"LEST FOLKS FORGET"

Extracts from report made by Mayor Dahlman to the City Council two weeks ago that disclose more clearly in the light of later developments what it is all about:

CITY OF OMAHA, Executive Office.

On February 27, 1914, I received a letter from Armbruster & Farrell, Engineers and Contractors, Chicago, Ill., notifying me that one T. G. Hansen, their representative, would call on me in a few days relative to the heating plant we were figuring on installing, which is attached. However, I submit a letter from Armbruster & Farrell dated May 14, denying of ever writing any such letter, showing conclusively that the letter of February 25th was a forgery. I had previously learned, though, that Armbruster & Farrell denied ever giving such a letter. This letter simply confirms their first statement.

Mr. Hansen arrived in the city a few days later, but did not call on me until April 3, 1914, and then only for a few moments, but at once began to cultivate the acquaintance of Mr. Wolfe, Boiler Inspector; Mr. Fitt and Mr. Grace, both in that department. Thinking it strange that Mr. Hansen would remain in the city as he did, and hearing that he was with Mr. Wolfe a great deal, who was preparing these specifications, I began an investigation which extended over some seven weeks, and this accounts

These tactics disclose some of the low-down, dishonest, contemptible, underhanded methods certain crooked individuals will stoop to in order to gain a political advantage, that they have been unable to gain for eight in Switzerland. England and France and years, for the reason that the people of this city knew their only reason was to get control of the city government, and plunder the treasury.

On investigation I found that this man Hansen and three others working with him were Burns' detectives employed by the Daily News of this city. They were then shadowed and it was interesting to receive reports as to thir movements. The cunning of the fox was shown in the way air and paving of Thirtleth street where they held their meetings. Joe Polcar of the Daily News, who was directing the conspiracy, would sneak into the meeting place, where his lying tongue was giving directions. No burglar could hold a candle to Joe Polcar in these cunning maneuvers. These detectives did not have the nerve to approach any of the city commissioners, but they worked on these subordinates, hoping through bribing them these specifications would be adopted, and that the contract would be awarded to their bidder. It would have made no difference to them whether a councilman voted for their bidder innocently or not, if they secured the contract, hoping thereby to turn their batteries of publicity upon and destroy this administration. Magazine is edited and published by Miss blacken the lives of these commissioners and that of their families for all

The Daily News spent about $20,000 for this work. Hansen offered Mr. Wolfe $5,000 to get the contract through the council, and I had a warrant issued for him for attempted bribery, but it was tipped off and he flew before we had a chance to arrest him. That warrant is now in the hands of the officers. Let Mr. Joe Polcar of the News produce his hireling, Mr. Hansen, and I will not only attempt to send Hansen to the penitentiary, but I will attempt to send Polcar and the editor-in-chief of the Daily News, who lives in Minneapolis, as well, and I might include Mr. Burns, as he was here several times. I have got the facts on these fellows. My fight is in the open and I dare them to produce Hansen. They owe it to the people of this community to show that my charges are false, or they stand convicted. They have conspired to bribe and corrupt city officials. This is a felony in our state. They must prove my charges false or, if I am not mistaken in the temper of the people of this city, who believe in fair play, will drive them out of this community.

After four months' effort on the part of the detectives here, with all the money and cunning they were able to command, they did not even dare to approach me or any members of the commission, and I accept the

I have a detective agency in Chicago working on this case, and I hope to be able to bring all of them before the bar of justice. These men and such editors as conduct sheets like the Daily News cannot understand that some men in public life are honest. They are so accustomed to plunderand Jackson Sts. some men in public life at a day after day that their very soul is saturated with corruption.

TAGUE CARVES HIS INITIAL ON HIS RIVAL WILLIAMS

Jealousy over a certain "Miss Clara" was the cause of sending William Wiliams and John Tague, both colored, behind the bars for respective sentences of fifteen and thirty days.

Williams was ordered out of Tague's place at 217 North Twelfth street Wednesday when he was caught talking to "Miss Clara," and after obeying the order, picked up a brick in the street and invited Tague out to see who was who and why. Tague accepted the challenge and producing a razor which he said he used for social purposes only, proceeded to carve his initials and sundry other things on the person of his
