and the Rourkes took another hop toward the first division. After a thor ough and complete count of all the happenings at Roprice park Saturday afternoon was compiled and tabulated it was found that Omaha had won the battle, 13 to 6. The combat was so replete with startling and unusual activities that when the umps informed the players that the game was over the fans in the stand hardly realized it.

Pa's famous athletes fell on Messrs. Mc-Grath, Brown and Faircloth, twirlers on Battle Until Dark at Des Moines, Gear's staff, with a lumbast that made an awful din. What the Rourkes didn't do to those heaving gentlemen nobody could do, not even Ty Cobb. And Ty couldn't perform on the pathways any better than did Marty Krug. Krug ac rattled Rapp and the rest of the Kaws that he ran rampant around the bases He came near stealing home on Faircloth once and probably would have done so if Willis could have gotten out his way. so he could have jumped into the plate. In the fourth inning he sneaked home when French and Koerner were embalming Crosby and he made one of those high with one flying too, which bewildered runs in the same inning, saving the game. Rapp and that gentleman failed to touch | Score; him, although waiting pill in hand, Congalton Hits Ball Hard. Bunk Congalton and Earl Chase were the demon sluggers of the day. Both plunked the old apple four times out of five chances. Bunk was especially in trim. On two occasions he made second base on three-base hits which is some performance for Bunk. Bunk also scored three runs and Chase scored four.

Topeka was ahead twice in the game In the first inning they annexed a score and held that lead until the last half of the second and in the sixth they jumped one run in the lead by soaking out five runs off Stevenson. But their prosperity was short-lived. Omaha made four in its half of the sixth and that was the finish of the Kaws as Ralph Willis pinochie with Kansans for the rest of the Kaw Twirlers Bad.

The Kaws twirlers were responsible for the Omaha victory. McGrath was punk at the start and was hit hard. Also he was punk in between. Also he was punk at the finish. Brown, who succeeded him, and Faircloth, who succeeded Brown, were in just the same condition. But the Topeka infield played wretched ball at times and that caused several scores. Topeka scored only in two linings, the first and the sixth. A base on balls, a sacrifice and Clancy's bobble of an easy roller gave the Kaws a score in the first and four hits and two bases on balls gave them five in the sixth.

Two hits and two errors gave Omahs two runs in the second, three hits and one error and Krug's marvelous slide home made three in the fourth, two hits. three bases on balls and a sacrifice fly made four in the sixth, four hits and an error made three in the seventh and two hits made one in the eighth. As the game concluded at that point Omaha could make no more runs.

Today Omaha will collide with Wichita. Game will be called at 3 o'clock. Score:

lis 2. Bases on hells: Off Stevenson, off Willis. 2: off McGrath. 4: off wn. 1. Wild pitch: Stevenson. Time: Umpires: Gaston and Stockdale.

Bob Fitzsimmons

is Sued for Divorce

mons, former world's champion heavyweight pugilist, was sued for divorce to day in the circuit court by Mrs. Julia Fitzsimmon, who charged he had treated her with extreme and repeated cruelts since their marriage in San Francisco in 1903. Mrs. Fitasimmon alleged her husband threatened to kill her when she left him in July, 1919, and that she fear that unless restrained by the court he will carry out his threats.

Murphy Works Havoc With Chicago's One Time Winning Team

The trailing Cubs of 1914 furnish the most striking illustration of the influence of one C. Webb Murphy on base ball Here is the mere memory of the once famous Chance machine, the greatest team ever put together. Schulte only is left and he is doing utility work. Other members of that great team, though, are doing stellar work elsewhere. Evers is playing the game of his life for Boston, Tinker is still Tinker, Mordecai Brown can pitch shut-out ball, Reulbach is winning games for Brooklyn, and so they go. All of these men were let go in one way and another by Murphy. His work was one of destruction. Go to the West side. Chicago, now and you feel more than ever that it is the district of hospitals and infirmaries. You almost forget that there is a base ball park, where once the mightiest of the mighty held sway. It's a grand memory, eh?

Chicago Feds File Killifer Brief

CINCINNATI, O., May 23.-The Chicago Federals today filed their brief in the appeal of the suit to enjoin Catcher Killifer from playing with the Philadelphia Nationals in the United States circuit court of appeals. Judge Sessions at Grand Rapids, Mich., refused to grant the injunction on the ground that the plaintiff did not come into court "with clean hanos."

The Chicago club devoted its entire attention to prove the cleanliness of its hands. The Philadelphia brief will be filed soon and arguments submitted
