Salt Lake Commercial Club Protests Distribution of Extra Dividend.

APPEAL MADE TO GOVERNOR

Asked to Direct the Attorney General to Investigate and Take Such Steps as May Be Necessary.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, June 4.—Expressing a belief that the Union Pacific Railroad company has exceeded its charter rights as a corporation of Utah, by declaring an extra dividend of $30,000,000, the Commercial club traffic bureau, an organization of Salt Lake City shippers, filed a request with Governor Spuy today, asking that he direct the attorney general to investigate and to take the proper steps to prevent distribution of the dividend, if it be found that the bureau is right in its position. The governor has the matter under advisement.

Many exhibits in the form of letters, newspaper clippings, extracts from testimony by E. H. Harriman and from minutes of the railroad's directors' meetings accompany the petition. It is set out that members of congress, among others, suggested that suit be filed in Utah for this purpose, as the Department of Justice found itself without authority to act in the matter.

The basis of the petition is the expressed belief of the petitioner that if the dividend be distributed, it will furnish an excuse for the imposition of an unjust burden of taxation on the people of Utah in the form of freight charges.

The shippers charge that the railroad, in declaring the dividend, performed an act equivalent to paying a dividend, with the proceeds of a bond issue. They carry their case back to the $100,000,000 bond issue of the railroad about ten years ago and contend that the amount proposed to be distributed in dividends should be used instead to retire bonds.

Boat Loses Men; Abandons Contest

ASSOCIATED PRESS BOAT OFF GLEN COVE, Long Island, June 4.—(By Wireless).—The yacht Resolute won today's trial race against Alexander Cochran's cup defense candidate, the sloop Vanitie, when the latter boat lost two members of its crew overboard and was forced to retire from the contest.

One of the seamen was rescued by a press boat and the other was taken in by the Vanitie, but not until the yacht had dropped hopelessly behind the Resolute. With its rival out of the race the Resolute finished alone and was declared the winner after the regatta committee had signalled that it need sail only half the eighteen-mile course.

Ill luck met the Vanitie after it had covered less than four miles of the race and before the boats had rounded the first mark to windward. As it tacked into a sharp south wind its deck was at a sharp angle and two of the men on board, both of whom were wearing life jackets, slipped over the side. The sound was covered with white caps and in order to save the men's lives, Vanitie heave to. Life belts were thrown to the struggling sailors and it was some time before one of them could be dragged on board. A press boat in the meantime picked up the other.

In the meantime the Resolute had an easy run to its first mark. The mishap to the Vanitie occurred in the lee of the Long Island shore. Though Vanitie was in the lead at the time, Resolute was fast overhauling her.

The official time of the Resolute at the finish was 1:35:30. The official elapsed time was fifty-three minutes and forty-one seconds.

THE VALUE OF INSURANCE.

All can recall specific instances where practically all that remained for the widow and children was the proceeds of a life insurance policy. Such examples are not rare ones, and, as they occur, they present forceful illustrations of some of the economic benefits of life insurance. It is not alone that the individual comprising the family in such cases are better housed, better fed and better clothed, but there is a far more important factor, namely, the mother is enabled to keep the children together and the family unit is not entirely destroyed. The peace of life insurance has not been emphasized enough nor given the attention which its importance warrants.

was I couldn't forget the most important thing in my life," came the answer. In June of last year the singer went to Culver, Ind., to be present at the graduation of her son, Frans George Washington Heink.

"Did you go alone?" inquired Smith. "My daughter, my chauffeurs, my cooks, my waiters and a gentleman went with me," was the reply. "And who was the gentleman?" "Mr. George Baldwin."

Witness rented a cottage there and remained five days. "Where did Baldwin live," asked the lawyer, but an objection shut off the answer. Mme. Schumann-Heink chuckled when Smith asked her if a Mr. McNamara visited her at her New Jersey home. "No man came to live with me in New Jersey," she laughed. "He came to me to take singing lessons. We sang together on the stage."

Mayer explained that the singer referred to is Edward J. McNamara.
