HONEYMOON AT ARBOR LODGE

Mr. Roger Baily and Miss Helen Morton Were Married Tuesday.

ARE NOW IN NEBRASKA CITY

Honeymoon Will Be Spent at Famous Home of Late J. Sterling Morton, Grandfather of the Bride.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., June 19.—(Special Telegram)—Roger Baily and his bride, formerly Miss Helen Morton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Morton of Chicago, arrived here this morning and are being entertained by her aunt, Mrs. Carl Morton, until Arbor Lodge can be opened up and put in shape for the bridal couple. They will spend their honeymoon here and will entertain their friends at the home of the late J. Sterling Morton, which now belongs to the bride's uncle, Jay Morton. Nothing has been spared in putting the place in shape for the newly wedded couple. They were married at the home of the bride's parents in Chicago last Tuesday very quietly.

The groom is the man who was injured while riding one of the horses belonging to his present wife, and he afterwards sued her father, Mark Morton, and secured judgment for damages. The bride is the young woman who recently left home and went to Virginia, and whose parents experienced considerable trouble in getting her back home.

The road had been gotten in readiness and the racers had been making preliminary runs over it for several days. The race may be pulled off in spite of the county attorney's warning, as plenty of money would be provided to pay any fines assessed.

SURGEONS TELL OF SHIFTING MUSCLES TO CURE PARALYSIS

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 19.—The shifting of sound muscles to replace those paralyzed by disease, the grafting of living bone from one part of the body to another and other remarkable operations, by which deformities have been cured, were described today at the opening session of the American Orthopedic association's annual meeting in this city. Dr. William C. Nathan explained the new principles in the treatment of paralysis of the muscles, by which the strong and healthy muscles were shifted from one attachment to another and the flexor muscles made to do the work of the paralyzed extensor muscles.

Dr. W. E. Galloway, who presented a report covering a long list of bone grafting experiments, declared that a cat bone grafted onto a dog bone grows fast and within ten weeks becomes transformed and resembles the original dog bone. The use of sections of bone taken from the patients and transplanted in the spine were described by Dr. H. P. Galloway and Dr. F. H. Aibee.

MORE LORIMER COMPANIES FORCED INTO BANKRUPTCY

CHICAGO, June 19.—Two more companies, headed by Charles B. Munday, vice president of the La Salle Street Trust Savings bank, closed their doors just as Patrick J. Lucey, attorney general, was filling a petition in the courts here asking the appointment of a receiver for the La Salle street bank and charging that the bank was wholly and irretrievably insolvent. The latest institutions to be hurt by the bank crash here last Friday were the People's bank of East Alton and the Alchfield Mill and Elevator company. The bank was a private concern with Munday as its president. Its capital was $25,000 and it has experienced some of a run all week.

In a bill for the receiver of the La Salle Street bank, its president, William Lorimer was listed as having loaned $25,000 to concerns in which he was interested. Munday was listed as having loaned $10,000 to companies in which he was interested.

SYLVIA CONQUERS ASQUITH

Premier Consents to Receive Deputation of Working Women.

HUNGER STRIKE IS SUCCESSFUL

News Comes to Sylvia While Sitting on Steps of Entrance to Parliament House Supported by Friends.

LONDON, June 19.—Premier Asquith has capitulated to the suffragettes. He has consented to receive a deputation of seat end working women in Downing street Saturday morning.

Miss Sylvia Pankhurst's attempt to carry out her threat of a hunger strike at the entrance of the House of Commons until the premier yielded to the demand that he listen to a delegation of women, was largely responsible for the prime minister's decision. The efforts of James Kier Hardie, the socialist independent member of Parliament and George Lansbury an ex-member, helped the militant suffragettes' leader to bring the premier to his knees. The victory is a distinct one because Sylvia Pankhurst was arrested about a week ago for attempting to lead a procession of East end women to Westminster to demand the audience which Mr. Asquith has now promised.

Holloway jail opened its doors tonight to release Miss Pankhurst who was weak and pale after her eighth successive hunger strike, but still determined. She drove to Westminster immediately in a motor car with a woman chauffeur and rebuffed Kier Hardie's efforts to persuade her to go home. She was sitting on the steps of the central entrance to Parliament house, propped up with cushions and supported in the arms of friends when Mr. Lansbury came out with the news that Premier Asquith had surrendered.

The militant's plans were effectively arranged as usual. When their leader emerged from Holloway jail on the arms of two attendants a motor car was waiting, filled with cushions. Two nurses took charge of her and propped her up. A group of militants had gathered outside Westminster and when the car drove up swiftly they cried: "Here's Sylvia!"

ALEXANDER AND MURRAY TO MEET IN TENNIS FINALS

NEW YORK, June 19.—The veteran lawn tennis player of the east is again lined up against the young wizard of the west in the final battle for the Metropolitan championship honors. F. B. Alexander, the ex-national doubles champion, and B. L. Murray of California, won a thrilling title today on the courts of the West Side club at Forest Hills, Long Island. Alexander in his semi-final beat Robert Leroy, 6-2, 7-5; and Murray beat G. M. Church, Princeton, by the same score.

Volleying at the net was Alexander's chief weapon against Leroy. Murray simply battered Church's game to pieces by his speed. He worked so hard that he lamed his shoulder again and will be unable to meet Alexander tomorrow for the championship. They will play the match on Saturday. In the doubles Murray was so weak that with his partner, Herbert Hahn, he was beaten by Church and Dean Mathew, Princeton, for a place in the semi-finals, 6-2, 6-3. The doubles champions of last year, C. M. Bull, Jr., and W. M. Washburn, were beaten by G. C. Shafer and K. Smith, 6-2, 6-4, 11-9, the winning pair arriving in the semi-finals.

DR. LEIGH OF DAVENPORT NEW LEADER OF ELKS HERD

BURLINGTON, Ia., June 19.—(Special Telegram)—The old soldiers of the Iowa department of the Grand Army of the Republic of the fortieth encampment in Burlington devoted most of the day to steamboat and sightseeing tours in and around Burlington. The business session of the convention came to a close at noon today.

Carlton Dryden of Burlington resigned the office of vice commander of Iowa and J. T. Smith of Burlington was unanimously elected in his place. The Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic today elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Lillian M. Carey of Du-rigie. Senior vice president, Mrs. Maud Peterson of Oskaloosa. Junior vice president, Mrs. Erskine of Burlington.

GILMORE TO DEFENSE OF FEDERAL LEAGUE METHODS

CHICAGO, June 19.—James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal league, came to the defense of that league and baseball players in general today, in response to the statement of B. B. Johnson, head of the American league, that money greed may become the curse of base ball. "The truth is," said Gilmore, "that the public realizes that for more than twenty years, organized base ball has held its players in a state of penance, while the club owners have amassed large fortunes. Naturally the few owners, who have heretofore enjoyed the profits from the absolute monopoly of a business, resent the invasion of competition and it hurts them very much mentally and financially to be obliged to give some of the men who earn the money a part of the large profits."

Mr. Gilmore pointed to the case of Mordcael Brown as an example of what he termed the inequity of the reserve clause contract, which would have sent Brown to a reduced rank had not a friend gone to his assistance.

The participants were Major Lorenzo Elizam, aide to Minister of War Blanquez and a brother-in-law of ex-President Porfirio Diaz, and Jose Icaza Landa, a wealthy young man. The police authorities are taking steps to prevent the duel.

HUMANITY'S PROGRESS SLOW

Development Depends on the People Themselves, Not Upon Law.

Men are beginning to see that our growth and betterment do not depend on law, but on what is within us. This truth finds another illustration in a recent advocacy of woman suffrage by Jane Addams. If it were, the Philadelphia Ledger pertinently says, we should have adopted it long ago. Mrs. Pankhurst, when in this country, told the girls in the colleges that women in London were compelled to work from daylight to dark for a few shillings a week, that children die in alms houses whose lives might be spared, and that husbands beat their wives and starve their children. Give us the vote, she concluded, and all this will end.

If it only would, the vote would be forthcoming in the shortest time on record. But it is to be noticed, for example, that Colorado is and has been in a state of civil war for weeks, with great loss of life and property and much hardship. Yet Colorado is one of the woman suffrage states of many years. Unfortunately, the ballot in the hands of neither woman nor men can cure economic or moral ills. It does not save the lives of anybody nor can it abolish vice and set up virtue.

Two or three generations ago women sewed and spun as well as cooked and preserved fruit and vegetables, and men worked to provide the food to be cooked and the clothes to be worn. It kept them both hard at work from dawn to twilight. They might have decreed a five-hour day by ballot, but that would have made their conditions worse, not better. Economic and social progress have been something other than this, slow as it is. Society is getting the better of many evils, but the process is slow and is not to be hastened by command of the ballot or by law. In a preface of one of his latest books, H. G. Wells, summarizes the prodigious time that it has taken mankind to arrive where it is now and how little it knows now. In the 1,000,000 years that he has been in conscious existence man has discovered steam, is beginning to discover electricity and is finding out a little about the laws of aviation. Beyond that there is little that he knows even as to preserving his health. He is puzzled not as to whether the way of making flour does or does not produce the modern diseases that are increasing, and he is hesitating as to whether radium cures or causes cancer—a plague that is greatly on the increase. The best progress is slow beyond belief until the tangible results are summed up, and we see what has been really won as a permanence. And when we see this we see with full effect that the winning has not been by decree, by law, by the ballot, but by the slow progress of the human mind to a recognition of the mysteries of the universe and the slower discovery of how they may be solved for the betterment of the race.—Indianapolis News.

STATE DEMS MEETING TODAY

Gather at Lincoln to Consider Future Welfare of Party.

NOT FRIENDLY TO THOMPSON

Political Compeers Change Their Attitude Towards Him as Chairman of State Convention and Select Sprague.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, June 19.—(Special)—The state committee of the democratic party will meet in Lincoln tomorrow afternoon to consider ways and means to save the party from defeat and bury some of the political butchers knives which have been in evidence during the last month or so. Indications point to a very interesting session and it is probable that the slate fixed up to keep the present officers of the state committee in power may not go through, nor may there be voters enough to carry the state convention to Hastings as planned. There is plenty of strength being shown that Columbus may capture the convention in spite of the Hastings crowd.

In commenting on the meeting Colonel John G. Maher, democratic candidate for the nomination for governor expresses the belief that the bosses will not be able to pull the state through as usual. Some days ago I asked W. H. Thompson to state why he appointed E. C. Kemble as secretary of the democratic state committee and to state his recommendation. I also asked Kemble to state how he voted in the fall of 1910 and 1912. It has been publicly stated that he did not support the democratic ticket during those years.

Not Friendly to Thompson. The democrats of Nebraska do not feel any too friendly to Mr. Thompson since he violated his agreement with the friends of John C. Byrnes of Columbus at Grand Island. It was agreed between these men that Thompson was to be named chairman of the state convention, but after the electors Charley Bryan reached Grand Island pressure was brought to bear and he broke his word and entered the race, and through the influence of the promise of patronage Byrnes was defeated and Thompson elected. Since that time it has been notorious that in no matter how low a true democrat might be, he could not hope to secure the endorsement of the chairman until after the chairman consulted Charley Bryan. This has made democracy hostile to Thompson in many places and his selection as the convention will be sent to Columbus, Neb., as a compliment to Mr. Byrnes and to that rock-ribbed democratic county of Platte.

Some Getting Tired. The democrats of Nebraska are getting tired of dealing with men who will not live up to their pledges and promises and who will break the word with impunity. Years ago this was done frequently, but the voters are educated and well read, and they will not stand for deception and double-dealing. They will demand frankness and they will insist that politicians must keep their word and carry out their pledges and their promises and obey the instructions of the voters, just as the voters will not stand for a man who will keep their word and live up to their pledges and their promises. The convention will also hold a meeting of their state committee and the important question for them to decide is as to the propriety of keeping up the farce of maintaining the state organization any longer. It is said that Chairman J. H.
