MISSOURI PACIFIC MEN HERE District Judges Pay Respects to Officials of Gould Road Call on Dr. George Tilden Omaha Business Men.

READY, FOR THE BIG CROPS District court judges met and passed a esolution regretting that Dr. George Enormous Yields Have Been in An-Tilden, who for forty years served as a member of the county lesanity commision, should have been forced by circumsion, should have been forced by circumstances to resign. The resolution follows:

Whereas. Upon the loss of his beloved wife, recently occurring, and after more than forty years of continuous service as a member of the Board of Insanity of Douglas county, being the sestained appointee of the judges of this court throughout that period, Dr. George Tilden has expressed a desire to be relieved from further service on said board, and.

Whereas, Upon such an occasion it seems excedingly fitting that the judges of this court should give some expression of recognition and appreciation for so long and faithful service in this exceptionally important work as an adjunct to the business of this court; therefore, be it. Resolved, First, that we extend to Dr. Tilden our sincere condolence in his becausement caused by the recent death of his faithful and distinguished wife, a most remarkable woman, whose life was devoted to the establishment and support of various charitable and beneficent institutions in this community and in the promotion of every good work having for its object the physical, mental and especially the moral betterment of mankind. A distinguished public benefactor, as she was, she was none the less in her private life a most faithful and efficient helpmeet to her husband.

Second, That restretting exceedingly the necessity of accepting the resignation of Insanity, we congratulate him upon the honor he has conferred upon himself and this community by his long and efficient term of service upon that board; upon his exceptional wisdom and sound discretion in conducting the peculiarly delicate and exactive task attendant upon the devention in conducting the peculiarly delicate and exactive task attendant upon the stances to resign. The resolution follows:

this community by his long and efficient term of service upon that board; upon his exceptional wisdom and sound discretion in conducting the peculiarly delicate and exacting task attendant upon the duties of the physician throughout a period of more than forty years without, it may be said, a single instance of unseeming notoriety or criticism arising from his discharge of that duty. An unprecedented record in this community and one in which few, indeed, if any, can ever hope to attain in the future. For this service Dr. Tilden richly deserves the lasting gratitude of the people of this community and particularly that of the friends of those unfortunate ones who suffered from the peculiar affiction with which he was required to deal.

Third, that these resolutions be spread upon the records of this court and a copy thereof be presented to Dr. Tilden.
