LAMBS GO LIKE "HOT CAKES"

Feeders Snapping Them Up as Soon as They Get on Market.

13

PRICES PAID ARE EXTRA HIGH

South Omaha Packers Unable to Compete, with Other Bidders and Sell Ments at the Going Quotations.

So anxious are the farmers and sheep men in the country to get lambs to feed for the fall and winter market that what 5-room, new, mod. hungalow; 1718 N. Tsth St. 12,350; 5300 cash. 5-room: 2709 Biondo; must be sold; $1,500; $200 cash. Phone D. 3007. than the packers care to pay for them. This is the reason assigned for the sudden rise in the price of lambs both on the hoof and in the wholesale meat market. The packers declare they cannot afford to pay the price that is necessary to outbid the farmers and feeders, and at the same time sell lambs cheap on the wholesale meat market. The result is that in the neighborhood of 1,000 California lambs were on the market in South Omaha yesterday and brought $9.10 per 100 pounds.

Seven-room brick house, bath, two fire-places, I tollets, acreened aide porch; in-laid cak flooring downstairs. 3-room hasement; full floored attic, large barn; one block from Dundee car, lot 50x127. Price, 54,850, 1619 Douglas St. Harney 1634. lambs have jumped up several dollars ou the wholesale market in the last few weeks.

Within the last few days several large consignments of lambs came from California to the South Omaha market. This is unusual for the time of year. The packing house got these and, it is said, paid 9 cents a pound for them on the hoof.

The packers are pricing lambs at wholesale at 15 to 18 cents a pound. The retailers are finding it difficult to get their supply at that figure even.

With the scarcity of sheep that resulted from the hard winter a few years ago, together with the scarcity of feed on the ranges due to the dry weather, the ranchers are now anxious to stock up where the range is good and the farmera who have plenty of feed are anxious to get hold of good lambs to feed. This has put a briskness into the market at South Omaha, as farmers and ranchers are there every day watching for the few lambs that chance to come in from scattered sections of the range where, from one reason or the other the ranchers are compelled to get rid of them

Commercial Club to Take Interest in Local Politics

The Commercial club will concern itself with the general fall election to the extent that it will send notices to its members urging that they all go to the polls both at the primaries and at the general election and vote for "good representative men." This was decided at the meeting of the executive committee at noon. The club has also decided to take steps toward organizing a glee club of the for Attendance toward organising a give club of the membership of the club. This grew out of the splendid entertainment the club enjoyed at the hands of the Glee club that came with the Peoria boosters last week. It was decided at once that the

W. M. Weich to junior captain of Engine Douglas county jail, in default of bonds. According to the story current at Hardy, Ark., the two farmers traded their farms for the wild horse contracts of sale. They then discovered that they did not have enough money to go to Arizona to catch their horses. They then traded their contracts, or sold them, to a minister named Richey, who is said to be one of the government witnesses in the case. It is said that the three men brought here from Arkansas deny having any knowledge of the fact that the contracts were worthless when they disposed of them.

NORDEN SINGING SOCIETY TO GO TO MINNEAPOLIS

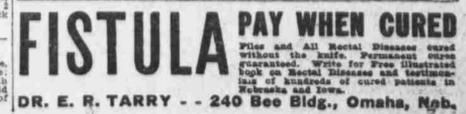

The Norden Singing society of Omaha will send a chorus of twenty-five to the sangerfeat of the United Singers' Association of America that holds its convention in Minneapolis, June 8 to 11. The chorus will be under the direction of John S. Heigren and at one of the sessions will appear in concert, which is considered a most distinctive honor.

At the Minneapolis meeting there will be 1,000 singers from all over the United States. The Omaha people will go to Minneapolis on a special train, leaving here the evening of June 7. From here they will be accompanied by singing organizations from Denver and Kansas City, they coming to join the Omahans on the trip,

The association meets in Omaha in 1916, at which time it is expected that not less than 600 singers will be here during the four days of the convention.

Thursday night of this week the Norden Singing society will give a concert in the Swedish auditorium on Chicago, just off Sixteenth streat, where a carefully prepared musical program will be rendered. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used in defraying the expenses of the chorus on the trip to Minneapolis.
