NO MARKING TIME SATURDAY, But Lively Stepping to the Martial Music of War on Profits. We Have Had a Splendid Half Year, Thank You!

From January 1st, week by week, month by month, our business has grown and prospered. No hard times story ever touched us. We never were anxious to do all the business—others must live also. We take it that every decent business in this neck of the woods has prospered—and there is a great big bunch of prosperity in front of us—unless all signs fail. NEVER MIND THE FAKIRS (They will get theirs). One of the first letters opened by us this morning started with: "Well, old man, it looks as if you were sure of getting plenty of grub at any rate—we hear wonderful tales in the effete East of your glorious West." Right you are old boy—we said to ourselves—and now we will get READY TO REAP THE HARVEST. SATURDAY, THEREFORE, WE WILL MAKE SUCH PRICES AS MUST CLEAR THE DECKS FOR FUTURE ACTION. READY-TO-WEAR FIRST—Just before we start our story, let us gently remark: "New Bathing Suits Just Received." A lot of White Skirts Just In, Saturday, $1.98 ea.

Right at This Point

We mention what is perhaps the greatest of all the day's attractions. Twice a year we clean up a lot of fine ribbons; from the biggest dealers in the country. They know our outlet for the choicest goods, and so there is no haggling elsewhere. Whatever they have—broken lots, odd assortments, sample pieces—we take them all and usually the prices are about 1/2 of the original.
10 A. M. THIS SALE STARTS—Exquisite is the word. 38c for all silk fancy warp print—Dresses, flowered, Roman stripes—sold up to 85c per yard. We bought them a little less than 1/2 price this time.

And at 69 Cents

Gorgeous Bayaderes, Roman stripes, warp prints, etc. Ribbons worth up to $1.50 per yard. Now there is going to be some keen rivalry for some of the extremely choice designs, but the crowd is always good natured at Kilpatrick's. By the way, we smoked some of them out in our last ad. Why don't you ask questions yourself, brother? We will be frank with you. No hard feelings. We really mean it for your good. You could not match this lot anyway.
One item at the silk section 1/2 price. Ask about it. It's a surprise. Specials at Glove Department all day.
