Mrs. Tilden.

Dr. George Tilden, obeying the last wish of his deceased wife, and as a tribute toher, has just donated to the Young Woman's Christian association and to the Old People's home, respectively $5,000 sach, as an endowment fund. He has written two letters, one to the Young Women's Christian association and one to the People's Home, announcing his gift. The money is to be placed on interest or invested as the Board of Directors of the respective institutions see fit, but the principal is not to be used. Following is his letter to the Young

Women's Christian association:

Doubtless you are aware of the and bereavement that has recently befallen me in the death of my beloved wife. For years she had been engaged in building up and helping to maintain many institutions and organizations—all having as their ulterior object, the physical, mental, spiritual and moral amelioration of mankind. Women's Christian association:

one of the many institutions to which she had given much of her life and thought and one in which she was deeply interested, was the Young Women's Christian association. Previous to her death she expressed to me a desire that I should give for her to said association, the sum of Five Thousand Dollars (8,600) to be added to the endowment fund, first started by Mrs. John C. Wharton in her gift of Five Thousand Dollars (8,600) in July of 1910. Now, therefore, as a loving tribute to the sacred memory of my departed wife, and because of her expressed desire that I should make said donation, and as a further testimonial of her love and devotion to the great work that of the Young Women's Christian association is doing for the young women of this great city, I do hereby donate to you in the name of Mrs. George Tilden the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) as an additional endowment fund, the interest and income arise. Upon acceptance by you of the terms and conditions herein set forth through proper resolutions of the Board, I will transmit to you the money herein donated.

Following is the letter written to the directors of the Old People's home by Dr.

Tilden:

For a number of years prior to the death of my beloved wife she was deeply interested in the establishment and maintenance of the Old People's home. I can conceive of no sreater or nobler work in life than assisting and caring for those who, in the evening of life, seek and deserve its benefits and blessings.

If she had one longing ambilion above another it was that she might be permitted to live to see erected a new commodious and beautiful home on the splendid and picturesque five-acre tract of land recently donated by our generous and public-spirited citizens. Mr. and Mrs. George A. Joslyn, in furtherance of a home for needy and worthy old people. Then after the building of the home to see it properly and liberally she might not be permitted to realize that one longing desire of her beart she requested me to donate for her heart she requested me to donate for her heart she requested me to donate for her heart she requested for the foundation of an endowment fund, the liquidation of the current expenses of that home from year to year.

Now, therefore, I do hereby donate to the board of directors of the Old People's home in the name of Mrs. George Tilden the sum of Five Thousand Dollars (55,000) for an endowment fund, which shall forever be preserved intact. The interest and income arising therefrom to be used Upon acceptance by you of the terms and conditions herein set forth, through proper resolution of your board, I will a proper transmit to you the money herein nated. I trust that the work hald down by her will be taken up by other generous and noble-hearted people and prosecuted to final consummation, and that God will preserve and bless all who are engaged in this great and meritorious work.
