JOSIES WIN POOR GAME FROM OMAHA

Long Drawn Out Combat Goes to St. Joseph Athletes by Score of Eleven to Six.

STERZER FAILS TO FINISH

Portsider Works Fine for Seven Rounds, but Flunks Miserably in Eighth.

OMAHA HURLERS ALL EASY

Closman, Stevens and Brenner Hit Hard by Drummers.

KRUGER MAKES LONG BASE HIT

Top Boards of High Left Field Fence After Shestak Puts New Catcher Pounds One Against One Few Feet Lower.

For two hours and a half some 2,000 peevish bugs lamped nine terrible innings of very punk pastiming at Rourke park yesterday afternoon when Jack Holland's Josies and Pa Rourke's brave contenders vied with each other to see which could startle the bugs the most. Suffice to say both sides did considerable startling although it can not be said that any of the bugs were particularly pleased with said startling. The Josies copped the long end of the run column, 11 to 6 and led in stealing hassocks, some seven being pilfered off Constable Shestak, but the Rourkes were superior in making base hits and errors. The Rourke athletes made fourteen hits to St. Joseph's eleven and five errors to the Josies three. Umps Fyfe, the cherubic musical instrument, tried to horn in on the competition, but his efforts were crude as compared to the struggling athletes.

The contest resembled the Olympic games from the stand point of variety. No matter what any bug wanted to see he saw it. Anything possible happened. A brief glimpse at the box score will easily prove this assertion.

Sterzer Starts Well.

The Rourkes started out by playing second fiddle to a sorrel topped youth named Sterzer for seven innings. This youth hurls from the portside and his portside was in fine condition for the aforementioned seven innings. After the seventh the Rourkes got hep to themselves and proceeded to play the first fiddle for a while. However, it is a well known fact that two innings of first fiddle will not make up for seven innings of second fiddle, so the Rourkes got bumped.

Ebson Closman obliged for Omaha at the opening of the Olympic. Ebson did not allow a bit for three rounds and everybody was happy. But he suddenly decided to allow a few blows and he threw in about eight passes for good measure. This ruined Mr. Closman and Mr. Stevens was called from the cool seclusion of the dugout while Ebson hustled for the refreshing shower. Stevens was peeved because he was forced to exert himself in the cruel sun and he let the Josies cop four more blows and as many runs. Then Steve was given permission to join Closman under the shower and Bert Brenner was given an opportunity. It was the first inning Bert worked for the Rourkes this season. He floated the pill up minus his old-time steam and was walloped for two hits and as many counts.

Rourkes Hit in Eighth.

Sterzer was pretty cheeky until the eighth. Then he flunked. George Shestak started that fatal stanza by bumping one against the left field fence. George has a grudge against that fence and some of these days he intends to knock it down. Being a catcher and therefore able to do anything Shestak can do Kruger, who batted for Stevens, bumped one against the same fence. Kruger's bump was much more bumpy than Shestak's. It missed the top board of the left field fence by inches. This propelled Shestak home and Kruger was on second. Kruger came home on Krug's single to left. Congalton beat out an infield hit, improbable though it may seem, and Thomas poked one to right. Ward was safe on Britton's error and four runs were safely across the plate. Thomas and Ward were left stranded as Chase was easy pickings.

In the ninth with Thomas on the scene, vice Sterzer resigned, Crosby was safe on Patterson's muff. Kruger flopped out a second bingle and Krug and Thomson singled in succession after Schipke flew out.

Congalton lifted a sacrifice fly and two more runs were over. Thomas went out on a close one to Britton and the tedious pastime was at an end.

A double header will be played today, the first game starting at 2 o'clock. Score:

THIRD MAJOR AS A CHECK TO FEDS

National Commission Looks with Favor Upon Entry Into Ring of New Big League.

IS ANNOUNCEMENT OF BARROW

Project is Fathered by Ban Johnson, According to International League President.

AIMED AT THE OUTLAW CROWD

Would Be Composed of Eight Clubs, Four in West, Four in East.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION BASIS

Head of American League Confirms What Minor Chief Says and Asserts Deal as Good as Consummated.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The national commission, the supreme court of base ball, looks with favor on the proposal to establish a third major league.

This was the announcement made by President Barrow of the International league, who with other members of that league conferred with the commission in session here today.

According to Barrow, the project was fathered by Ban Johnson, president of the American league, and is aimed to check the invasion of the Federal league. Though tentative as yet, Barrow said the plan called for a league embracing eight clubs, four in the east and four in the west.

When the commission meeting adjourned Ban Johnson confirmed what Barrow had said and added:

"The deal is as good as consummated. Some sort of announcement will probably be made within a week or ten days."

Clubs from the International league in the east and the American association will make up the new circuit if the proposal is carried out. Baltimore, Buffalo, Toronto and Newark will make up the eastern four.

With today's session the base ball magnates concluded their meeting here.

Todenhoft Tried Out for Pawnees

COLUMBUS, Neb., June 20.—(Special Telegram.)—In a swatfest full of features Beatrice defeated Columbus, 7 to 4. Todenhoft, a Columbus boy, pitching his initial game in the state league showed a lot of speed, but nervousness was responsible for a little wildness. Neff of Beatrice was fined $5 and put out of the game for crabbing. Manager Coe of the visitors gave Neff together with the other two outfielders another $5 fine each after a number of high flies had dropped untouched to the ground between them. Score:

STAR ATHLETE OF KEARNEY ILL OF TYPHOID FEVER

KEARNEY, Neb., June 20.—(Special Telegram.)—Homer Ball, the young Kearney High school athlete who took first individual honors at Lincoln in May at the interscholastic track meet, is ill at his home in the western part of the city with typhoid fever.

Ball was also the star forward on the high school basket ball team this last season. At the present time some improvement in his condition has been reported.

Tiptops Highest Paid.

The New York Sun says: "The team that will represent Brooklyn in the Federal league this season will be the highest paid team in base ball, according to Treasurer Walter Ward. So far Bill Bradley's troupe will cost upward of $100,000 in salaries and two star pitchers will soon be signed that will give that mark a big jump skyward. For its talent the Brookfeds will pay nearly $40,000 more than any other club in the new organization."

Wood Has One Bad Inning; Red Sox Lose

CHICAGO, June 20.—Joe Wood had one bad inning today when Chicago connected with his delivery, amassing six hits, which included a home run, a triple and a double and three singles, and scored four runs, giving the locals the third game of the series from Boston here today, 5 to 2. Cady was spiked in the leg by Schalk. Speaker wrenched his ankle and had to be assisted from the field. It may be several days before he will be able to play. Score:
