The young people are returning from college. Already a number have reached Omaha and the next few days are expected to bring many more. Among the first to arrive were Warren Hamilton, Armour Institute of Technology, Chicago; Frank Latenser, Columbia university, New York City; Wilson Heller, University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo. Miss Katherine Davenport, who has been attending Syracuse university at Syracuse, N. Y., arrived home Saturday morning to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. F. W. Clarke. Miss Edna Bartlett has returned from Chicago, having finished her junior year at the Northwestern university. John Chadwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Chadwick, has returned from Cornell, where he has completed his junior year. Miss Mary Megeath has returned from school at Briar Cliff Manor, N. Y., accompanied by Mrs. Megeath, who went east to join her. Maurice Brogan returned Wednesday from Lawrenceville, N. Y. Mr. Casper Offutt arrived home Friday from Yale. His brother, Jarvis, will arrive next Tuesday with his mother and sister, the latter from school at Rosemary Hall, and Mrs. Offutt from two months' stay in the east. Mrs. Charles Kountze goes to Chicago Wednesday to meet her son, Denman, on his way home from school at St. Paul's. Mr. G. S. Rogers went to Boston for the graduation of his son, Samuel Evan Rogers, 3d, from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology on Tuesday of this week. Mr. Rogers and his son will travel in the east a while and the latter expects to remain east in business. Miss Nellie Elgutter, daughter of Charles S. Elgutter, is a member of this year's graduating class at Smith college. Commencement festivities began last Wednesday, when the seniors held their last "sing" on the steps of the student building, and will continue until Tuesday, when the graduation exercises will take place, followed by the alumnae assembly. Dr. Marton Leroy Burton, president of Smith college, will present the diploma.

To Have Four Debut Parties. Miss Harriet Huntington Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith, who will be one of the debutantes this year, will have unusual social opportunities and will probably have four debut parties given in her honor. The first will be a tea given in November by Mrs. Smith at her home, and during the holidays, or as soon as the new Fontenelle hotel is completed, or perhaps partially completed, Mr. and Mrs. Smith plan to have the first large dancing party at the hotel. Shortly after the first of the year Miss Smith will go to Boston, her mother's former home, where she will be formally introduced at some social affair given by an aunt, Mrs. George Putnam. After a visit in Boston Miss Smith will go to New York City, where she will also have a debut party. Miss Smith is a tall brunette with much personal charm and belongs to the "royal" families of Omaha, being the daughter of an ex-king of Ak-Sar-Ben.

With European Travelers. Mr. and Mrs. Gould Dietz are expected to land in New York today from their trip around the world. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Smith and family leave today for the east and will sail on the 23d from Boston for a summer in Europe. Mrs. George M. Palmer and daughter, Joan, leave Monday for the east to sail June 21 for a summer abroad. Mrs. Palmer will be joined in the east by her son, Morse, who is at St. Paul's school. Mrs. Hugo Brandeis has written Omaha friends that she will shortly leave Paris and will spend the month of July in London. Dr. and Mrs. Hull leave next Saturday for the east and will sail on La Savoie for six weeks or two months abroad. Mrs. Charles Silverick was in the party sailing Tuesday from New York with Miss Ross of Council Bluffs to spend the summer in travel abroad.

Visitors Returning Home. Miss Elizabeth Parsons, Miss Edna Miles and Miss Susadele Miles, the three girls from Mrs. Somers' school in Washington, who have been visiting Miss Eleanor Mackay and Miss Gertrude and Miss Harriet Metz for the last week, left Friday for their homes in Los Angeles and San Francisco. Mrs. H. S. Caldwell and Miss Baldwin except to return to Topeka Thursday. Miss Lucy Hawk of Battie Creek will remain as Miss Butler's guest until the early part of next week. In her honor Miss Butler gave an informal luncheon Thursday.

Summer Plans. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Kimball and son left last Wednesday for their summer camp at Gordon, Wis. Later they will be joined by other members of the family, including his mother and sister, Mrs. and
