Rev. Mr. Short in defending his action in signing the petition of consent declared that he was accusted by a conviction that the methods employed by the prohibitionists to secure temperance reform were wrong and that under local conditions he regarded a vote for a legalized saloon to be the best temporary measure. He denied emphatically that he was opposed to the temperance movement, but asserted that he differed from many as to methods used in bringing about the best conditions.

The Liver as Aid To Blood Purity

The Natural Stimulus Required is Not the Purgative Kind.

Most Pills Are Better if Thrown Away, Important as it to keep the bowels open, it should be remembered that such action does not necessarily mean that the liver has been stimulated. The action of S. S. S. is a natural liver tonic, but not a bowel mover. It works in the liver cells to assist in the natural and necessary function of converting from the blood certain constituents into what are known as assimilable products. These are readily absorbed into the body tissues to constantly provide new and healthy material for that which is being destroyed by the energy of tissue changes.

The presence of any blood trouble naturally suggests a sluggish liver, but there is
