Against Procedure in Beilis Case.

Protest in Name of Liberty and Free Thought Against Enormliv of Trial at Ktov.

Characterizing the alleged "murder lot" and "blood ritual" which the Russian government has affected to fight in the trial of Mendel Beills at Kiev, Russia, as a baseless calumny and a lie, Rabbi Frederick Cohn last night held tense a large audience of Jews and Gentiles at the synagogue in South Omaha while he laid bare the reasons for Russian hatred toward the Jew. Harry Lapidus was president of the meeting and whom were: Judge A. L. Sutton, Rev. Robert L. Wheeler of the Presbyterian church, Rev. J. W. Hastie of the Christian church. Mayor Thomas Hoctor, Harry Fleharty and Edward Simon, More than 300 people were present in the church edifice where the meeting of protest, was

A committee composed of Judge A. L. Button, Henry Monsky, Dr. Wheeler, Rev. Mr. Hastie and Rabbi Frederick Cohn drafted resolutions of protest and offered them for approbation by the meeting. The resolution were adopted unannously. Following is the text:

Whereas, The over recurring bloo couration' or so-called 'ritual murder plot against the Jew is now being urged in the Mendel Beills trial in Kiev, Rus-"Whereas, The said accusation and plot has no foundation in fact, either historical or biblical, but finds its source in blind passion and prejudice against the accused and his co-religionists; and, "Whereas, The trial of this charge must of necessity wield a great evil influence upon the already widespread and deplorable anti-Semitic sentiment and feeling against the Jews in Russia, and must incite riots, ravages and massacres such as have been experienced in recent years;

"Whereas, Such massacres, riots and anjust treatment of human beings are outrageously offensive and repulsive to civilization and demand the attention, disapproval and protest of every libertyloving man, woman and child; and, "Whereas, our Americans institution freedom and our government was con-ceived in the idea of religious tolerance. "He and freedom of religion; and,

Arriving at the White House President Wilson and his reunited family sat down to breakfast. Miss Jessie Wilson was the only one absent from the circle. It was said she had remained in the east to visit friends for a few days.

Proof that the summer White House was a thing of the past, so far as the year 1913 was concerned, was contained today in a pile of trunks and boxes that were stacked in the hall of the White House awaiting the attention of Mrs. Wilson and her daughters. The freight arrived yesterday and filled two big trucks which hauled it to the home of the chief executive.

In the pile of material that the brawny truckman unloaded were thirteen trunks, forty boxes, an lee cream freezer, a barrel of "eatin" " apples and the president's battered bicycle. The latter looked as though it had seen severe service over the Hampshire roads.
