AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Mayor Says Twenty-Fourth Street Will Be Put in Shape Soon. ALSTADT SIGNS SIX BONDS Candidate Gets Number of Young Men Out of Jail Charged with Taking Part in Street Riot. That part of the paving on Twenty-fourth street between Vinton and A streets is likely to be repaired, if not repaved, if the insistence of the city of South Omaha will mean anything. The street is badly in need of repair and is dangerous, owing to the congestion of street car traffic at Twenty-fourth and Vinton streets. Neighbors in the vicinity of Twenty-fourth and A streets have lodged a complaint with Mayor Hoctor against the street car company's neglect to clean up its tracks after repairing them. The South Omaha people say the street car company paved its tracks between Twenty-fourth and Vinton, and that other public work was done on the streets by the electric light company. At the end of the work the street is said to have been cleaned up as far as the South Omaha line on the north, which is the south line of Omaha. This caused great annoyance to South Omaha people living near Twenty-fourth and A streets. Mayor Hoctor said the matter would be remedied at once. "If we cannot get that section of the street repaired we will have to relay the present pavement, and I will see that the street is cleaned by the parties responsible for the dirt." A number of petitions looking to the paving of Twenty-fourth between Vinton and A streets are now being circulated. Alstadt Signs All Bonds. Charles Alstadt, candidate for the republican nomination for county commissioner, played no favorites yesterday in the Omaha police court when he signed the bonds of a half dozen young men of Omaha and South Omaha, who were mixed up in a street fight some weeks ago. Harnett in Contempt. Police Judge James Callanan, candidate for re-nomination for the same place on the democratic ticket in South Omaha, has ordered a complaint for contempt of court filed against Councilman Henry Harnett, who happens to be a candidate for the police judge nomination also. Callanan insists that he has ordered the complaint merely to compel the respect due a subpoena issuing out of his tribunal prevent him from getting any votes against the judge. Harnett has been ill, suffering from an accident at Cudahy's, where he works. He was subpoenaed as a witness in the court of his political rival, Judge Callanan. He telephoned his inability to attend the court because of his accident. Judge Callanan says the message was sent to the police and not to himself, the court.

HEAT DRIVES BEAR CRAZY

Attacks Keeper of St. Louis Zoo When It Is Given Its Meat. Zimmerman climbed to the top of the big outdoor cage to give the polar bear his customary evening meal of meat. The bear threw aside the food held out by the keeper, caught Zimmerman's right leg in its mouth and tried to make a meal of it. The keeper yelled for help. A crowd of spectators stood by and heard the animal crunch the bones in the man's leg, but could lend him no aid. The bear finally was driven off with long poles.—St. Joseph News-Press. Will Raise Money For the Volunteers

A state-wide campaign to raise money to help arm the Irish National volunteers and a big mass meeting to be held in Omaha in the near future were outlined at a special meeting of the local provisional committee of the Irish National Volunteers, held at Arlington hall last night, with over twenty-five representative Irish citizens present. Vigorous military speeches were made, full of love for the "old sod" and indicating the determination of Irish-Americans to help their countrymen across the water to arm themselves and organize for defensive purposes, if the proposed plan of eliminating Ulster from the home rule program is carried out. During the meeting over $500 was pledged to the cause, of which more than $100 was paid in cash.

Those who spoke included: Dr. W. J. Leary, James O'Hara, Ted Leary, Michael Hogan, John Power, Joseph McMahon and others. The officers of the local organization are: J. J. Curtin, president; Michael Hogan, vice president; Thomas Murray, recording secretary; John T. Johnston, financial secretary; Dr. W. J. Leary, treasurer.

DODGE CAR PASSENGERS HAVE LIVE WIRE FRIGHT

A score of passengers on a Dodge street car had a narrow escape from accident at Twenty-third and Lake streets last night when the overhead trolley wire, carrying approximately 10,000 volts of electricity, broke and fell across the rear end of the car. The platform and the grab irons on the platform were burned by the live wire, but the passengers were all hustled out of the front door before any of them might have come in contact with any of the iron finishes to which the current was transferred. Jack Roberts was motorman and F. E. Brockett was the conductor of the car.

WOMEN WORKERS INCREASE

Statistics Show Eight Per Cent Gain. Making Total of 8,075,772 Females Employed. According to a report published recently by the census bureau, Department of Commerce, a gain of more than 8 per cent in the number of female workers in the United States has been made from 1890 to the taking of the last census. During the same period the gain in the number of male workers was a fraction more than 2 per cent. No reason is given in the report for this large increase in the number of female workers, but it is suggested that the recent feminist movement has had something to do with it. The number of males engaged in gainful work is naturally large and a noticeable increase in numbers could not be expected. In the United States there are 20,015,224 males engaged in gainful occupations, according to figures of the last census, as compared with 8,075,772 females. More than two-fifths of the total population are engaged in gainful work. Domestic and personal service is the only general division in which female help predominates. NO WAGES DUE THE WIFE

Housework Part of Her Duty in Connection with the Marital Contract. An agreement between husband and wife to the effect that the latter receive a weekly wage for performing household duties was held to be illegal by an advisory master in the chancery court at Jersey City recently. Work performed in the home by the wife, the opinion declared, was rendered in discharge of a duty she owed the husband and could not be construed as her sole separate account. The opinion was handed down in a case having for its basis a mortgage claim for $3,500 by Mrs. Herman M. Went against property owned by her husband, $1,000 of which represented a loan and the remainder back pay for household work performed by the wife at the rate of $1 a week for sixteen years. Her claim was filed as having precedence over another mortgage claim on the same property held by a mortgage company. Her claim was disallowed.
