I FEAR Lincoln is getting ahead of us again. Several eastern women have visited in Omaha and they seemed to have either an everlasting wave in their hair or else it was naturally curly. It seems their hair was not naturally curly, but these women had their hair put through some electric process that will keep the hair curled for at least six months. Now Lincoln has a shop where this is done, and a number of Omaha women have gone down there to have their hair curled for the summer. One of the June brides and one of her attendants spent a day in Lincoln preceding the wedding, and the bride is hoping that even an ocean trip will not take out the curl.

There is a great disadvantage, however, for it takes half a day to get this curl into the hair at the rate of nearly $5 an hour. In one of the New York hairdressing shops on Fifth avenue they advertise the Everlasting Wave, guaranteed for six months, for from $15 to $35, according to the amount of hair, so it does not always pay to have a luxurious crowning glory.

I am glad my hair is curly, for I can save my money to ride in an airship or try a hydroplane the next time I go to Atlantic City. The latter is only $15 for twelve minutes.

Lowrey-Carlton Wedding.

The wedding of Mrs. Minnie May Carlton and Mr. Thomas Patterson Lowrey took place at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride, 25 South Twenty-fifth street, Rev. Mr. Underwood of McCabe Methodist church officiated.

The bride wore her traveling suit of Copenhagen blue silk and a shower bouquet of white sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowrey left for a wedding trip to the Minnesota lakes.

Hall-Statko Wedding.

Miss Gladys Hermina Statko and Mr. Edmund A. Hall of Fairmont, Neb., were united in marriage in the presence of the parents of the bride and groom and friends Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the Castellor Street Presbyterian church. Rev. C. C. Meek, pastor of the church, officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall will make their home in Fairmont.

Luttig-Draho Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Ida Draho, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Draho, and Mr. C. H. Luttig of Seattle took place quietly this morning at St. Cecilia's church, Rev. D. P. Harrington officiating. Only relatives were present at the ceremony and a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Luttig left this afternoon for an extended wedding trip to the Pacific coast.

For Lincoln Guest.

President Welton of Maple Leaf Route is on Inspection Trip.

BRANCH ROAD IS ONLY LEASED

Sixty Miles of System Rented Out to the Dan Patch Line Under Long Time Agreement of Usage.

President Samuel K. Felton of the Great Western was in the city, having come from Chicago on an inspection trip of the main line and returned there last evening. He is predicting a heavy freight business this fall, and asserts that if grain men and others who have to do with the movement of cars will do their duty and aid the railroads by promptly loading and unloading cars the shortage in equipment will be materially lessened on all of the western roads.

President Felton is unable to throw much light on the leasing of that portion of the Great Western system from Manitoba to Randolph, Minn., to the Dan Patch line of Minneapolis. The branch, sixty miles, has not been sold, but rather turned over on a long time lease. The new company retains all of the station employees, takes over all the buildings and property of the Great Western. While President Felton has nothing to say relative to this matter it is known to be a fact that the branch from Manitoba to Randolph always has been considerable of a drag on the Great Western. It has never made any money, not having been in a position owing to the differentials in distance to compete for the business going to the larger markets of the country. Nor has it been a popular passenger-carrying line.

OMAHA BUILDERS FIGHT FOR NEXT CONVENTION

E. S. Jewell, attending the Building Managers' convention at Duluth, writes the publicity bureau that the Omaha crowd is making a hard fight for the convention of 1915. He says that the competitors of Omaha in the race are Atlanta, St. Louis, Indianapolis and Duluth. The Omaha crowd opened the campaign as soon as they reached Duluth.

Sister is Fatally Shot by Brother in Down Town Cafe

In a quarrel with his sister, Helen Johnston, German hotel, 1209 Cass street, George Papanopolous, St. Louis, twice shot her through the left side as they were in the Vienna restaurant, 517 North Sixteenth street.

In a signed statement to the police Papanopolous declared that he was actuated in his deed by a fit of temper which overcame him when his sister refused to listen to his plea to return to her children, whom, he says, she abandoned in St. Louis. Her husband, George Arbanopoulos, is said to reside in Detroit, and a reconciliation with him was also asked for by the woman's brother.

Papanopolous shot twice, then started for the door, firing another shot which struck a bystander, H. I. Williams, 705 North Sixteenth street, in the hip, leaving, however, only a bruise. Papanopolous ran out of the restaurant down the street and right into the arms of Officer Dolan, who arrested him. The culprit attempted to pull his gun on the policeman, but was covered before he could reach the weapon. The wounded woman was taken to St. Joseph's hospital after being given emergency treatment by Police Surgeon Huenebecker. Her chances for recovering are said to be poor as she is very weak from loss of blood. Both wounds are near the heart.

A Winter Cough. To neglect it may mean consumption; Dr. King's New Discovery gives sure relief. Buy a bottle today. 50c and $1.00. All druggists.—Advertisement.

Woman and Three Small Children Are Cast Out of Doors

With her three small children by her side, her heavy suitcase at her feet, and without a cent of money, Mrs. Stella Biehler, whose home is at 117 East Seventh street, Pueblo, Colo., was found by Officer Cooper shortly before midnight Wednesday.

According to the story told Matron

Gibbons at police headquarters, she came to Omaha with her children, Margaret, age 8, Charles, age 4, and Robert, age 1, to visit her parents. Mrs. Biehler declared that in a family argument during the evening she and her children were thrust out of the house, onto the streets, without a cent of money. The woman was found near Nineteenth and Vinton streets and was taken to police headquarters for the night. Yesterday she was taken to the City mission, where they were cared for during the day.

BRANDEIS STORES

For Women Who Wear Waists With Low Necks

LOW COLLARS are popular nowadays with every sort of dress, and the neck demands and receives more care than ever.

To keep the neck clear, smooth and fair, there is nothing so good as a daily application of Mme. Ise'bell's Turkish Bath Oil.

This Bath Oil will remove the collar stains, discolorations and roughness, leaving the skin beautifully clean, soft and fine.

The Turkish Bath Oil is used instead of soap and water, but it is more far better than any ordinary substitute for soap. It is particularly good for a too-dry skin.

If the skin on the neck is loose, sagging or flabby, Mme. Ise'bell's Skin Food and Wrinkle Remover should be applied after using the Turkish Bath Oil. It is ideal for massaging, feeding and nourishing the skin, filling out and obliterating wrinkles.

THE BULLS or BEARS

On the Exchanges of New York and Chicago

Never drew a more excited or delighted crowd than we had at our famous hat sale. More than one point of similarity to the occasion, for there were customers who paid $3 for hats and sold them to other customers at a large profit without leaving the store.

Oh, These Are Great Days at Kilpatrick's

Friday, the 17th should be a hummer, for every item advertised is away under price.

Two objects in view. NO. 1—We want to get everybody who can read interested in our ads. NO. 2—We want to make business active during the dull dog day period. Aye, there's another reason and perhaps the main one—we desire to have all appreciate the difference between the Vaunters and the Doers. The fakery are on the run. Stay with us friends and their doom is sealed.

FRIDAY AT 9 A. M. Silk Section. A big lot of 27-inch Messalines and 27-inch Fancies, sold regularly at 75c, 85c and $1.00, at 39c per yard.

DRESS GOODS SECTION. 7 pieces only of Brocade Poplin; 6 pieces of Brocade Crepe, 40 to 42 inches wide. Sold previously at $1.50 and $1.75, at 79c per yard.

Book and Stationery Section. About 135 volumes of Everyman's Library, in cloth, at 15c per volume. 250 boxes Stationery, called Dutch Gingham, 1 quire of paper and envelopes, different size sheets and envelopes, long, square, small, large. 30c regular price—just for a day, 15c a box.

On Second Floor--A Lot of Summer Dresses

Beautiful new goods, most of them very late styles. A few not so late, but of excellent quality. $3.95 for Friday, formerly at $10. Indeed, Mrs. Jones says some were even higher than that.

None of these items displayed. Ask for them and you get them. No perfunctory glancing at ads nowadays. Everybody interested reads the Kilpatrick ads thru and thru, and most people are interested. Telegram just reached our adman, asking him if he would consider a position at $50,000 per year to write ads for one of the biggest concerns in America. We said nay, nay, we have work to do here; we don't care much for money anyhow. Money don't make one rich, indeed riches play sad havoc with so many that we are about ready to agree with the sage who said: "Money is the root of all evil."
