ROURKES WIN LONG COMBAT

Twelve Rround Fray Goes to Omaha by 4 to 3 Score.

LOCALS TIE SCORE IN NINTH

Tie the Count After Eight Innings of Helplessness and Then Win in Twelfth.

Because Omaha Sabbath base ball bugs are strong for more than the regular nine innings of combat, the Rourkes and the Links propelled their way through twelve innings of very classy entertainment for the benefit of the paid customers Sunday afternoon. Generally the Sabbath bugs are given two games, but lack of postponements made this impossible yesterday, so the extra four innings were played. The Rourkes copped the battle the twelfth after tying it up in the ninth. The final score was 4 to 3.

For eight innings Lefty Clauss, late patient of Bonesetter Reese, played dominos with the Rourkes, while the paid customers voiced divers expressions of intense disgust. Two measly little hits, one run and a row with the umps was all the Rourkes could do in the eight rounds. But in the ninth three hits were torn off and the score was tied up, 3 and After this gallant effort in the ninth the Rourkes subsided until the twelfth, when they decided it was time to let the bugs go home for supper.

The Links scored in the opening round through the generosity of George Dunlop. McGaffigan busted a hit and stole second. Lloyd rolled one to Dunlop, which that gentleman muffed and then heaved, clear through Ward, thus allowing Mc-Gaffigan to score.

Schipke to second base, inasmuch as he, McCafferty, had inadvertently interfered with Rehor's throw. This was pretty tough luck and the Omaha athletes and the bugs promptly announced their displeasure with wards at the control of t pleasure with varied detonations which impression. McCafferty expressed regret that he should have interfered with

In the eighth the Links added two run to their total. McGaffigan was safe or Dunlop's error after Quillin was ou Lloyd flew to Thomason, but McGaffigar stole second and came home on Milfer drive to center. Harry Williams lamme another one to center and Miller cam home. Williams, the Omaha lad, player his first game with the Links and put up a nifty article of ball.

By a superb effort the Rourkes evened up the count in the ninth round. Thomas Topcka is favor of Slagie, who held the Links in the hollow of his hand. Jordan was sent in to relieve Clauss and it was off Jordan that the winning run was made in the twelfth. Crosby opened with a victous double to left and was sacrificed to third by Siagle. Thomason lifted a high infield fly, which McGaffigan muffed, and Crosby came over with the deciding tally. The same teams will play today. It will be ladies' day. Game called at 3 o'clock. The score:

over the Field club course, Reynolds led Ralph Peters by 3, and W. N. Cham bers by 6 strokes, while Jack Hughor was 18 strokes down on the champion For the morning, both Peters and Rey nolds made the bogey of 83,

In the morning play yesterday, Peter showed excellent form on the fair green but was aff his putting game. Reynold: played consistent golf throughout the day, and his excellent putting saved him many holes, which Peters might have won with better work on the putting

In the afternoon, Peters got a bad start. On the second hole, his mashle shot was short. He played a low sho to get over the embankment, but the ball struck near the top and rolled back Again he attempted the same shot, with the same results, and his third effor was no more successful. He was on the green in 5, and took two putts for the hole, making a 7 instead of a bogey 4.

Peters Dubs His Drive. Peters recovered himself on three, but dubbed his drive on four, and after that was at no time a dangerous contender for the championship.

But for three short putts, which Reynolds missed duringthe afternoon he would have returned a score of par, 76.

Hughes of the Field club returned as 86 for the morning play, which practically put him out of the running, and his afternoon score of 90 was not unexpected after his showing for the first eighteen holes, yesterday. Hits: Off Cavet, 3 in eight innings; off
