There will be at least nine charming debutantes this autumn, which fact gives promise for a brilliant social season. Last year there were but two, Miss Mens Davis and Miss Lucille Bacon, Perhops some of those who had planned to ome out last year objected to starting their social career in 1913, for of the young women who will be introduced this autumn finished school last year. Nearly all of the debutantes this season formerly attended Brownell Hall, and quite a number belonged to the same sorority. Most of the young women who are to be introduced during the season make their first public appearance at the Ak-Sar-Ben ball, where they will be specially honored in attending her majesty, the queen.

One of the first debut receptions this fall will be given by Mr and Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith for their daughter, Miss Harriet Huntington Smith. This reception will be at their home sometime in

Miss Eleanor Mackay, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. T. J. Mackay, who has just finished school, has been invited to receive with Mrs. Smith and Miss Harriet Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Smith and family sail June 25 from Boston on the Laconia, to spend the summer in Europa. Miss Frances Hochstetler, another debutante, will also spend the summer in Europe and sails Tuesday with her father. Miss Hochstetler attended school last year at Ely Court, and had planned to spend part of last winter in Europe, but the trip was postponed until last week from Ely Court, arrived here were: yesterday with her mother, and Miss Marion Kuhn, who has been visiting in the east. Both Miss Kuhn and Miss Thummell make their debuts this fall. Miss Marie Stewart, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Stewart of Council Bluffs, has a host of friends in Omaha interested in her social career. Miss Stewart attends Briarcliff school in New York, and is visiting relatives of Mrs. Stewart in New Jersey until about June 11, when she will go to New Haven to attend the Yale senior week. Miss Stewart will be the guest of Donald McFerren, who visited at the Stewart home last summer and will be caperoned by Mrs. McFerren. After the Yale exercises Miss Stewart and the Mc-Ferrens will motor up to New London for the races and then motor back to Miss Harriet Mets and Miss Eleanor Mackay have just finished school at Mrs. Somers' in Washington, D. C. The former arrived home the first of the week and has as her guest, her roommate, Miss Miles of Los Angeles: Miss Mackay returned home yesterday after spending the week as the guest of Miss Marion Pierce, cousin of Miss Katherine Besson, who has been giving a Louse party at her home in Lafayette, Ind. Miss Anne Gifford, who finished school at Ely Court last year, and Miss Eugenle Patterson, who attended school in Washington, D. C., are the other two debutantes, making nine so far who will be formally introduced this fall.

Webster-Beeson Wedding Party. Miss Katherine Beeson and Mr. Jack Webster, whose wedding Tuesday evening will be one of the large social events of the season, are being much enter-tained.
