NACO, Ariz., June 4.-Because of Indian troubles, many American settlers, who through all previous difficulties have remained upon their ranches in the Yaqut river valley in Sonora, are preparing to desert their homes for the safety of the United States, according to reports which reached Naco today. In spite of warnings from the United States authorities, the Mexican constitutionalists and the Yaqui Indians themselves, the settlers previously had remained firm in their declaration to stay upon their property and the intention now to leave resulted from the constantly increasing number of Indians gathering in that district. The Indian scare has spread rapidly throughout the entire state of Sonora, and inhabitants of towns in the Moctezume and Arispe districts, 100 miles or BURNED DOWN LAST NIGHT is a thing of the past. In some unknown manner it caught fire last night and was totally destroyed before the fire department arrived. The loss is around $500 to $700.

Being of dry pine lumber, the grandstand burned rapidly, the flames shooting into the air 100 feet or more, leading people in other parts of the city to believe that the whoe southwest part of town was burning.

HIGH SCHOOL REUNION AT HAPPY HOLLOW JUNE 22 Happy Hollow club will be the scene of the big reunion of all high school graduates this year, and the date will be Monday evening, June 22. The matter was definitely arranged at a meeting of the directors of the Alumni association at the University club. Committees were appointed to boost the affair, which is expected to be the largest attended of any reunion ever held. Following the brief business meeting and the reunion, dancing will be enjoyed and refreshments will be served.
