"harmony."

would not keep his word and he con-

M. Skiles of David City, however, the chief harmonizer. Mr. Skiles that the democratic party could not exist half Hyranized and half Ryan.
He thought that there were too good men in the democratic party and for the Ryanized stunt. He op-

H. Thompson or Dick Metcalf.

William J. Bryan. Colonel Maher the sudden turn in the remarks of be assured by the bungalow on the beer

GIDEONS HOLD CONVENTION! Traveling Men Exhibit Religious as Well as Commercial Spirit.

WIVES GUESTS AT A BANQUET Five Ministers and Secretary of Y. M. C. A. Present at Dinner—Toasts and Music Add to Evening's Pleasure.

That traveling men may be religious as well as commercial was demonstrated in Omaha Saturday at the annual state convention of the Gideons. They are the organization which has placed Bibles in guest rooms of hotels throughout the state and in the dormitories of the Young Men's Christian association.
Although the annual banquet of the order last night at Hotel Loyal was a social affair, with the wives of the twenty-five delegates joining the latter, the religious nature of the Gideons was thoroughly emphasized by the presence of five ministers and General Secretary E.
F. Denison of the Young Men's Christian association. The preachers were Rev. F.
J. Hull, Rev. Titus Lowe, Rev. D. E.
Jenkins, Rev. W. Jasper Howell and Rev.
M. V. Higbee.

The church, the Bible and religion in general, as related to men, business, and everyday affairs, provided the theme of the speeches after the banquet. J. J.
Cameron was master of the evening and State President G. M. Barnes was toastmaster. Music was furnished by Miss Grace Leidy, Miss Flora Sears, T. H.
Weirich and E. F. Swadlow.
Six-minute talks were made by Rev.
F. J. Haas, E. F. Denison, Mrs. G. M.
Barnes, J. A. Sunderland, Rev. M. V.
Higbee, Louis Hompes, C. W. Senfitt, State President G. M. Barnes and others.
Services this morning at the First Baptist church will be attended in a body by the delegates. They will also conduct a special gospel meeting at 4 o'clock at the association building.
After a brief business session memorial services in honor of the late W. H. Haley, a departed member, were held at the Young Men's Christian association building, yesterday afternoon, with A. V. Whit-ting in charge.

PURCHASES HAT WITHOUT PUTTING IT ON HIS HEAD

Buying a hat without ever trying it on is a new method of merchandising that few men would care to adopt. Yet A. T.
Benson of the Benson & Thorne store had such an experience with a hat purchaser yesterday.
"It was the first time during my twenty-five years of experience that I ever sold a man a hat without his trying it on," Mr. Benson said afterward.
"A stranger asked to see some Panamas and I laid out a number on the counter.
He immediately picked out the one that he fancied, paid for it and hurried away with it in a bag, without ever placing it on his head or looking in a mirror."

Commencement at Omaha University

The following week promises to be one of unusual activity for the seven graduates of the University of Omaha. Beginning Tuesday evening the senior class will have their graduating banquet at Carter lake. Wednesday afternoon the class day exercises will be held in Jacobs Memorial hall. In the evening of the same day the seniors will entertain the entire student body at a farewell party at the home of Dr. D. E. Jenkins, president of the University of Omaha. Thursday evening commencement exercises will be held while Friday evening the seniors will be the guests of honor at the alumni banquet to be held at the Loyal hotel.

This morning Rev. Maxwell of the Calvary Baptist church will deliver the bacalaureate sermon speaking on "Sovereignty of Reason." The entire student body will turn out for the sermon.
Concern is manifested over the condition of Clinton Halsey, one of the seniors.
Some time back Mr. Halsey injured his back, which rendered him paralyzed for a while. He has continued to keep up his class work while in bed. A short while ago his condition was so improved that he was able to attend his classes, but lately he has suffered a relapse.
J. E. Deseill, superintendent of state schools, will deliver the principal address Thursday evening at the commencement exercises. All music for the exercises will be furnished by the school chorus and orchestra, which have been practicing for the last two months.

Two Men Are Injured When Train Hits Auto

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., June 7.—(Special Telegram)—David Otto was probably fatally and Julius Boettke seriously injured yesterday afternoon at the main crossing of the Union Pacific at Wood River when the automobile in which the two young farmers were riding was struck by the local freight train just entering the city.

Coroner Baumann was notified that one was dead and hurried to the scene. The automobile and the freight locomotive arrived at the intersection at the same moment. The engineer did not know that he had struck the car until Boettke was observed jumping off the pilot, which had carried the car for nearly a block. Otto was pinned to the pilot under the auto.
The call for the coroner was premature, but he aided in having the injured man brought to the hospital here. A bad scalp fracture has been trepanned, since which time Otto is some easier. Boettke's injuries are also about the head.

STORZ LOSE IN LAST ROUND Blatner Pokes Home Run, Which Settles Battle.

GAME GOES TWELVE INNINGS Olson Has Better of Pitchers' Battle with Jackson, but Teammates Fail to Produce in the Pinches.

"Big Chief" Blatner smote a mighty drive over the left field fence at Bourke park Saturday, ending a twelve-inning struggle between the All-Nations and the Storz. The score was 5 to 4 in favor of the All-Nations.
The game was a pitching duel between big "Husk" Olson and "Cannon Ball" Jackson. The Storz outbit the All-Nations two to one, but failed to make their hits count. Jackson struck out fourteen of the brewers and was very effective in the pinches. Olson steeled down after the fourth inning and allowed but one clean hit. Blatner's home run drive, which came with one man on.

The All-Nations took advantage of some critical misplays by the Storz in the early innings, but the local semi-pros braced and tied the score in the eighth inning.
The Storz scored in the second inning after two were out, when Dyck got a life on an error and scored on hits by Hack-ten and Olson. The All-Nations got one in their half on a pair of errors and a hit by Brindley. The visitors jumped into the lead in the fourth, when two errors, coupled with two hits, gave them a two-run lead.
Feltman beat out an infield hit in the eighth and scored when Walls allowed Donaldson's throw to third to get away from him.

Rally in Last Round.

After the fourth inning Olson retired the All-Nations in order, except in the ninth and twelfth innings. The Storz made a mighty effort to snatch the victory in their half of the twelfth. Graham led with a single and Harry Welch clouted a double down the first base line, Graham being held at third. Lawler hit safe, scoring Graham, but Welch was held at third. Feltman drove a short fly to center field and Sanders, batting for Dyck, struck out. Hachten made the last out on a grounder to Mendez.
This afternoon at 3 o'clock Donaldson will oppose Sanders, the new twirler.
