MANY TEACHERS TO EUROPE

Dozen Omaha Educators to Spend Vacation Abroad This Year.

SCHOOLS CLOSE THIS WEEK

Class Day Exercises Will Be Held at the Various Public Institutions of Learning for Eighth Grade Grad.

When schools close after one more busy week, public school teachers will leave in numbers on their annual vacation pilgrimages. At least a dozen will spend the summer touring in Europe. Many others will spend their vacation attending vacation and special schools.

The public school program for the coming week follows: Monday night, Board of Education meeting; Tuesday, Castellar class day program; Wednesday afternoon, Cass and Walnut hill class days and competitive cadet drill at Fort Omaha; Wednesday night, Central High school senior banquet at Happy Hollow; Thursday night, high school commencement at Brandeis theater; Friday night, high school of commerce commencement at Brandeis.

All schools will close Friday afternoon. The following teachers will leave within two weeks to spend their vacation in European travel: Miss Johanna Anderson, Columbian school; Miss Lucy Evans, Central; Miss Isabel Doyle, principal at Central; Miss Mima Doyle, Columbian; Miss Marie Wetzel, Saunders; Miss Ethel Lynn, Central.

Principal E. D. Gepson of the Fort Special School for Boys, will spend the summer studying vocational training at the Ames, Ia., college. Mrs. Orietta S. Chittenden, kindergarten supervisor, will study in some eastern school. Miss Clara Cooper, principal of the teachers' training class, and Miss Margaret Hamilton, principal of Dupont school, will take a special course in Columbia college during the summer.

Miss Bertha Elsas, manual training teacher at Castellar, will study at the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts.

Eighth grade graduates and the high school graduates will be given their diplomas commencement night and the week following the close of school, as fast as the diplomas can be prepared.

Bishop Scannell Confirms Class at St. Mary's Seminary

The feast of Corpus Christi was the occasion of Rt. Rev. Bishop Scannell's administering the sacrament of confirmation to a class at Mount St. Mary's seminary. The bishop gave a brief discourse to the class, dwelling on the necessity of being ruled by one's own conscience regardless of the fashion in manners and morals set by others. He expressed his satisfaction at the manner in which his questions were answered and concluded the ceremony with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Those present in the sanctuary were Rev. J. T. Smith, Rev. H. Gately and Rev. Edward Flanagan. Mrs. Adolph Stora and Miss Ophelia Hayden, who acted as sponsors, gave the young ladies a delightful treat in the evening.

Corset Steel Deflects Bullet; Saves Life

The steel in the corset of Mrs. Cora Thike, 1102 South Eleventh street, frustrated her attempt at suicide last night and resulted in her being put on the road to recovery at St. Catherine's hospital. Mrs. Thike, who has been dependent for some time, told her husband that she was ready to die. The husband thought her statements were merely the outcome of her morose mood and paid no attention. Last night she took a .38-caliber gun and went up to her room. Her husband, unsuspecting, knew nothing until he heard the report of the gun and found his wife lying on the bed.

Child Meets Death By Fall in Cistern

Drowned in eighteen inches of water was the sorrowful death of little Agnes Mann, aged 1, daughter of James Mann, 487 Camden avenue. The little girl deserted her playmates and ran across the street from her home to play. An abandoned cistern twelve feet in depth was at the spot and her childish ideas led her to throw flowers into it to see them float. Evidently she forgot herself and lost her balance while watching the flowers and toppled over into the cistern. She was in the water at least twenty minutes before her little friends gave the alarm to her parents. She was dead when found.

FATHER ADVISES JUDGE TO SENTENCE BOY TO KEARNEY

William Wagner, a laborer employed by the Omaha Ice and Cold Storage company, his eyes in tears, advised Judge Sears to send his 17-year-old son, Casper, to the Kearney industrial school because the boy admitted having participated in thefts accomplished by a gang of youths. The judge entered the sentence on his docket.

Young Wagner's confession explained the disappearance of a number of bicycles. "There is no use of his saying he didn't know what he was doing," said the father. "Honest thieves never escaped hanging in that way."

The Wagner home is at 2612 Webster street.

Best Diarrhoea Remedy. If you have ever used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy you know that it is a success. Sam F. Guin, Whittier, Ala., writes, "I had measles and got caught out in the rain, and it settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time, and had it not been for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not, possibly have lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy, I am now well and strong." Henry E. Grush, aged 15 months, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Grush of 3415 South Twenty-fourth street, Omaha, died Friday afternoon at the home of his parents. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 from the residence, interment being made at the Laurel Hill cemetery.

According to statistics printed in the Journal-Stockman of yesterday, South Omaha ranked third among the twenty or more cities in the country in the number of hogs packed since March 1 of this year. Chicago ranked first, followed by Kansas City and Omaha by only a slight margin.

Old Policy Holders Guests of Company

G. W. Noble, manager of the Nebraska district for the New England Mutual Life Insurance company, entertained twenty of the oldest policyholders in the company, together with the local agents, Wednesday at luncheon at the Commercial club.

The oldest policyholder in the city, S. L. Wiley, who has been insured in the company fifty-one years, was unable to be present as he had to be out of town. The twenty men present carry insurance in the New England Mutual in the aggregate of $135,000. Mr. Noble in his talk to the guests said the company was now insuring the sons of these very men. F. A. Brogan, J. A. Sunderland, Phil Potter and others made short talks.

Omaha Agents at the Lincoln Meet

Omaha was well represented at the annual convention of the state convention of Nebraska Insurance agents held at Lincoln Friday and Saturday of last week. Sixteen of the Omaha men were present and while not all of them were on the program, they made their presence felt at the banquet.

The Omaha attendance was worked up to a large extent by Frank Martin of the Martin Brothers' agency, who is enthusiastic over the insurance organization. Guy C. Cramer of the Foster, Barker agency, was one of the speakers, delivering an address on "Workmen's Compensation Liabilities."

Insurance Notes and Personal. Guy C. Cramer of the Foster, Barker agency, is back from New York, where he spent a week looking after business matters.

The Lion Bonding company is about ready to enter two additional states for business and will complete the arrangements next month.

Vice President Laikart of the Lion Bonding company spent most of last week in Kansas and Oklahoma, looking over the business situation. Before returning he took a run through Missouri.

The Commonwealth Life Insurance company has completed its arrangements for taking its business to Kansas, commencing July 1. Offices will be opened at Manhattan with Crook & Goldstein, an old insurance firm of the Kansas town, in charge.

President Nelson of the Commonwealth Life Insurance company slipped up on his plans for taking his vacation last week. An enormous bunch of new business reached the office and he was unable to get away. He will probably break away from business this week and will go to the Minnesota lakes, where he will fish.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Police Board Determined to Enforce Discipline in Department.

SOME OF MEN EXTREMELY LAX

Number of Men Will Be Laid Off Ten Days at Time in Order to Meet Financial Necessity Due to Lack of Funds.

Unofficially as yet members of the Fire and Police board have announced their intention of using the axe on both departments for lack of discipline among men and officers. All the commissioners, it is understood, have openly asserted their intention of overhauling the practice of defying the rules and authority of the Fire and Police board.

Mayor Hoctor stated that if he could have had a meeting of the board some days ago he would have fired a number of firemen from the department.

It is understood that at least one may have to face serious charges made by a Sarpy county farmer.

On the police department, despite the efforts of the board and the chief, matters have been going from bad to worse for some time. Months ago Mayor Hoctor charged that his sergeants were being tipped off to saloonkeepers by members of the police department. During the illness of Commissioner Donahue, Commissioner Devine made the same charges and at the time it was decided that dismissals and reductions in rank would be made as soon as Commissioner Donahue had returned to his office.

Commissioners Angry

The commissioners and the chief are wroth over the way things have been running in and out of the station. Time and again arrests are made and no reports written and filed as is called for by the rules of the board. When names are gotten off men only half are obtained. Such things as street and house numbers are said to be of minor importance. Disputes as to who should serve warrants occur regularly. Officers, it is said, go into saloons while on duty and even in uniform. Officers are said to have left their beats for hours at a time and visited road houses in East Omaha during the interim.

These charges and others do not affect all the policemen or officers, but there is a vast lack of discipline and respect for the board's orders. Hence the strict orders issued the chief by the board in reference to rules and regulation. And hence the anxiety of many cops as to what the board will do next.

Retrenchment Order

Retrenching in order to prevent an overlap in the police fund, the Fire and Police board yesterday laid off ten policemen for fifteen days. At the end of the term ten more men will be laid off. The chief and officers will not be laid off, according to present plan. The patrol driver will be on duty from 11 to 12 and the chief of detectives and captains have been ordered to do duty at the station.

Those affected by the lay-off are: Officers Gauthan, Lepinski, Quinn, Jackson, Potack, Dvorak, Ballew, Scott, Crosby and Hyatt.

Mrs. Marleick Cleared

Accidental death, probably at his own hands, was the verdict rendered yesterday by a coroner's jury upon the death of Mike Marleick, whose wife was being held for murder. County Attorney George A. Magney, after hearing the evidence in the case told Coroner Willis Crosby that the county would abide by the verdict of the coroner's jury. At the instance of McGuire and More, attorneys for the defendant, Mrs. Marleick was released at once by order of the county attorney and the coroner.

The funeral of the dead man will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Larkin's chapel. Mrs. Marleick with her three children will attend the funeral. The woman is nearly prostrate with grief over the death of her husband.

Although there is a little money coming to her from some lodge insurance the woman had to be supplied with enough money to purchase necessary clothing yesterday. Paul Macauley and Mrs. Cecile Parks gave the money.

Mrs. Marleick said yesterday that she would seek work at once. Until she is able to provide for the children, Paul Macauley will see that the little ones have a home.

Arrest Made on Complaint

Omer Dedama, three weeks over from Belgium and O. Demet of Thirty-second and R streets, having been sheared of $5.50 in a joint somewhere near Twenty-seventh and N streets yesterday afternoon, blated so loud that the police heard the noise and Captain John Zaloudok pinched the place for bootlegging, Mayme Spencer, who is alleged to run the place and Lucy Ewing, an inmate, were invited to the dungeon keep on O street.

According to the story told the police by Demet, he was playing the part of host to Dedama—showing him the town. The course of their perambulations brought the two to the vicinity of 215 North Twenty-seventh street. The men claim that the woman enticed them in and then ordered Demet away at the point of a gun. The Spencer woman told the police that the two men fell in and that she had earnestly and persistently urged them to depart.

But anyway the police in the person of Captain Zaloudok visited the place and after an investigation of the premises the captain sent the two women and several cases of beer to the station.

South Omaha Hospital Notes.

The furnishing and equipping of the new Maternity hospital and nurses home, is practically complete. The fine large home, known as the Courtney property, at 119 North Twenty-fifth street, which is directly across the street from the hospital proper, has been fitted up with new furnishings from top to bottom. The nurses' home will occupy the entire second floor, and the nurses have already taken possession of and moved into it.

Robert Walker of Bellevue, who has been in the South Omaha hospital for several weeks, is rapidly convalescing and expects to leave for home Sunday morning.

Miss Florence Goddard has been employed by the board of trustees to take the place of clerk and bookkeeper at the South Omaha hospital.

Society Notes. Miss Marie Perry will visit with friends in Aurora, Neb., after the close of school.

Mrs. Maude Bratton departed last Sunday evening for Chadron, Neb., where she will be instructor at the Normal school.

Mrs. Elton Clark, formerly of this city, is visiting with friends for a few days. She will return soon to her home at Lincoln, Neb.

The members of the Philathea club gave a shower last Tuesday evening complimentary to Miss Esther Frederickson, who is to marry Marshall Nelson, June 17.

The Keno Klub gave a banquet at the home of Mrs. M. G. Galt in honor of his twenty-first birthday. A

Overfeeding

Practically the only complaint we get about Polarine is from the man who regularly feeds his car twice too much of it.

When we point this out, his troubles disappear, and he learns something about lubrication and about

Polarine

We have never yet found a car that Polarine couldn't lubricate perfectly.

For the new car to keep it new, and for the well-cared-for car to keep it right, Polarine is the ideal lubricant.

Polarine is stable at high temperatures and feeds freely down to zero. It is clean, uniform in quality, and absolutely free from carbon.

If it doesn't give good results, you're not getting genuine Polarine. Send us a sample and let us analyze it.
