

BOY'S STORY SAVES M'KENNA

Colored Youth's Testimony Frees Indicted Man in Federal Court.

YOUNGSTERS ENTER A COMPACT

Five Mixed Up in Boxcar Theft Agree to Swear that Accused Man Made Them Steal for Him.

Arrested after a five-block chase, during which city detectives emptied their revolvers at him, indicted by a federal grand jury, and after laying in jail for more than seven months, Edward McKenna was freed in the United States district court, when, on the motion of A. W. Lane, United States district attorney, Judge Smith McPherson directed a verdict for the defendant, because one little colored boy, Benny Welch, from the state reformatory, told the truth, thereby exposing the perjury of five other lads ranging from 12 to 16 years of age.

DON'T SUFFER WITH ITCHING --USE RESINOL

My, what relief!—The moment Resinol Ointment touches any itching skin, the itching stops and healing begins. With the aid of Resinol Soap, it quickly removes all traces of eczema, rash, nettle, ringworm, pimples or other ugly, tormenting eruptions, and leaves the skin clear and healthy. It is equally effective for sore, boiled, burns, red, rough hands, dandruff and falling hair.

People to Vote on Bond Issue for a New City Jail

Petitions asking the city commission to submit to the people the proposition of issuing bonds sufficient to build a new city jail are being circulated.

Robbers Leave Only Vest for Victim

With only his vest left to cover his nakedness, Matt Kenon, Berry county, Missouri, made his way from Eighth and Davenport streets to police headquarters early in the morning to complain of being assaulted and robbed by a negro "strong arm" man.

Good Rains Fall Over Most of State

Heavy rains were reported in many sections of Nebraska Monday night, the greatest precipitation being at Greeley Center, where a total of 1/4 inches was recorded. Over the Wymore, Omaha and Lincoln divisions of the Burlington there were showers ranging from one-quarter to one inch.

Acute Indigestion

"I was annoyed for over a year by attacks of acute indigestion, followed by constipation," writes Mrs. M. J. Gallagher, Geneva, N. Y. "I tried everything that was recommended to me for this complaint, but nothing did me much good until about four months ago I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them from our druggist. I soon realized that I had gotten the right thing for it, and it helped me at once. Since taking two bottles of them I can eat heartily without any bad effects." Sold by all druggists.—Advertisement.
