Saturday—Carter Lake club, members dance night; special Fourth of July celebration at Seymour Lake Country club; dinner dance at Country, Field and Happy Hollow.

The lakes of Minnesota and Iowa will be the mecca for scores of Omaha people for family parties and house parties for the Fourth.

During the next week or ten days many are planning motor trips. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Baum, Jr., plan to leave in their car to spend the Fourth at Lake Okoboji with Mr. and Mrs. Harley G. Moorhead, who have taken the Patterson cottage for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Preston will motor to Okoboji with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gallagher and Paul Gallagher.

Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Louis Clarke and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Klaska in their car, and Mr. and Mrs. George Redick and children in their car, will motor to Okoboji. The Klaskas and Clarkes have a cottage together, and the Redicks have one next door.

Miss Janet Wallace with her two nephews, Kennard and William Wallace, left Tuesday for Okoboji to spend the Fourth at the Patterson cottage for the summer. Mrs. Eve Wallace plans to join them later in the season.

To Attend Auto Races. A number of Omaha people plan to motor to Sioux City to attend the automobile races July 4 and will motor home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Burgess and Mr. and Mrs. Mosher Colpetser are among those planning to leave Friday in their cars for Sioux City.

With Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Smith will be Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hayward and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Weaver. Among others who are planning to attend in their touring cars are Lester and Jerome Heyn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Metz, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. Huff, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Millard, Mr. Charles Ware and Mr. Herman B. Peters.

Leave for Western Trips. Miss Marie Woodard and Miss Nan Murphy plan to leave July 1 for Roundup, Mont., for the Fourth, where they will visit Miss Woodard's brother, Mr. James Woodard, and will later spend several weeks in the Canadian Rockies.

Mr. Robert C. Howe, Miss Marion Hows and Mr. Robert Howe plan to spend part of the summer in the Rocky Mountains. Mrs. Jerome Magee and children, expect to leave Wednesday to join Mr. Magee on his ranch in Montana for the summer. They may remain west all winter owing to Mr. Magee's ranch interests.

Leave for New York. Mr. and Mrs. R. Curtis and daughter, Miss Lynn Curtis, who have resided in Omaha for a number of years, will leave this week to make their home in New York City. They will spend part of the summer with another daughter, Mrs. E. Dimon Bird, at her summer home in Greenwich, Conn. Miss Curtis is a talented artist and will accept this opportunity to continue in her art studies in New York. Many social affairs have been given for Miss Curtis and Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart of Council Bluffs will give a dinner party for her.

Miss Mohler to Wed. Miss Marie Mohler, daughter of President A. L. Mohler of the Union Pacific railway, and Mr. Charles S. Mohler, will be married next August to Mr. Marie Sanno of Milan, Italy.

Miss Mohler has spent the last six years abroad studying for grand opera in Paris and in Milan. She is a tall brunette and has a contralto voice. She was to have made her debut in grand opera next winter. Madame Mohler promised last winter when in Omaha that she would assist Miss Mohler in her operatic career.

The wedding will take place in Milan and Mr. Mohler will probably not be able to attend the wedding owing to business here. Mr. Sanno is a professional man of Milan and Mr. Mohler has never met his son-in-law to be. Miss Mohler, besides being an accomplished musician is also an expert linguist.

Plans for the Summer. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Preston and son, Walter Preston, Jr., leave Thursday to spend the summer at Lake Okoboji. Mr. Herbert Davis and Mr. John Hamilton are at Lake Madison, Minnesota, where they motored last week.

Mrs. William F. Denny and daughters, Katherine and Charlotte, and son, William, leave Wednesday for Balsam Lake, Wis., where they will spend the remainder of the summer.

Dean and Mrs. J. A. Tancock and Miss Beatrice Tancock left Thursday for Cape Cod, where they have taken a cottage at Truro until the first of September. Mr. Tancock is recovering from a month's illness, and it is hoped that the change will complete his recovery. Her son, Montagu Tancock, a student at Princeton, will be with them for a month, and Miss Sidney Stebbins will join them shortly and remain for the rest of the summer.

Mrs. Boss Towle expects her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bernard De Weese of Dubuque, to arrive today for the day on her way to Canyon City for the summer. Mrs. Towle will leave for Canyon City Friday to spend the summer months with her parents.

Talented Omaha Woman Goes East to Live

Miss Lynn Curtis

ing at Albany. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Gurley will go to Atlantic City and Wood's Hill, Mass., and will be away until the first of September.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Sherraden and Dr. and Mrs. N. H. Dunham leave July 3 for Rice Lake, Minn.

Summer Camps. Summer camps for the school and college boys are becoming more popular each year. Master Harkness Kountze has probably attended more boys' camps than any other young lad in Omaha.

Mr. Luther Kountze left Saturday with Harkness for Indianapolis to meet Mr. Kountze's sister, Mrs. Meredith Nicholson, and her two sons, who will go to Kountze's camp at Bridgewater, N. H. They will be joined in Boston by a fourth cousin, Dickie Stewart, who goes next week with his father, Mr. J. T. Stewart.

The four boys will stay at Mowell camp until the first of September. Master Winston Cowgill left last week for one of the boys' camps for the summer.

Mr. Jack Summers and Mr. William Henry Harrison leave the latter part of next week to spend several weeks at a camp for college boys.

European Travelers. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rugg are now in Stresa, Italy, and leave soon for Switzerland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Russell and daughters, Miss Agnes and Miss Anna Russell, returned from Europe last week. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pickens and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, sail for England on the Pretoria from Boston July 1.

Mrs. Pauline Eldridge, niece of Mrs. John McShane, who arrived here last week from Memphis, left Wednesday with Mrs. A. V. Kinsler and Miss Mary Munchhoff, having decided at the last moment to join them on their trip abroad. Her mother, Mrs. Hogan, will remain here for the summer with Mr. and Mrs. McShane.

Among the passengers sailing on the steamship Prinz Friedrich Wilhelm June 27 were: Mr. and Mrs. George H. Kelly, Mrs. A. V. Kinsler, Miss Mary Ruth Kinsler, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Mithen, Miss Mary Munchhoff, Mrs. Pauline Eldridge of Memphis, Tenn., and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Kuegel.

Mrs. Edward B. Perkins of New York, formerly of Omaha, who sailed recently on the Aquitania, will spend several weeks in London and Paris.

Miss Elizabeth Gould will leave this week for New York City, where she will accompany her aunt, Miss Elizabeth Mitchell, to Europe for the summer. Miss Mitchell is principal of one of the schools in New York.

Miss Johanna Anderson leaves for Europe to spend the summer studying here.

Rabbi Louis J. Kopold of Buffalo, who has been spending part of his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Kopold, leaves July 1 for a trip abroad. He will return in September.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Luskart expect to leave the first of July to visit Mrs. Luskart's sister, Mrs. William Baum of Berlin, Germany. During their absence Gordon and Marion Luskart will be cared for by their grandmother, Mrs. Hogrefe of St. Paul.

Return from School. Mr. Eldred Hart of Council Bluffs arrives home today from Yale. Miss Regina Connell and Miss Alice Jaquith are at a house party in Cleveland and are expected home about July 8. They will visit school friends in Cincinnati. Columbus and Indianapolis before returning.

At the Field Club.

OMAHA GIRL WEDDED IN CALIFORNIA.

Mrs. George Paul Thompson, Jr., Nee Eorantha Lois McGavock.

Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Thompson of Denver, but formerly of Omaha. Nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. J. A. Read in St. Anthony's church before an altar banked in palms, Shasta daisies and lilies. The double ring service was used. The bride was most attractive in a costume of rose mauve crepe de chine with Leghorn hat trimmed in flowers of harmonious shades and corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

The only ornament was a handsome lavaliere set in sapphires and pearls, the gift from the groom. Her traveling suit was a chic model of French blue silk poplin with close fitting hat to match.

Mr. Thompson is well known in both Omaha and Denver and holds a responsible position with the Denver & Salt Lake railroad.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the close friends and relatives at the home of the bride's mother. The house was prettily decorated in the shades of pink and green.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will take a month's tour to points of interest along the Pacific coast, after which they will return to Denver and will be at home to their friends after October 1.

Cunningham-Howes Wedding. The marriage of Miss Irene Maria Howes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Howes, and Mr. J. Clarence Cunningham was celebrated Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at St. John's church. Rev. Father C. C. Kelley officiated and celebrated the nuptial mass. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. J. H. Hanley sang "Ave Maria," accompanied by Miss Margaret Judge, who also played the wedding march.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to thirty guests at the home of the bride's parents. A reception was held between the hours of 2 and 4. The decorations throughout the rooms were in Shasta daisies and ferns.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe meteor, with double flounce and bodice of Chantilly lace. Her veil was worn cap effect and was held in place by lilies of the valley. She wore a corsage bouquet of white sweet peas.

Miss Julia Cunningham, sister of the groom, and Mr. Paul Gerhard were the only attendants. Miss Cunningham was gowned in white voile trimmed with shadow lace, with pink girle and head-dress.

The young couple will be at home at 485 Military avenue after August 1.

Jensen-Reed Wedding. The marriage of Miss Iva May Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Reed and Mr. H. D. Jensen was celebrated Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride, the Rev. H. L. Rhode of Kountze Memorial church officiating.

The rooms were decorated with pink roses and ferns. Mrs. Jewel C. Reed played the wedding march.

The bride wore a gown of white silk crepe de chine, trimmed with shadow lace. Her veil was worn cap effect and held in place by orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses and sweet peas.

Miss Grace Reed, sister of the bride, and Mr. Jesse Jensen of West Point, Neb., brother of the groom, were the only attendants. Master Clifford Gear, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer. The young couple will be at home at 219 Grace street after August 1.

Sibbitt-Alsworth Wedding. The wedding of Miss Ola Alsworth and Mr. Arthur C. Sibbitt of Hyannis, Neb., took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Alsworth, Rev. F. R. Hill of the South Omaha Baptist church officiating. Preceding the ceremony Miss Mary Cook, cousin of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly," and another cousin, Miss Hazel Cook, played the wedding march.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sibbitt of Hyannis, Mr. Ira Alshof of Hyannis, Mrs. A. W. Ray of Chicago, Miss Vera Ray of Chicago.

Braech-Weaver Wedding. The marriage of Miss Florence Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Weaver, and Mr. Ben W. Braech was celebrated Thursday evening at 8:30 at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Leonard Groh of St. Mark's Lutheran church officiating. The ceremony was witnessed only by relatives and very close friends of the young people.

The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine with trimming of shadow lace and carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses. The only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Burkett.

The young couple will be at home at 309 Hartman avenue after August 1.

Anheuser-Van Lome Wedding. One of the large weddings of the week will be that of Miss Katherine Wilhelmine Lucille Van Lome and Mr. Frederick William Anheuser, which will be celebrated Tuesday at St. Mary Magdalene's church.

New Sorority at Lincoln. Miss Sara R. Cole of Omaha is one of the charter members of the new sorority, Phi chapter of Gamma Phi Beta, which was installed at the University of Nebraska last week.

The new sorority is the twelfth to be added to those already connected with Nebraska universities. It is known in educational circles as one of the strongest and is noted for its conservatism.

A luncheon followed the installation, after which the grand officers and out-of-town members were guests of honor at a reception at the executive mansion. In the evening a banquet was held at the Lincoln hotel, when Miss Eleanor Sheldon presided as toastmaster for the following program:

"What Gamma Phi Beta Means to Me," Ella Brown of Omicron chapter. "Phi Beta Dreams," Anne Paton of Phi chapter.

"Gamma Phi Beta History," Carrie Morgan of Gamma chapter. Congratulatory telegrams and letters, Jessie White Rivers, Epistol chapter.

"Gamma Phi Beta Ideals," Rewey Belle Ingels, Kappa chapter. The banquet closed with the visitors and officers were entertained at the home of Miss Dorothy Morehead, Miss Gladys Wilkinson and Mrs. Nathan Reynolds.

Farewell Dancing Party. Mr. and Mrs. William A. Schall played a joke on some of their friends Thursday evening. They had announced that they were going to Paris for the summer, and had invited a number of couples out to their home, 1923 South Thirty-third street, for a little farewell dancing party. After the guests had been enjoying the affair for a while and had expressed envious farewells to the Schalls and wished them a pleasant "ocean" trip, the host and hostess laughingly explained that they were only going to Paris, Mo., and had withheld the Missouri part of their destination in order to have some fun with their friends. The dancing was in the large garage, which was brilliantly lighted for the occasion. Those present were:

Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Doward, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. J. Freeland, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Tillotson, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Schall, Miss Katherine Schall.

Pagaloo Club Lawn Party. The presiding officers of the Pagaloo club entertained the members at a lawn social Thursday evening at the home of Miss Lola M. Marsh. Various games were played, after which refreshments were served.

Those present were: Messrs.—Eugene May, D. Callahan, Marie O'Leary, T. M. Carlisle, J. H. Jaska, Katharine Tunison, E. V. Kelly, Francis Mulholland, William West, J. J. White, Dr. B. Ruffner, Leo McKenna, Chester A. Anderson, Beattie Antony.

Children's Party. Mrs. L. A. Griffith entertained at a surprise party Friday afternoon for her little friends, Francis Paul and Mary Murnagh. The decorations were carried out in flags and crimson rambles, and the places were marked by yellow-haired dolls. The afternoon was spent in music and games. Those present were:

Masters—Francis Murnagh, Francis Parks, Paul Murnagh, Little Misses—Virginia Jamison, Helen Jamison, Mary Murnagh, Gladys Corhill, Mildred Parks, Cecelia Parks, Florence Parks, Clare Parks.

Church Society Kensington. The fourth division of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Congregational church held the last Kensington of the season at the home of Mrs. R. C. Hort Friday afternoon. The guests of honor were Mrs. Jacob Sims of Denison, Ia., and Master Robert Smith. Those present were Messadames C. M. Wentworth, G. W. Loomis, J. C. Hammond, S. R. McConnell, George Pierce, G. R. C. Reed, W. I. Smith, J. O. Wentworth, R. C. Hoyt and William McMurray.

Drama Section Entertained. The dramatic section of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae was entertained at the home of Mrs. Harvey E. Newbranch Saturday. While the meeting was purely social in nature, tentative plans for the coming year's work were discussed. Twelve members were present.

For Miss Summers. Miss Nellie Wakely entertained informally at bridge in honor of Miss Carrie Summers of Washington Friday afternoon at her home.

Universal Card Party. The Universal Circle will entertain at a card party at their hall Tuesday afternoon. The hostesses will be Mrs. P. A. McDunnah and Mrs. J. Farrell.

In and Out of the Bee Hive. Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Ellick left Friday for a short visit in Chicago.
