REPRESENTATIVE WILLIAM E. HUMPHREY.

Washington, July 8.—Representative William E. Humphrey of Washington recently said in the House: "We would suppose that the president would find courage to tell the people of this nation where he stands on the question of suffrage."

CARRANZA-VILLA PACT PROBABLY ONLY TEMPORARY

They pointed to the happenings following Madero's agreement to allow Dr. La Barra to become provisional president and declared that the agreement for a provisional government would scarcely have been entered into with the followers of Huerta before a dozen new revolutionary movements would spring up in as many different quarters. The constitutionalists assert that the reforms for which they are striving only can be placed in successful operation without loss of life by a government under military rule such as Benito Juarez operated in Vera Cruz in the '60s. They emphasize this by calling attention to the fact that any provisional president to take legal action of any sort, must convene congress as at present constituted and depend on that body to ratify his acts until an election shall have been held. To obtain reforms or satisfactory action through a body under the complete dominion of Huerta, the constitutionalists say, would be to expect the impossible.

General Carranza, it is said, has given assurances that if the Tampico gateway is opened and he can obtain through that port arms and ammunition and supplies, he will take Mexico City within a very short time, which is under jurisdiction of the board of which Mr. Vile is president.

Viele Will Remain Upon Normal Board

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, July 8.—(Special Telegram.)—President A. H. Viele, of the State Normal Board, has been punished sufficiently by publicity and will not have his official head chopped off by Governor Morehead, according to a decision of the executive, after several weeks' deliberation. Mr. Viele is a member of the firm of Hoffman & Viele of Norfolk which has several times been awarded contracts for supplying furniture to the Wayne Normal school, which is under jurisdiction of the board of which Mr. Viele is president. Sometime ago charges were preferred against the president in which it was alleged he was interested in contracts awarded to the firm of which he is a member contrary to law, which provides that no official of the state shall be interested in contracts made with the state for the sale of any material. Governor Morehead is of the opinion that Mr. Viele was "indiscreet," but thinks he has been sufficiently punished by the notoriety in connection with the charge. Besides, he doubts his authority to remove him before his term has expired. Viele was appointed by Governor Aldrich three years ago.

The Pearl of All Womanly Beauty

No woman can be beautiful without fine teeth. Any woman with fine teeth is beautiful. A woman who loses her teeth loses the contour of her face. And once it is lost it can never be restored. Well made artificial dentures can do something in the way of restoration; but that something at its best is never equal to the work of original nature. The best artificial plate ever made was not twenty-five per cent as good as the lines that nature modeled. AND THE WOMAN WHO LOSES HER TEETH ADDS TEN YEARS TO HER AGE.
Nor can art of any kind ever give those years back again. They have gone forever. A woman of seventy with her own teeth looks more youthful than a woman of sixty with an artificial denture. AND A WOMAN OF EIGHTY CAN HAVE HER OWN TEETH IF SHE BEGINS TO TAKE CARE OF THEM WHILE SHE IS A WOMAN OF TWENTY.
Impressing this vital and fundamental fact upon the present generation of women is the great mission of the Bailey Dental Company.
The beauty and condition of a woman's teeth are measured ONLY by the care she bestows upon them. That great artist Nature gave woman her teeth to be her chief glory and all that Nature asks is that woman will treasure the gift. And upon the condition of a woman's teeth depends not only her facial beauty and the contour of her lips and cheeks; upon her teeth depend in a prime measure her complexion, her temper, her health and her physical vigor.
Eighty per cent of the languid women and the tired women and the despondent women of the land could relieve these conditions by visiting a competent, scientific and modern Dentist and having their teeth put into good condition.
You never see a woman smiling cheerfully who lacks good teeth to show when she smiles.
You never see a woman with good teeth who did not smile cheerfully.
And the cheerful woman does not smile to show her teeth; SHE SMILES BECAUSE HER GOOD TEETH MAKE HER CHEERFUL.
Therefore the Bailey Dental Company invites all women to consult them upon the condition of their teeth. Consultation is free and the fees are within the reach of the smallest purse. Their address is 78-12 City Nat'l Bank Bldg., 16th and Harney Sts.
Rowland W. Bailey, D. D. S., president, will mail free of charge an educational treatise on the teeth to any requesting the same.

WILD WOMEN RENEW WAR

Mrs. Pankhurst Resumes Command and is Again Locked Up.

RIOTOUS SCENES IN COURT

Women Arrested When Bomb Was Found in West End Headquarters of Union Become Violent.

LONDON, July 8.—The brief respite in the militant suffragette agitation ended today when Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst resumed command of the forces of the "Women's Social and Political Union," at their London headquarters. Mrs. Pankhurst, who re-occupied the offices at noon, was, however, permitted to remain active commander of the militants for only a very brief period. When she emerged from her headquarters to go to lunch the police pounced on her and took her to Holloway Jail.

Simultaneously with the re-appearance of Mrs. Pankhurst, a violent scene was created in the central criminal court, where Mrs. H. F. Alice Hall, Miss Grace Roe, Miss Julia Jameson and Miss Ellen Armes were brought up for trial for conspiracy. The charge against them was "conspiring with others maliciously to commit damage and injury and to spoil certain real and personal property of the subjects of our lord, the king."

Bomb Found with Prisoners.
The prisoners had been arrested during a raid on a west end flat on May 2. In their rooms were found a new shrapnel grenade of ingenious manufacture, coils of fuse and plans of houses with instructions how to reach them and as to the usual movements of the police in the vicinity. Miss Roe and Mrs. Hall, when brought into court, surrounded by women wardens, refused to plead. They threw papers and pens from the prisoners' enclosure and shouted commentary on their treatment in Holloway Jail. Two policemen and five women attendants started to carry them out of the cells to the below. When the judge decided to proceed with the trial in the absence of the two women, Mrs. Hall threw herself on the floor and kicked several policemen and it took some minutes to remove her.

The other prisoners pleaded not guilty. Try to Destroy Burns' Cottage.
GLASGOW, Scotland, July 8.—An attempt to destroy the cottage at Ayr, where Robert Burns, the poet, was born January 25, 1733, was made just before daylight today by two members of a militant suffragette " arson squad."

The two women were surprised by a night watchman as they were in the act of placing large bombs against the doors and windows of the poet's birthplace, which is venerated as a shrine by the Scottish nation. The man captured one of the militants, but the other escaped. The women wore stockings over their shoes in order to deaden the noise and hide their footprints.

The arrested women gave her name as Janet Arthur. She created a scene when arraigned at the police court, fighting the wardens and shouting quotations from Burns' poems. She was remanded.

Crowd Drives Suffr Away.
DUMFRIES, Scotland, July 8.—Militant suffragettes made desperate efforts today to attract the attention of King George and Queen Mary, who are making a tour through Scotland. At Balloch bridge at the foot of Loch Lomond the women cut down all the decorations, and at Dalmore, ten miles from Glasgow, they managed to break out a huge banner bearing the words "Your majesty, stop the forcible feeding and torturing of women" across the route as the procession arrived. At the same time one woman armed with a megaphone howled denunciations of forcible feeding.

Neither the king nor the queen paid the slightest attention, but the crowd displayed such a hostile attitude that the militant suffragettes beat a hasty retreat.

O'Connor Will Fight Up in Adams County, Many Contesting

HASTINGS, Neb., July 8.—(Special Telegram.)—With the state of Nebraska excluded and with all of the numerous professed heirs arrayed against one claimant, hearing was begun in county court this morning on the application of John T. Culavin, Omaha real estate broker, for the probate of a purported will of John O'Connor, which names Culavin as the sole beneficiary.

Fighting for the $100,000 estate left by the Hastings recluses are more than a score of lawyers, more than 100 persons who claim heirship and the state of Nebraska, the latter through ex-Attorney General Thompson, former collector of the United States treasury, claiming that there are no heirs and that the will favoring Culavin is a forgery.

A number of witnesses called for Culavin this afternoon testified to the genuineness of the signatures of the testator and the two witnesses to the will. The opposing claimants put one witness on the stand late today. E. E. Emmett of the Corn Exchange bank of Omaha, who declared that the O'Connor signature was a forgery. Both of the witnesses to the will are dead.

Today's hearing was confined to the Culavin claim. Hearing on the heirship claims has been set for next Friday, but will undoubtedly be postponed from time to time until the Culavin will matter is finally settled in the courts. Should the case be appealed, which is likely, it may be a year or more before the various professed heirs will have their inning in the attempt to solve the O'Connor mystery.
