BOY ROWING IN RAPIDS IS DROWNED AT RAVENNA

RAVENNA, NEB., June 24.-(Special.) -George Bushhousen lost his life yesterday afternoon, when, accompanied by tow companions named Lovell and Bhiss, he attempted to row a boat across the flood waters immediately below the midd dam.

The boys, each about 18 or 19 years old, were strong swimmers, and in a spirit of boyish bravado they thought to row the boat, in which they had been enjoying themselves, across the rapids. The boat was upset and the boys plunged into boat was upset and the boys plunged into the water to swim to shore.
