

Rourkes Make Five Runs in One Round and Win, Nine to Five.

EVERYBODY HITS IN THIRD

Every Rourke Makes Safe Swat In Third Stanza Except Schipke and as a Result Omaha Wins.

Bill Schipke was the only Rourke wh didn't join the procession in the third of yesterday's battle, but Bil more than made up for his delinquency in that respect by gobbling divers drive suchly essisting Mr. Walter Slagie, new addition, in keeping the Boosters from overcoming the lead attained in the third nning by the procession. The procession being one-eighth of the procession, and five runs. As Omaha had copped two in the first Frank Isbell thought it time to holst Mr. Kinsella from the pastime and substituted a beardless youth named Collier. Collier allowed a couple of more counts, but settled down after that and more runs were made by Omaha. nbat culminated, 9 to 5, Omaha.

The third inning was a joy to behold and the lady bugs present exhibited signs of elation by howling with great giee and expression. The lady bugs have now seen three victories in a row, a feat never before paralleled in the history of Omaha base ball, and they were accordingly a neat little blow to right. Fred Thomas next busted the pill to center for three sacks, counting Tommie ahead of him.

Dunlop's single advanced him a bag and Krug's drive to center sen him home for the fifth count of the sound. In the meantime Mr. Collier anpeared on the scene and Thomason made the third out

Boosters Make One. The Boosters opened the battle with one run. Hunter tripled to center and Breen was walked. That gallant pair ther pulled a double steal successful and Hunter went over

In the Rourke half of that inning Dun top singled, went to second on Krug's infield out and then proved his worth as a ball player by daringly going home on Thomason's infield hit. Dunlop went all Higginbotham, p. the way from second, but he made it with a margin to spare. Thomas and Congalton walked and Thomason scored Congalton's fly to right and Crosby doubled to right, scoring both men. From then on Omaha subsided, due to the persistent efforts of Mr. Collier, but Sloux Hurlers Hit Hard, While. the labells could only make two more and that was far from enough. In the sixth Tex Jones boosted one over the center field wall for a circuit clout and in the booking the visitors safely. The locals won and took second place.
