R. B. Martin of Hammond, Ind., led the record breaking field with a card of 72. It was followed by the famous Chicago pair, "Chick" Evans and Robert A. Gardner each of whom completed the eighteen holes in 73.

The sixty-four golfers who made the best scores will compete tomorrow afternoon in the qualification round of eighteen holes. The thirty-two who return the lowest medal scores for the thirty-six holes of preliminary play—the elimination and qualification rounds—will be paired off and will begin match play tomorrow afternoon.
