IMPERSONATING ANOTHER ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 28.-M. P. Harris of Mississippi, a young enlisted man in the navy, tonight was escorted to the boundaries of the government reservation at Annapolis and there dishonorably discharged from the service because he had impersonated another man in an examination for admission to the naval academy as a midshipman. Harris won a designation from United States Senator Williams to take the entrance tests under a new plan of Secretary of the Navy Daniels for the benefit of enlisted men. He passed the tests and later took the place of T. B. Longre, also of Mississippl, and passed the first examination for him in Virginia. When Longre appeared at the naval academy to take the physical test the deception was discovered because his handwriting did not agree with that in the first examination
