By MELLIFICIA. Wednesday, June 3, 1914.

AT TWO of the larger June weddings which will take place this evening the two officiating ministers were formerly in two different Presbyterian churches in this city, and owing to intimate friendship have come from long distances for these ceremonies.

Rev. A. S. C. Clarke of the Second Presbyterian church of Evanston Ill., has arrived to perform the marriage ceremony for Miss Ann Dennis and Mr. Donald Neely. The wedding will be at the home of the bride's parents and about 150 guests will be present. Rev. Clarke was formerly pastor of the Lowe Avenue Presbyterian church of this city.

At the wedding of Miss Henrietta Flack and Mr. Miles McFayden this evening Rev. R. B. McBride of the Presbyterian church of Leavenworth, Kan., will officiate. Rev. Mr. McBride was formerly pastor of the Central United Presbyterian church of this city and is an intimate friend of Mr. and Mrs. Flack.

Another coincidence in the weddings is that each groom presented his bride with sapphires and diamonds, and also each groom presented the best man with a monogrammed belt buckle.

Mr. Neely chose a drop pendant of three diamonds and three sapphires set in platinum and finished with a large diamond drop. Mr. Charles McLaughlin, best man, received a silver monogrammed belt buckle.

Mr. McFayden presented his bride with a platinum pin set with sapphires and diamonds. Mr. George Flack, brother of the bride, and best man, received a gold belt buckle with monogram from the groom.

IT ENDS IN THE POLICE COURT

Hubby of One Family Appears with Gun and by Simply Displaying the Same Turns the Tide of Battle.

Hiram Maxim silencers were in order in Judge Hancock's court when the rooming house feud between the DeWolf and Francis families, 2003 Webster street, resulted in a charge of assault and battery and a fine of "five and" against the former. Noisy chatter reigned supreme as the couples involved and the three women witnesses sought to tell several and distinct stories at one and the same time as to the exact status quo of the battle. Picked out of the chaos were the following facts:

Wayne Francis, aged 3, weight 42 pounds, did, it appears, with malicious aforethought, bite the finger and the calf of the leg of one Kenneth DeWolf, aged 3, weight 42, both principals in said fray being respective sons of the family feudists.

Whereupon, the respective mothers of the contestants engaged in what is commonly known as a hair-pulling contest, and Enter Husband.

Whereupon, Husband Frank Francis entered as fifth person in the ring after encouraging "friend wife" with "attack with her Mary," or words to that effect, produced from somewhere about the house a gun which he did not use for anything but display purposes, but which had an immediate effect upon the battle and ended it in the Francis family's favor in the second round.

The Francis family, it further appears, were just moving out of the DeWolf rooming house into a house across the street and were getting verbal prods from the owner of the latter at the time the squabble began.

The case was extraordinary in that Judge Julius Cooley, who generally appears for the defense, was prosecuting attorney, and Acting Prosecuting Attorney Paul Bohan conducted the defense.

Wonderful Cough Remedy.

SKINNER'S MACARONI and Ham.

"Break a half pound of Skinner's Macaroni into boiling water, boil fifteen minutes, drain and blanch. Put in a buttered pudding dish boiled macaroni in layers with minced ham seasoned with salt and pepper. Beat one egg, add a cupful of milk or cream and pour over the macaroni and ham; season with salt and pepper and bake ten minutes."

Use this as a main dish in place of an all meat portion. It's more nutritious, more healthful and costs less. Skinner's, the finest brand of macaroni sold in America can be obtained at all grocers.

P.S.—"Don't eat meat that's tough and bony. Just try Skinner's Macaroni."

and you'll send your Cleaning and Dyeing to us.

Everybody agrees that the Best is always the cheapest, providing one can afford to pay for the Best. It happens that our prices are but little more than our less experienced competitors.

Large volume brings overhead cost down, so we are enabled to spend more on the actual work of Cleaning and Pressing your clothes than the concern whose overhead charge takes up fifty to sixty per cent of gross receipts. Think this over when considering where to send your clothes. Also consider these prices:
