High School Cadets Return from Week at Missouri Valley.

COMPANY H GETS THE HONORS

Wins Relay Race Friday, White Companies A and F Are Second and Third—Camp Most Successful for Years.

Tired, weary, sun-burned and otherwise fatigued, the Omaha high school cadet regiment clambered out of a Northwestern train at Union station yesterday morning shortly after 11 o'clock and began their march up through town to the high school, where they stacked their arms, preparatory to returning to their homes to get their first real rest in a week.

The cadets were considerably more worn out this year than previous years. Rain, which seemed to take delight in falling every night just at the time it was possible to rest peacefully and quietly, cut the hours of rest short at camp, and last night was a bit worse than before. Also the cadets were piled out of their tents at 4:30 this morning to pack up the baggage and prepare to return home.

But for all the tired feeling, a grin appeared on the face of every cadet, showing that at least they were happy, and happiness is all that is essential. The cadets trooped up Farnam street with more or less military discipline. The band played martial tunes and the cadets were quite effective in blocking the traffic at Sixteenth and Farnam streets for several moments.

Company H returned with final honors, winning the relay race at the last minute. Friday, Company A was second and Company F was third.

The officers of the battalions announced upon their return that the camp was the most successful held in several years, despite the rain. The parade grounds in good condition during the camp and frequent drills were held. The captains of the various companies assert that the efficiency of their commands was materially increased and all hope to turn in scores never perfect at the competitive drill this week.

The cadets were unanimous in their praise of Lieutenant Tost, who accepted the command of the camp at the last minute, as Captain Stittinger was not able to attend. Entering the office almost unknown to any of his charges, he soon became the friend of every individual cadet, and it was largely due to this that the camp was such a success.

Immanuel Baptists Give Two Concerts During This Week

No Summer School at Y. W. C. A. This Year

On advice of Superintendent E. U. Graff, the Young Women's Christian association has decided not to conduct a summer school for girls. Miss Haerler, educational secretary of the association, made the announcement after a conference with Mr. Graff, who stated that it would be more practical for private tutors to teach the girls who desired special instruction during the summer. The failure of plans for the girls' vacation school will leave the girls without any organized school where they can make up work, since the school board will not conduct one this summer. However, the vacation school for boys, planned by the Young Men's Christian association, is assured. It will open Monday, June 22. Miss Fanny Forsyth, principal of Walnut Hill school and formerly principal of the public summer school, will assist in the registration. The departmental system of teaching will be used, there being a teacher for each subject. The cost will be $10 for high school subjects and $5 for those of the grades. Teachers approved by the school authorities are being retained for the work.

MEXICAN LABORER DIES FROM RAILROAD INJURIES

Amelio Casallo, aged about 35 years, Mexican laborer, was fatally injured Friday afternoon while attempting to steal a ride on a train near the Union depot. He died a few minutes after he was taken to the station. Coroner Crosby took charge of the body pending information from relatives of the deceased man.

Kaiser Asked to Keep Promise for Ballot Reform in Prussia

BERLIN, June 13.—The socialists and other liberal parties in the Prussian diet are protesting against "the long unkept promise of the king."

More than six years ago the emperor, as king of Prussia, declared it to be his desire that a modern franchise system be established in the state, to take the place of the existing three-class, non-secret ballot, which Bismarck once termed "the most inequitable system in the world." Since Chancellor von Bunsow presented the king's desire to the diet, only one attempt, and that wholly unsuccessful, has been made by the government to carry out the king's wishes. Minister von Loebell, the new incumbent of the ministry of the interior now announces that he does not propose to present any measure this year for alterations of the voting system.

The liberal parties had hoped better things from von Loebell, who was von Bunsow's right-hand man when the latter was chancellor and who was in office when the king's wishes were made known to the diet. The conservatives are greatly pleased with von Loebell's stand, and the more so since they had feared possible liberal tendencies on his part.

Ex-King Manuel and Bride Are at Outs

PARIS, June 13.—Although the repeated rumors of a divorce between the deposed King Manuel of Portugal and his German princess lack confirmation, friends of the family in Paris declare that their affairs have reached an acute stage. Manuel and his wife have never understood each other, and in spite of praiseworthy efforts on the part of both to arrive at an honorable arrangement of their life, they have never succeeded in bridging the gulf which opened between them immediately after their marriage.

The marriage was an idyllic Queen Amelia looked upon the daughter of her old friend, the prince of Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen, as the ideal wife for her son, possessing all those qualities which were lacking in his character. The little princess had a will of her own and was not devoid of ambition. Might she not be the means of bringing Manuel back to this throne? Such a role, however, demanded first of all, experience, and in this the princess was totally lacking. She found that Manuel was a careless, easy-going, almost irresponsible youth, irresolute, but yet capable of sudden and unfeeling obstinacy. He on his side saw in her a narrow-minded, authoritative young person, with ideas which appeared to him out-of-date and provincial—a passion for housekeeping and other domestic virtues, which fell in neither with his tastes nor his requirements. Under these circumstances a quarrel was inevitable.

Queen Amelia and the intimates of the two families are doing their best to smooth away the differences between the young couple, but they are not optimistic.

KENNEDY TALKS AT THE CENTRAL PARK CLUB

John L. Kennedy, republican candidate for congress, Friday night told the Central Park Improvement club in the Central Park school that "this country is now confronted with the question, 'rule by men or rule by millions; when we give women the vote, the rule by million power will end.'"

Mrs. M. B. Munson of Pittsburgh, Kan., talked and answered questions. She was asked if men and their wives do not vote similarly; "I have known men who are profigate; their wives did not vote as the husbands did, they voted their own interest."

King Alfonso Held Up by Policeman

PARIS, June 13.—A powerful automobile recently was being piloted through the picturesque old town of Bayonne in the south of France by a young man with a large nose and protruberant underlip. A zealous policeman pulled up the machine, got out his note book and proceeded to take particulars with a view to the usual citation before the police judge for exceeding the speed limit. "Name, please," demanded Policeman Pelourgat, pointing a threatening pencil at the smiling automobilist. "Alfonso." "That's not a name. Answer properly. Alfonso who? Alfonso what?" "Alfonso—King, if you like." "So your name is Alfonso King?" Meanwhile a large and delighted crowd had collected and began to cheer. Finally someone enlightened the worthy policeman.

Kamerun Negroes Must Move to Make Room for New City

BERLIN, June 13.—The reichstag has sustained the colonial authorities in their recent disposition of the negroes at Duala, the chief port of the German colony of Kamerun, in Africa, in order to make a modern sanitary city there. The protest from the negroes was at first received in Germany sympathetically but Dr. Solf, secretary for the colonies made such a convincing defense of the proposition that the reichstag passed the appropriations called for by a large majority, only the socialists voting against them. Another phase of the controversy has arisen. Recently the German colonial government arrested Rudolf Bell, chief of the Duala, on a charge of treason. It is alleged that he went into the interior to foment an uprising against the Germans with a view to attaching Kamerun to the adjacent English colony of Nigeria. In connection with this affair another arrest has just been made at Berlin. A native, sent by the Duala to Germany to present their case to the reichstag, has been sent to prison, and it is understood he will be sent back to Kamerun for trial.

BERLIN WILL HAVE NEW UNDERGROUND RAILROADS

BERLIN, June 13.—Plans are under consideration for three new underground railway systems in Greater Berlin, at an estimated total cost of $60,000,000. One line, from the northeast to the southwest, from the Royal opera house, probably will be built in the near future. The other two are not yet beyond the stage of preliminary consideration. One would start in the Grunewald, pass under the Brandenburg gate and Unter den Linden, and then branch off to the southwest. The other is a proposed extension of the existing Schoenberg underground railway, both to the north and south. It would connect the southern suburbs directly with the main lines of the city.

man, who turned crimson with mortification. No one enjoyed the joke more than Alfonso. With a broad grin he held out his hand and shook the policeman warmly. "Adios, Alguazil," he said, as he pressed his foot on his electric starter. In a few minutes the automobile was a speck on the San Sebastian road. Since then Policeman Pelourgat is celebrated in Bayonne as "the man who arrested the king."

Large Theaters Are Ordered to Pay the Occupation Taxes

Seventeen large theaters in Omaha have been ordered to pay their occupation taxes at once, or be prosecuted under an ordinance which provides that such theaters shall pay 10 cents per seat annually, with a fixed maximum and minimum, if moving picture entertainments are a feature of their programs. Mayor Dahlman has taken the matter up with City License Inspector Berkowitz, and Berkowitz has been instructed to take the necessary legal steps to collect the tax. Out of forty-five theaters seventeen are behind in this tax. When the ordinance was passed proprietors of the theaters agreed that the tax was reasonable, although a small minority protested the council's right to levy such a tax. This tax raises more than $2,000 annually. To date about $1,000 or half of the tax has been paid. Join the Swappers' Club. Membership is free. Call at Bee office.

At the Summer Theaters

"Aladdin's Lamp" this week at the Empress.

The bill at the Empress this week consists of one of Menlo Moore's greatest productions, entitled "Aladdin's Lamp." In the cast appears Dixie Harris as the little southern girl and a sweet little comedienne, Clarence Marks is a well known minstrel man, and will be remembered as an end man in "Honey Boy." Evans and Lew Dockstader minstrel organizations. There is no pretense at seriousness and plot—the tale merely offers a novel introduction of picturesque settings, costumes and songs. This act bids fair to surpass anything yet shown at this theater in Moore's productions. "Booth and Howard" present a novelty sketch entitled "A Black and Tan Comedy," and introduce the three famous knockabout game-cocks, which are fighting roosters imported direct from Mexico. "Jimmie" Fente, a little Italian accordion player, furnishes a world of raggy music for the bill and Aldro and Mitchell complete it with comedy acrobatics on a revolving ladder. Best editions of the Hearst-Selig news pictorial are shown in connection with each performance. High class photo-drama and comedies complete the bill. Manager Schiank of the Hipp Theater has completed arrangements whereby the "Mutual Program," consisting of "movies" unquestioned star first-run subjects, will be exhibited at the Hipp theater exclusively beginning tomorrow and continuing indefinitely. A feature will be the justly famous "Keystone" comedies, which have long enjoyed a reputation as the best comedy films. Other well known productions which are allied with the Mutual interests are the producers of the Tannhouser and the Continental features, and the well known Mutual Girl series will be included. As an added inducement four reels will be shown during the summer instead of three, as heretofore, giving the patrons ample time to cool off in a theater where the atmosphere is always ten degrees cooler than outside. On and after tomorrow the program will be changed daily. Dumas' famous novel, "The Three Musketeers," has been warmly welcomed on the film at the Hipp theater, where it has been exhibited all this past week; in fact the attendance has been so great that Manager Schiank has decided to extend the engagement over today. At the Gayety today and four times daily all week, "Traffic in Souls," the full-blooded six-reel sermon, will be shown. The films will be displayed only four times daily all week, two hours being consumed at each exhibition, which will start at 1, 3, 7 and 9 p. m. A June piano recital was given by advanced pupils of Mrs. E. T. Meavee at her Bemis park studio Saturday, June 13, assisted by Miss W. T. House and Miss Ethel Parsons, vocalist. The following pupils took part: Vivian Hanson, Levaugh Lehnhoff, Francis Laddell, Mrs. W. T. House, Beatrice Montgomery, Charlotte Skidmore, Miss Ethel Parsons, Adeseah McGiffin.

Musical Notes A recital was given by Miss Hazel Silver, soprano, and Miss Ruth Hamilton, contralto, pupils of James Edward Carnal, Friday evening, June 12, at 8:30 o'clock at the First Christian church, Twenty-sixth and Harney streets. A piano recital was given by the pupils of Miss Adeline Wyckoff at her residence
