Monday, June 8, on their way to Chicago, where the convention will be held, Special trains carrying the California, Neyada, Utah and Colorado delegations are scheduled to arrive here in the afternoon, leaving again in the early evening. Members of the executive committee of the Omaha Woman's club who are not going to attend the convention have been designated to entertain the guests, the ward M. Syfert, Mrs. John O. Yeiser, Mrs. Earl E.Stanfield and Mrs. A. L. Fernald. A street car ride to enable the visitors to view the city has been suggested, but not definitely decided upon. Omaha women are especially interested in Mrs. Edward Costigan, president of the Denver Woman's club and famous as a story teller, who will be in the party. Mrs. Costigan will be on the program at the Summer School of Missions, which will be held at the University of Omaha later June. It is thought that she will be
