

TEL JED SOKOL THIS WEEK

Omaha to Entertain Bohemian Turners of the Country.

THOUSANDS OF ATHLETES HERE

Competitors from All Parts of the Country, with Many Visitors, Coming to Attend the Great Event.

The big event of the week will be the gathering in Omaha of the Bohemian athletes for the quinquennial national competition of the Tel Jed Sokol, which opens at Rourke park on Wednesday morning.

Visitors and contestants from other cities and states will begin to arrive in Omaha Tuesday, the New York delegation being the first expected. Over 300 spectators and more than 100 participants will come from Chicago alone.

Two special trains over the Burlington and one on the Northwestern road will bring the Chicago turners. Other cities entered in the contests, with the number of men in their teams are as follows: Cleveland, twenty-four; New York, nineteen; Cedar Rapids, eighteen; Halimone, fifteen; Detroit, twelve; Oklahoma City, ten; Dallas, Tex., and Owatonna, Minn., each eight; Timkin, Kan., Iowa City and Milwaukee, each six; Prague, Okl., five; Bruno, Neb., four; St. Paul and Minneapolis, each two; Schuyler, Neb., one, besides several teams of Omaha and South Omaha turners.

The 3,000 or more people coming to the tournament from other states include delegations from Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan, North and South Dakota, Kansas, Missouri, Texas, Ohio, New York, Maryland and other eastern states.

Features of the Show.

Although every member on the tournament program, from the opening on Wednesday morning until the closing Sunday evening, will be of general interest not only to Bohemians and turners, but also to the whole Omaha public, the principal features will be the big street parade Saturday afternoon and the Sunday afternoon program at Rourke park.

In the former Omaha will have a chance to view all the sturdy local and visiting Sokols and see who they are and just what they are like. In the latter the principal speech-making of the big tournament will occur. Governor John H. Morehead will make the opening address in English, and it will be the first time he ever spoke at such an occasion.

July 19th will be in the parade Saturday and there will be twenty-five automobiles in the long line. Frank J. Riba, chairman of the general committee, will be chief marshal, with Mayor James C. Dahlman of Omaha and Chief of Police John Briggs of South Omaha as assistant marshals.

Order of the Parade.

The line of march will be from Turner hall, Thirteenth and Martha streets, downtown through the business section and back to the hall, and the parade will start at 2:30 o'clock. It will be made up as follows:

Company of mounted police.
Marching band.
Twenty judges on foot.
Over 300 contestants in uniform.
Local Sokols and Tyrs on foot.
Turley girls.
All Omaha and South Omaha Bohemian Sokols, in seventy-five autos.
Four bands at intervals in the parade.

Program for the Meeting.

The general program for the five days of the tournament is as follows:

WEDNESDAY, JULY 22.
8 p. m.—Turner hall, Thirteenth and Martha streets.
Reception speech by President Joe J. Mik of Omaha Sokol.

THURSDAY, JULY 23.
7 a. m.—Parade of contestants and judges from Turner hall to Rourke park.
7:30, 11:30 a. m.—Competitions at the park.

FRIDAY, JULY 24.
12 m.—Lunch at the hall for all contestants.
1:30 p. m.—Competitions at the park.

SATURDAY, JULY 25.
7 a. m.—Practice of free-hand drills at park by all turners.
8:30 p. m.—Parade, followed by celebration at hall.

SUNDAY, JULY 26.
1:30 p. m.—Parade from hall to park.
2:30 p. m.—Big dinner at Rourke park by all contestants, men, women and junior classes separately.

English address by State Senator E. E. Plack of Waboo.
Callisthenics by turners and by boys' and girls' classes.

Tambourine dancing drill by Omaha Turner girls.
Exhibition on apparatus by Omaha turners.

Callisthenic exhibitions by each division team of visiting turners.
8:15 p. m.—Play at Turner hall by Dramatic club of Omaha Sokol, and closing celebration of the tournament.

Riba is the Chairman.
Although Frank Riba of the Omaha Sokol was the winner of all recent individual turner contests in the western division, and was one of the American representatives in the last international contests held at Prague in 1912, he will be so busy during the tournament as chairman of the local general committee that he will be unable to take part in the contests.

Other members of the general committee are: Charles Fryzek, vice chairman; Charles Spalek, secretary; Charles Kautsky, treasurer; Ray Prohaska, assistant treasurer; A. Kreck, financial secretary; Joe J. Mik, B. W. Bartos, F. Schneider, O. Jelen, Mrs. J. Janak and Miss Jennie Zikmund.

The publicity committee consists of F. J. Kutak, chairman; Charles Spalek, secretary; J. G. Rosicky, J. F. Prachensky,

Among the new volumes are the following: The United States and Peace, by William Howard Taft, the Panama Canal, by Frederick J. Haskin; America Through the Spectacles of an Oriental Diplomat, by Wu Tingfang; Chemistry in America: Forty Years of It, by Brand Whitlock; Reminiscences of W. T. Stead, by his daughter, Estelle; Earmarks of Literature, by Arthur E. Boettwick, St. Louis librarian; The Coming Hawaii, by Joseph King Goodrich; Java and Her Neighbors, by Arthur S. Walcott; Afro-American Folk Songs, by H. E. Krehbiel; The Real Democracy, by J. E. F. Mann, N. J. Selvers and R. E. T. Cox.

Three books of interest to union men and students of labor have also been acquired. They are: The Wage Earner, by John Mitchell; Boycotts and the Labor Struggle, by Harry W. Laidler; Studies in Trade Unionism in the Custom Tailoring Trade, by Charles Jacob Stowell. The latter volume was a gift to the library from the Journeymen Tailors' union of Omaha.

Miss Millie Ryan goes to New York for summer residence studio at 211 West Ninety-fifth street. Miss Ryan will return to Omaha in September to open her new residence studio at 211 South Thirtieth street on October 1. The studio will be opened that day for inspection by pupils and friends. Miss Ryan will conduct the first grand opera program given by the musical department of the Omaha Woman's club in October.

The Knights of the Maccabees held galathea to Krug park yesterday and they enjoyed their annual picnic. Besides a sumptuous feast under the trees games and races were the events of the day. The dancing pavilion of the park has been taxed to its capacity every evening. The floor and lamp's orchestra have made an excellent combination, making dancing among the first of summer amusements. Roller skating and riding the roller coaster are other popular forms of entertainment.

The Omaha Ad club will meet at the Hotel Rome Tuesday noon, at which time club members will vote on the new constitution and by-laws.

Feeling that the club has outgrown its clothes it proposes to put on another suit, larger and better. When this is done members say it will be one of the strongest organizations in the order of Associated Ad Clubs of the World.

Mr. Richmond denies he asked permission to file. Henry C. Richmond, who has filed for the legislature, denies emphatically that he "asked Charley Fanning's permission to file."

Mr. Fanning and I are not very close," said Mr. Richmond. "In fact I never asked his advice nor conferred with him on political matters, and I have no intention of ever doing so."

I did not make up my mind to file until the last minute, and then I did it without asking anybody's permission. Several friends came to me and asked me to run, and I finally decided to run because I knew, if elected, that I could be of some service there."

Parsons cut up by an unidentified man. J. J. Parsons of Audubon, Ia., got all cut up by an unidentified man with whom he engaged in a bar-room discussion. Parsons came to headquarters with a gaping slash in his stomach and the tendons in his left hand severed. He was given emergency treatment by Dr. Edstrom and then taken to St. Joseph hospital.

What Women Are Doing in the World

Club Calendar.
WEDNESDAY—Mothers' Culture club, Mrs. C. B. Cameron and Mrs. W. W. Fisher, hostesses. Frances Willard Women's Christian Temperance union, Mrs. F. P. Chambers, hostess. Omaha Women's Christian Temperance union, Mrs. N. J. McKirick, hostess. Gontenelle chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Mrs. R. G. hostess.
THURSDAY—McKinley auxiliary to B'nai B'rith Metropolitan hall; Emma Hoagland Flower mission.

SCAUSE of the provisions of the new contract now pending with the holders of the Metropolitan hall, it is possible that a few changes in the schedule of meeting days for the departments of the Omaha Woman's club will be necessary. It has been decided that the music department will meet on Wednesday afternoon instead of Thursday as heretofore, and it is possible that other changes will be made.

The art department of the Omaha Woman's club has issued its program for the coming year. "Spanish Art" will be studied under the leadership of Mrs. C. J. Roberts. Mrs. J. C. Hammond, Mrs. G. C. Bonner and Mrs. A. B. Peterson are assistant leaders of this department, and Mrs. G. E. Bryson is the secretary. The meeting will be held as heretofore on Thursday mornings, no change having been made.

The Omaha Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet Wednesday at the home of the president, Mrs. N. J. McKirick, 1236 South Twenty-seventh street. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock, following which the meeting will be called to order. Reports of officers and superintendents of departments will be received. The annual meeting of the organization will be held August 12.

Mrs. Albert N. Eaton will be in charge of the program on "Temperance and Missions," which will be given Wednesday at a meeting of the Frances Willard Women's Christian Temperance Union, at the home of Mrs. F. P. Chambers, 292 North Twenty-fifth street. Mrs. Eaton is superintendent of this department of the club's work.

Mrs. W. W. Fisher and Mrs. C. H. Cameron will entertain the Mothers' Culture club at luncheon Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Cameron. This will be followed by an informal session on Longfellow, the "children's poet."

Mrs. George C. Bonner of the literature and art departments of the Omaha Woman's club is spending the summer at the beautiful bungalow of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Woodruff at Seymour lake. The bungalow, which is called "Beaulieu," is on the site of Dr. George L. Miller's old home.

Mrs. A. O. Peterson, assistant leader of the art department of the Woman's club, is spending the summer traveling in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Capen have returned from a month on a farm near Fremont, where they went for Mr. Capen's health. Mrs. Capen is president of the Omaha Suffrage association.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. King and family will remove this week to Clarkville, in eastern Iowa. Before going to her new home Mrs. King, who has been an active member of the Omaha Suffrage association, will visit in Rogers, Ark., with her two daughters for a few weeks.

Mrs. Frank Butte, secretary of the Frances Willard Woman's Christian Temperance Union, is spending a few weeks at Butte, Neb.

Miss Louise McPherson of the Visiting Nurse association, with her mother, Mrs. T. B. McPherson, and sister, Margaret, are spending the week-end at Evanston and Kenosha, enroute to Brooklyn, where they will be for several months.

Mrs. G. E. Mickel, president of the Mothers' Culture club, is expected home this week from Chicago, where she has been spending the last few weeks.

The McKinley auxiliary of the B'nai B'rith order will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the club rooms at Metropolitan hall. The new officers enter upon their administration at this meeting.

Mrs. C. T. Ryan will entertain Fontenelle chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at her home, 1138 South Thirty-third street, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Miss Mary Fairbrother, a prominent member of the Omaha Woman's club in the days of its inception and also editor of the Woman's Weekly, that time the official organ of the Woman's club and the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs, is managing editor of a new daily newspaper in San Francisco, which will be owned, managed and circulated by women. Miss Fairbrother was then official club reporter for the Woman's club.

She is moving to California with her mother about twelve years ago and was editor of a woman's weekly paper at the time of the earthquake, when the building which housed her newspaper plant was totally destroyed. Her many friends among the older club women of the city are much interested in her work.

Announcement of the affiliation of Theodore F. MacManus, formerly president of the MacManus company, with the Dunlap-Ward Advertising company of Detroit and Chicago, has been made to Detroit business circles. The move is regarded as one of the most important developments in the advertising agency business in some years and is being widely discussed by the advertising fraternity in this city.

Mr. MacManus has a national reputation, both as an advertising counselor and as a brilliant writer, and has been notably successful in supervising the advertising campaign for several of Detroit's largest motor car concerns. His experience embraces practically every phase of advertising and sales promotion. It is understood that he brings several large accounts to the Dunlap-Ward company.

James M. Dunlap, president of the Dunlap-Ward company, who has also been very active in the field of motor car advertising, expressed great pleasure at the affiliation of Mr. MacManus with his company. As a result of the arrangement Detroit gains one of the strongest agencies in the middle west.

BILL FOR THE WEEK AT THE EMPRESS.

Frances Le Maire At the Empress this week.

The feature act at the Empress theater this week is Howard's bears and dogs. This is a much featured act along this circuit and has the reputation of the fastest working animal act in vaudeville.

Nick and Lydia Russell will follow, fighting for second place with Francis LeMaire. The Russells have a clever act, including a girl, a man and a piano. These singing acts have proved very popular in this theater. Francis LeMaire is just in from the coast, the Pantages circuit, where he was the leading act on the bill. This act promises to run a close race for second place in popularity. John A. West and company will close the vaudeville offering. Mr. West is well known as the Musical Brownie. He also carries with him a grand opera wolf, which helps furnish the comedy for the act. First-run Peerless photo plays, including comedies, dramas and current news events of the Hearst-Bell News Pictorial, complete the bill.

AMERICAN SOCIETY Formed in Denmark. COPENHAGEN, July 18.—An American society of Denmark has been formed here to encourage and facilitate the exchange of scientific and applied knowledge between Denmark and the United States and particularly to aid Scandinavian students in America and American students in Scandinavia. Help will be given through the society to citizens of either country desiring to establish trade relations with the other. A special committee has been formed also to work with the Danish government in selecting students under the American-Scandinavian foundation, as the Niels Poulsen fund is called.

STEAM GANG PLOWS ARE INTRODUCED INTO JUTLAND. COPENHAGEN, July 18.—The American steam gang plow has been introduced in Jutland, where it has reclaimed a large area for cultivation which had been covered with heather and thought worthless. In twenty minutes as much ground was turned over, the peasants were astonished to find, as would have taken a team of hours twelve hours. Mr. Winslow, the American consul, attended the experiments. So successful were they that the farmers are arranging to buy more plows.

HEAVY WHEAT RECEIPTS ARE EXPECTED MONDAY

One hundred and ten carloads of wheat were on the Omaha market Saturday morning and everything was sold long before the close of the session. Most of the receipts of the day were taken by Chicago buyers to fill in on purchases made last month.

Wheat receipts Monday are expected to run not far from 300 cars, and from now on a large increase is expected.

COMMERCIAL CLUB NEEDS ADDITIONAL OFFICIAL

A commissioner of municipal affairs is needed by the Commercial club, according to the municipal affairs standing committee. The committee made recommendations to this effect last fall, but were not then acted upon on account of an unsettled condition. This is a matter, however, that the committee will probably consider at the very first of its meetings this fall.
