Mediation Colony Shows Signs of Anxiety After Day of Waiting.

FEARED NOW INSURGENTS OUT

Few Are Certain Constitutionalist Will Participate in Meeting Planned by Envoys—Zacatecas "City of Dead."

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 27.—After a day of waiting with no word of the plans of the constitutionalists with reference to the proposed informal conference with the Huerta delegates over Mexico's internal affairs the mediation colony is showing signs of anxiety.

Few are certain the constitutionalists will participate. It became apparent that although spokesmen of General Carranza had expressed themselves in favor of the conference, the constitutionalist chief had by no means made up his mind on the subject.

It is expected that strong pressure will have to be exerted to persuade him to agree to the plan set forth by the mediators when they drew up the protocols outlining methods for the adjustment of the international side of the problem and leaving the selection of a provisional president to be determined by the two Mexican factions.

The constitutionalist victory at Zacatecas it is recognized, may have psychological importance on the situation. If it produces cohesion in the constitutionalist ranks and a margin for further military successes, close observers think the constitutionalists will be less disposed to leave the question to diplomatic discussion.

Zacatecas City of Dead. ZACATECAS, Mexico, June 27.—(Despatched Over Military Wire)—There was little life last night in Zacatecas, usually one of the liveliest cities in Mexico. It was a city of the dead. Everywhere dead men and horses had been piled in the gutters to allow traffic on the streets and sidewalk.

During the night frightened civilians who had remained in doors during the four days of attack, stole through the streets, dodging fire-freedom sentries, raced to and fro uneasily and watchfully. The city lay in black silence pallid because of the awful tragedy in its streets and environs.

Hundreds of wires swung in hopeless tangles from telegraph poles, tipping pedestrians and horses throughout the night. The challenge of a sentry and the answer of an occasional civilian; the single of the mounted patrol answered the faint chiming of the bells of the church on La Buña Hill; they were the only sounds during the first night of desolation, darkness and death.

Zacatecas is the center of a rich silver mining district, which has been operated for 300 years.

Terrazas in No Peril. EL PASO, Tex., June 27.—General Villa notified the State department at Washington that General Luis Terrazas, Jr., who has been the subject of representations by Secretary Bryan, was in absolutely no personal danger.

Terrazas had been held a prisoner at Chihuahua City as a hostage because of the activity of his father, General Luis Terrazas, sr., in the removing of cattle from the state. The Terrazas family is the largest holder of lands in Chihuahua. Its property has been confiscated by the revolutionists.

Discussion of the Carranza-Villa estrangement was reopened today by Roberto Pesqueira, confidential agent for the constitutionalists here, who formerly was stationed at Washington. He gave out the text of one of his telegrams in a series of communications with General Villa, in which he criticized the northern military zone commander for denying the arrest by his troops of national constitutionalist officials at Juarez and the confiscation of national treasury funds.

Pesqueira told General Villa that he considered it useless to deny "the actual facts so well known here at the border." General Villa's answer to this telegram, sent on June 26, has not yet arrived. Pesqueira also issued a statement asserting that Villa was surrounded by certain persons, "some of whom were the direct cause of the disaster that befell the administration of President Madero."

Banquet Given to the Factory Men

Nearly 100 members of the Omaha Manufacturers' association and their wives celebrated the last dinner of the season at the Carter Lake club last night, which was announced by President P. S. Knapp that beginning with the resumption of meetings in the fall, the women would be invited to attend the monthly meetings.

The announcement was received with hearty applause from the wives of the manufacturers at the dinner. Preceding the talk-fest, Mrs. J. W. Gamble sang "The Rosary" and "A Perfect Day," both numbers being encored. In opening the program after the six-course dinner, President Knapp announced that since January 1, the membership of the Manufacturers' association had increased from 104 to 183 members.

"I am glad to speak about legislation or rather lack of legislation while the women are present," declared John Gamble, "because in a few years I expect that they will be very interested in legislation. About every two years they elect a lot of legislators who go down to Lincoln and intentionally or unintentionally pass a lot of laws that are depressing to manufacturers, and when you begin to be interested in legislation, I want you to be well posted on the manufacturers' side of the subject."

President Knapp paid a pretty compliment to Al Gordon, who has been very active in locating industries here, and said that one concern which would open here soon, would employ 200 men. Tom Coleman talked of trade excursions, and intimated that the women would be expected to join one of the first trade extension trips in the fall. During the evening, tea-towels were presented to the women by the association. Each tea-towel carried an inscription urging the purchase of Omaha-made goods.

Mrs. W. M. Deyette was awarded the prize for naming the greater number of Omaha manufacturers and their products, her list including 104 industries. Other women who won prizes were Mrs. E. D. Knapp, Mrs. F. H. Parker, Mrs. T. B. Coleman, Mrs. Roy Bloom, and for the men, prizes were awarded to R. W. Besley and E. A. Higgins.

Awarded Damages Against Nebraskan

ATLANTA, Ga., June 27.—J. N. Bateman of Atlanta today was awarded damages amounting to $5,000 against Frank Rothblutner, a Nebraskan, who sought to obtain a verdict of $20,000 against Bateman for an alleged fake pool room operation.

Today's verdict was rendered by a jury on a counter suit filed by Bateman. Rothblutner charged that Bateman was the head of fake pool rooms in Atlanta, Miami, Palm Beach and other cities. He claimed he lost $20,000 on a fake bet in one of the alleged pool rooms.

Bateman was arrested at the instance of Rothblutner, but on September 14, 1913, all charges against him were dismissed. He then entered suit against Rothblutner for $20,000.

HONOR GIVEN MISS M'GUGH

Students of Seventeen High School Classes Attend Banquet.

OVATION TO VETERAN EDUCATOR

Members of Classes Who Had Received Instruction from Retiring Principal Join in Tribute at Happy Hollow Club.

Rising and applauding vigorously for several minutes when Miss Kate A. McHugh was introduced, 25 of her former students at the dinner given in her honor at the Happy Hollow club, paid high tribute to the retiring principal of the high school.

The dinner in her honor was planned by the seventeen classes of the high school from 1896 to 1914, during which years Miss McHugh was class teacher.

Frank H. Woodland, '96; Mrs. Rex Moushous, '98; and Harry E. Ryan, '97, comprised the general committee in charge, and they were assisted by a large committee made up of members of the seventeen classes. Mr. Woodland was toastmaster at the dinner and took occasion to pay many tributes and testimonials to the guest of the evening.

He compared the event to a high school graduation, with Miss McHugh the honor graduate, and said she was the only graduate of the high school who had been there twenty-one years before leaving. She joined the faculty in 1899.

Friend of Students. "We are here not so much to honor Miss McHugh," he continued, "as to acknowledge that Miss McHugh as principal and teacher of the high school, has honored Omaha. She not only did wonderfully well what she was 'hired' to do, but she also gave us the advantage of a friendship so helpful and true that we value it more and more as the years go by."

More words of appreciation and commendation of Miss McHugh and her work were spoken by Dr. Harry Wigton of the class of 1912. He declared that the Omaha High school is one of the best in the United States, and that one of the principal factors in making it so has been the efforts of Miss McHugh, the only woman principal the institution has ever had.

Miss Blanche Rowe, '02, spoke, after which J. A. C. Kennedy was announced as one of the "acquired" husbands of girl graduates of the school. Although not a graduate himself, he married Miss Cagline Purvis, '06, and Mrs. Kennedy was present with him to honor the retiring principal.

The honor guest modestly refused to make a speech, but indulged in an interesting and amusing series of reminiscences of her twenty-one years of work at the high school.

Teacher as Humorist. At the close of the speech-making, Mrs. H. S. Gillespie, nee Margaret Chamberlain, who with Dr. Gillespie, both of the class of 1896, had motored from Manhattan, Ia., to attend the dinner, read this verse, which Miss McHugh as teacher, had once penned at the end of one of the former student's essays, revealing a side of her nature that appealed particularly to all her student friends:

"If an essay you would write, Cut it short; If you wish leave to recite, Life is brief and full of care; Teachers never like to swear; Lest you drive me to despair, Cut it short!"

Among her former students, who attended the dinner, were six who had been in school under Miss McHugh at Galena, Ill., before she came to Omaha. They were: Mrs. A. F. Stryker of South Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Leish Leelle, Mrs. Charles Leslie and Miss Francis McHugh of Omaha and Miss Clara Drenning of Galena.

Miss McHugh was presented with a large bunch of American beauties and a letter from Herbert Oberfelder of Chicago, who belonged to the class of 1896, and sent the remembrance, because he was unable to attend. Letters were also received by Miss McHugh from John W. Shenk, '06, judge of the superior court of Los Angeles; William C. Godso, '06, of La Grange, Ill.; Mrs. Louise Smith Reed, '04, of San Acacia, Colo., and others.

During the dinner, seven alumni sang verses of a parody on "School Days," written by Miles Greenleaf, '03, for the occasion. They were: Harry Koch, Willard Chambers, Harry Reed, Dr. Ernest Kelly, Roy Sunderland, Harry E. Ryan and George Wallace. Dancing was enjoyed by the younger alumni at the close of the evening.

CLOUDBURST TURNS VILLAGE INTO LAKE SIX FEET DEEP

LA CROSSE, Wis., June 27.—A cloudburst at Lansboro, Minn., made the village of 1,000 people a lake six feet deep. Railway service has been abandoned. Lansboro cannot be reached by telephone and rescuers are obliged to go about in boats. No reports of loss of life have been received.

MANDAN, N. D., June 27.—Mandan, located on the bed of what was once a channel of the Missouri river, is flooded tonight, the east end of the principal business street of the city being waist deep in water, the result of a cloudburst.

WOMEN PLAN FIELD DAY

Suffragists to Have Thousand Meetings Throughout State.

ALL HELD AT THE SAME TIME

Arguments of Antis Are Punctured and Movement Put Under Way to Make the Voters Look at It in Same Way.

The suffrage campaign in the fall will be instituted by a giant field day when it is planned to have 1,000 suffrage meetings throughout the state on the same day. This is the plan of the executive committee, which met at the Young Woman's Christian association Friday on the call of the state president, Mrs. Draper Smith.

The principal matter of business discussed was the contents of the "publicity page," which is to be submitted to the secretary of state for circulation among voters along with the anti-suffrage arguments, when the initiative suffrage petition is taken up for action.

Resolutions setting forth the stand of the suffragists against the charge of "feminism" are to be given to the press shortly.

That the antis are wilfully using the feminist argument as a trick to confuse the voter, was the sentiment expressed. Samples of suffrage placards that were used in the New York state campaign, with striking statements to capture the voter's eye, as well as more beautiful ones of Grecian figures bearing aloft the suffrage banner, were on display for a short time to be used in the fall campaign.

Reliance Over News. The board rejoiced on receipt of the news that the convention of the Colored Women's State Federation of Women's Clubs, which met in Lincoln this week, had endorsed suffrage.

A conference of county chairmen of the Fifth suffrage district will be held in Hastings Tuesday and will be attended by state officers and Mrs. Lucia O. Case, Kansas suffrage organizer, as well. Delegates from the towns throughout the state report very successful outdoor meetings either in the streets or in parks or bandstands.

Resolutions condoling the death of Mrs. Ida V. Thibodeau, formerly chairman of the church suffrage committee, were adopted.

Visitors from Lincoln. Those in attendance at the meeting from Lincoln were: Mrs. W. E. Hardy, state treasurer; Mrs. A. E. Sheldon, educational chairman; Mrs. Frank Harrison, executive secretary; Mrs. H. H. Wheeler, campaign chairman; Mrs. W. E. Barker, chairman of speakers' committee; Mrs. A. H. Dorris, jr., press chairman, and Mrs. Draper Smith, state president; Mrs. Z. T. Lindsey, Mrs. W. E. Shaffer, Mrs. James Richardson, Miss Daisy Doane, Miss Jeanette McDonald and Mrs. M. B. Munson of Omaha.

Board Makes Statement. The following statement was prepared by the executive board and given out last night:

Anti-suffragists have charged that suffragists are feminists. That is not true; suffrage is an economic and political movement, and we do not know what feminism means; we know it does not mean suffrage.

No two people agree on what feminism is. All agree on the meaning of suffrage. The question upon which we are asking the voters of Nebraska to pass is equal suffrage, which everyone understands. We are not advocating Buddhism, Hinduism, feminism or any other "ism."

This charge has been made to confuse the voters. (Signed) MRS. DRAPER SMITH, MRS. Z. T. LINDSEY, MRS. H. H. WHEELER, MRS. W. E. HARDY, MRS. VIOT HARRISON, MISS DAISY DOANE, Executive Board.

Wilson Not Likely to Act at Once Upon Montana Chief's Plea

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Indications tonight were that President Wilson would not act immediately upon the request of Governor Stewart of Montana that federal troops be moved from Fort Vancouver to Fort Missoula so as to have them near in case of further serious trouble among the miners at Butte. The president has not referred the subject to the War department and probably will not do so until he considers it absolutely necessary.

BUTTE, Mont., June 27.—County Attorney Joseph McCaffery announced tonight that he will begin a vigorous prosecution of men who caused the riot Tuesday night, when one man was killed, others wounded and the buildings of the miners' union destroyed.

The city authorities called into service all men on the waiting list of the police force. At the city hall the statement was made that an active campaign against lawlessness in Butte is to be instituted. The finding in the pockets of a man arrested for fighting of a bottle of nitric acid and a bottle of glycerine was given as the reason for the police activity.

YOUNG FARMER ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF STEALING TEAM

BLAIR, Neb., June 27.—(Special Telegram.)—Sheriff Fred Compton arrived from Lincoln this evening with Ole Cornelius, who is charged with stealing a valuable young mule team, harness and spring wagon from Bob Caldwell, a farmer living at Tyson, last Monday night. The mules were good travelers and Cornelius was seen to cross the Platte river bridge south of Fremont the next forenoon.

Compton traced his man to Lincoln, where he arrested him Thursday morning about seven miles out of Lincoln, where he had camped over night. Cornelius avers another man stole the team and asked him to ride with him and left him at Lincoln.

A few years ago Cornelius was a prominent young farmer fairly prosperous and lived near Orum in this county. He sold his land, moved to South Dakota, where his wife died, after which he returned here. He is about 40 years old and heretofore has borne a good reputation. Caldwell, who went to Lincoln to identify his team, is driving it home.

CORNELL MEN CHEER VICTORS

Ithacans in Omaha Swallow Disappointment to Hall Columbia.

HOLD DINNER AT FIELD CLUB

Progress of Races on Hudson Watched Closely by Ardent Supporters in Omaha, Who Are Game to Final Stroke.

Twenty-one Omaha men alumni of Cornell, rose up proudly at a banquet at the field club last night and gave three rousing cheers for Columbia, whose rival oarsmen outstripped the eight-oared shell of the Cornell crew during the intercollegiate races at the regatta course, Highland, New York, yesterday afternoon.

C. C. Rosewater, when the banquet began, announced the victories of the junior and freshmen Cornell teams in the four-mile race with eight-oared shells. There was a roar of applause and the banquet began, Mr. Rosewater "serving" returns from the race by messengers from The Bee office.

The messenger came in, breathless. "The varsity crews were rowing. "One-eighth-mile mark, Cornell leads!" Right there the banquet was abandoned and twenty-one men were boys with big lungs for several minutes. But Cornell began to drop behind and all the cheering couldn't hide the sorrow when the four-mile course was run and Columbia sped over the line a length and a half in the lead, with Cornell third.

"A cheer for Columbia," shouted Senator Charles Saunders, and the response was a thunderous yell for the victors.

"When We Were Boys." For several hours the Cornell men entertained each other with the gladness of years of "when we were boys together," sang old college songs and chanted snatches of the never-forgotten airs of yesterday.

Frank Selby was ushered to a piano as soon as the food had disappeared and these an improvised octette of might-have-been good singers kept him pounding ragtime melodies mostly, until the repertory of each singer had been utterly exhausted—in instances several times exhausted.

Of the forty-two members of the Omaha association of Cornell alumni, only twenty-one could attend the banquet. These were:

- W. H. Price, J. R. Manegold, James Richardson, Dr. E. C. Henry, F. A. Broadwell, Austin Galley, E. S. Westbrook, Samuel Etnyre, D. W. Macgowan, F. W. Shelton, C. O. Bickelhaup, W. A. Kietzman, W. S. Selby.

M'REYNOLDS HITS NORRIS

Letter of Attorney General Criticizes Statement of Nebraskan.

ABOUT AFFAIRS OF NEW HAVEN

Senator Reads Epistle on Floor of Body from the Head of Justice Department of Federal Government.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Attorney General McReynolds' determination not to accept at present his purpose as to possible criminal prosecutions in connection with the affairs of the New Haven railroad system, was emphasized in a letter read before the senate today by Senator Norris. The letter, written by Mr. McReynolds, criticized statements made on the floor of the senate by Senator Norris, as to the department's attitude towards the Interstate Commerce commission investigation of the New Haven. Senator Norris had declared in discussing the matter:

"The attorney general did not have in contemplation any criminal action and nobody has been given immunity in that case," was unwarranted and misleading, speaking in your presence, I had expressly declined to declare my plans or purposes and this has been my uninterrupted attitude. It was, therefore, impossible for you to know what they were and, yet, you undertook to make an announcement in respect to them. As is well known, McReynolds, a conspicuous figure was then, and is now under indictment in the federal court, because of certain transactions connected with New Haven affairs. How far his examination by the Interstate Commerce commission gave immunity need not be discussed here."

In his letter, the attorney general said: "The language which you unfortunately employed is out of harmony with the real facts; and, if accepted as accurate, would cast a false light about the situation."
