THE school set who are home this summer for their vacation have brought many interesting ideas from the east. Some of the young people, especially the visitors, are quite wonderful dancers and almost equal Mr. and Mrs. Castle and excel some of the dancers with the Castles.

Mr. Daniel McCarthy of Chicago, formerly of Omaha, who is a guest at the M. C. Peters home, dances the Maxixe and all of the most difficult dances with the greatest ease.

Mr. Scott McCormick of New York, who is visiting his father, Mr. Harry McCormick, is another expert dancer and knows all of the new steps.

Some of the couples I noticed dancing together in perfect rhythm at the country club were Daniel McCarthy, jr., with Miss Alice Jaquith as his partner; Mr. Scott McCormick and Miss Mildred Butler; Mr. Cuthbert Poeter and Miss Marion Howe and Mr. Robert Burns and Mrs. Harold Pritchett. All of these young people are as graceful as any of the dancers one will see on the stage, and it is most interesting to watch them go through the intricate steps.

Nearly all of the eastern travelers last winter who visited New York fell a victim to the dancing craze and visited Castle House, San Souci or Rector's, or one of the hundred or more places devoted to terpsichore.

Even I fell a victim, and hid myself to a dancing school the second day I was in New York, but could not possibly get an hour or half an hour until the next day. Of course I went to one of the best known, I believe it was the Heppburn Wilson school in Carnegie hall. Heppburn Wilson writes the dancing news for the New York Sun and prints the only dancing magazine in the country, I was told. So, curious to see a dancing master-editor, I started off. Mr. Wilson looks the part of the editor all right, but I found that he had a corps of French dancing masters, assisted by a number of young women. I had an interesting chat with Mr. Wilson and he seemed to be lamenting the fact that he did not have more room and more teachers, for pupils were simply flocking in. There were all kinds and all ages.

Then we went to a tea dansant, where we were introduced to Mr. Herr, who was here with the Castles, and were quite positive that we had mastered the real Brazilian Maxixe, but since returning home the dance seems to grow more difficult. In fact, there is quite a difference in seeing it danced for about twenty minutes, one evening a week, or seeing it every other dance during the entire evening, for about six evenings a week.

Summer Plans.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Farnsworth left Monday for a month in California.

Mr. Lester G. Heyn, who is enjoying an outing at Charlevoix, Mich., is expected home next week.

Mrs. William J. Hynes and son, William Hynes, jr., returned home Sunday from a fortnight's stay at Clear Water lake, Minnesota.

Mrs. William C. Sunderland, who spent a few days at Clear Water lake, Minn., returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pickens and Miss Elizabeth Pickens are spending a short time in Scotland.

Dr. and Mrs. W. K. Foote and daughters, Misses Frances and Katherine, with Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Wahl and their daughter, Miss Frances, and son, Master Albert, will leave Tuesday of next week for Lake Okoboji, where they will spend ten days at the Inn.

Seymour Lake Country Club.

Following the children's dancing party today the youngsters enjoyed a swimming party.

The Seymour Lake Country club mid-summer corn roast will be held on the lake front Saturday, August 1, between 6 and 7 o'clock. This party is for members only and tickets must be secured at the office of the club.

The program to be given this evening by club members is of universal interest and a large crowd will be present.

A stockholders' dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. Reports from various committees will be heard at this time.

At Carter Lake Club.

Mrs. Fred Hadra entertained six guests at a swimming party and luncheon Monday at Carter Lake club. Fifty guests were entertained at dinner, following which there were moving pictures.

The sermo club gave its annual luncheon today at the club, covers being laid for sixteen members. Mrs. W. J. Cattin entertained sixteen guests and Mrs. L. F. Fowler twelve.

At the Field Club.

Mrs. D. V. Sholes entertained one of the bridge clubs at luncheon today, and Mrs. C. P. Crowley had eleven guests. At the cabaret dinner dance Wednesday evening P. A. Shotwell will have four guests; Guy L. Smith, four; W. R. Bruce, two; A. B. Rutherford, eight, Dr. E. C. Abbott, two; W. A. Challis, four.

At the Country Club.

Several small dinner parties will be given at the Country club this evening. Judge W. D. McHugh will have three guests; Luther Drake, three; M. A. Hall, four; Ward Burgess, six; J. T. Stewart, two, three. Joseph Barker will give a small dinner party.

Pleasures Past.

Miss Corinne Searle has gone to Denver, where she will spend a few weeks.

In and Out of the Bee Hive.

Mrs. Glenn C. Wharton has returned from an extended stay in New York. Mrs. Max Reichenberg and daughter, Maxine, are spending a few weeks in Cincinnati with Mrs. Reichenberg's sister, Mrs. Alexander.

Miss Alice MacKenzie, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Quinby since she returned from her stay abroad, will go to Chicago Wednesday, to spend a few days before going to the lakes of Minnesota. She will return to Omaha about the middle of August.

Little Miss Elva Killingsworth of Waco, Tex., who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. Y. Smith is spending a few days at Nashwood, as the guest of Mrs. Louis Nash and children. The latter part of the week Mrs. Smith and her niece leave for Lincoln to visit relations.

Dr. Abby Virginia Holmes returned a few days ago from Chicago, where she completed a post graduate course. She left Monday for Denver and other Colorado points, and while in the west will give two lectures at the Young Women's Christian association conference, held at Bates Park August 25 to September 1.

Personal Mention.
