Four English and Three American Oup Players in Enclosure at Same Time, Giving Internatoinal Turn to Play.

BOSTON, July 25-A fierce fight in the eastern doubles between the old championship team, H. H. Hackett and F. B. Alexander and W. B. Clothing and G. P. Gardner, jr., was the feature of the tournament play at Longwood today. Five hard sets were necessary before the superior team play of Hackett and Alexander overcame the great individual prilliancy of the Philadelphia-Boston pair. The winners will play the Califernians, Fottrell and Murray, in the semi finals Monday.

Alexander rested scarcely ten minutes and then came on to the grand stand courts again for four sets with Williams playing in all 84 hard games in three hours. He lost the singles contest after a hard battle McLoughlin narrowly escaped dropping a set in his match with A. S. Dabney of Boston. The Californian usually makes his matches straight set affairs. but in the third with Debney, the latter obtained a lead of five games to two before the national champion woke up. In the eighth game Dabney was within two points of the set when McLoughlin speeding up his service, ran out the game and then took the next four and the match. The double teammates, Murray and Fottrell had a long duel in singles in which 52 games were played in four sets. As the heat was oppressive, the youngsters were exhausted when Murray drove out the deciding point.

A decidedly international flavor was given to the tournament today with four English and three American Davis cup players in the enclosure at the same time. While R. Norris Williams 11 was. engaged in beating F. B. Alexander and McLoughlin and Bundy were playing a practice match, the four members of the English team, who reached New York this morning, came on to adjoining courts for a test of the American turf.
