Mr. June Groom

What are you going to give your Bride To Be for a wedding present?

It's a pretty hard problem to solve we know, but here's a real common-sense hunch. Take out some life insurance—A POLICY IN THE TRAVELERS.

It may not seem to you as fitting as some piece of jewelry but twenty years from now, both you and she will be glad it was a TRAVELERS POLICY instead of some trinket which would lose its charm in a few months.

Talk to TOM KELLY,

Five Clubs Unite in the Opening of Fontenelle Park

Formal opening of Fontenelle park will be celebrated on the Fourth of July by five improvement clubs joining in arranging for a neighborhood "good time." The improvement clubs are Fontenelle Park, Central Park, Miller Park, Clairmont and Fairfax-Kenwood.

In addition the Monmouth park social center organization will assist in the celebration.

The morning will be devoted to the children of northwest Omaha, and all other sections, for the whole city is invited to participate in the celebration. Prizes will be awarded in the games and contests.

In the evening a band concert will be given and a special committee of the Fontenelle Park improvement club has arranged for a great fireworks display.

FUNERAL SERVICES ARE HELD FOR S. F. MOORE

Funeral services of Samuel F. Moore, who died Thursday at the age of 80, were held at the home at 294 Underwood avenue Saturday. The body will be taken to Fremont Sunday for burial. Mr. Moore was the father of Florence A. Moore, deputy clerk in the federal court.

M'VANN RETURNS FROM SOUTHERN COAL CASE

E. J. McVann has returned from North Carolina where he has for the last two weeks been preparing the case for the big cotton industries, which are seeking to secure a reduction in the coal rates on the grade of coal used in the cotton mills. The evidence is all ready and the case is to come up for hearing at Charlotte, N. C., June 2.

WAHOO WASP ISSUES A MOST ATTRACTIVE EDITION

The "Wahoo Wasp" has published a sixteen-page school edition, illustrated with pictures of the Wahoo schools, the members of the school board, the Wahoo High school graduating class, the teaching staff and a large number of others of interest. Several columns are devoted to the graduating class and to a description of Wahoo's school system. The "school edition" of the Wasp gives a concise and interesting account of the town's educational possibilities and is illustrated with an attractive and large "layout."
