

HUERTA DOES NOT INTEND TO RESIGN OR FLEE CAPITAL

Declares Reports Circulated in Mexico City and Finding Way to U. S. Are Lies.

PLENTY OF MONEY, HE SAYS "Where Did I Get It? My Secret, but I Have It."

DENIES RUMORS OF REVERSES Optimistic as to the Prospects of Pacification.

NO AMERICAN EXODUS ORDERED Foreigners Will Continue to Receive Every Guarantee, is Expression of the Dictator in Southern Country.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 19.—Provisional President Huerta has not resigned, nor has he fled from the capital. When seen at the national palace at 5 o'clock this afternoon he said he had no intention of doing either.

"When I resign," General Huerta said, "it will be to seek a resting place six feet in the soil. When I flee the capital it will be to shoulder a rifle and take my place in the ranks to fight the rebels."

This was President Huerta's answer to queries as to whether there was any foundation for the reports which have been freely circulated that the capital and found their way to the United States.

General Huerta looked the picture of health and energy. Attired in a new sack suit, he greeted the Associated Press correspondent with extreme cordiality, motioned him to a seat, asked for a cigarette and listened to the explanation of the motive for the visit.

Doesn't intend to Resign. "So it is reported that I have fled," he said. "You can see for yourself that I am here at my post. To say that I have resigned or intend to resign is a falsehood. I have no intention of resigning."

"Should the elections, which will be held as I have promised, indicate another for the presidency, I shall step aside. Until that time you will find me here complying with my promises to the nation, which are to re-establish peace."

President Huerta interspersed his talk with anecdotes illustrative of his points. "Another thing," the president said, "I have money for my requirements. Don't think that I have not. Where did I get it? My secret! tapping his chest with a satisfied smile. "But I have it."

On the question of pacification he asserted that before the end of the month the government would have retaken Torreon and made headway towards the pacification of the state of Coahuila.

"I have 4,000 men at Huixtla," the president said, "moving on Torreon and 2,000 more are proceeding north from Zacatecas."

In reply to a suggestion that further rumors were afloat to the effect that a troop train proceeding to Torreon had been blown up, he exclaimed: "More Lies." "More Lies." "Nothing of the kind has occurred."

"It has been said that all Americans have been ordered to leave the capital." In response, General Huerta made a gesture of disgust.

"What nonsense!" he replied. "As I have repeatedly said since I came to the presidency, foreigners, from Hottentots to the most enlightened, have received, and will continue to receive, every guarantee. Mexicans likewise who obey the law have nothing to fear from me. Transgressors must watch out. They shall be punished through every means the law affords."

BIG SUMS OFFERED SULZER

Ousted Governor of Empire State Bid $100,000 by Promoter.

HAS CLOSED NO CONTRACTS YET Several Hundred Admirers Call at Executive Mansion with Loving Cup, and Tammany Tiger is Flayed.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 19.—There was red, white and blue music by a brass band at the executive mansion last night, when several hundred admirers of William Sulzer called to present him with a loving cup.

A driving rain fell while the marchers were en route to the mansion. Mr. Sulzer started to shake hands with all of his callers, but did not complete the task. They crowded around him and refused to move. Someone said a few words of consolation to him, only to be interrupted by Mr. Sulzer.

"The action of the court in the least of our troubles," she said. "We'll have you back here next year, Bill!" one man yelled. Another enthusiast cried: "Hurrah for the next president of the United States."

Cheers for Mrs. Sulzer. Thereupon there was more cheering. Cheers for Mrs. Sulzer followed. Chester C. Platt, Mr. Sulzer's secretary, read a speech assuring Mr. Sulzer that he had been removed because he would not obey the bosses. Mention of the name of Charles F. Murphy brought hisses.

"Lynch him!" shouted one man at the mention of the name of an assemblyman. The cup presented to Mr. Sulzer was inscribed: "To William Sulzer, a victim of corrupt bossism, October 17, 1913."

Mrs. Sulzer was presented with a bouquet. Mr. Sulzer, in a speech, reiterated his assertions that his removal was due to his displeasing Tammany Hall.

Bids for Lectures. A Kansas City man bid $10,000 for one lecture, a New Yorker $20,000 for ten lectures and another New Yorker $50,000 for fifty, and a Chicago promoter topped the list with $100,000 for a season. As yet the former governor has closed no contracts for public addresses.

This was the last night Mr. Sulzer occupied the executive mansion. He will leave tomorrow morning for Cooperstown, where he will spend three or four days in a hotel owned by a friend. He will be accompanied only by Mrs. Sulzer. From Cooperstown Mr. Sulzer will go to the mountains for a few days, probably, and then return to New York.

Loup Valley Editors Form an Association For Mutual Interest

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Oct. 19.—(Special.)—It makes some difference in the capital city of the state whether you do your celebrating before or after. Yesterday was a big day for the old town and a large number of people came from far and wide to help celebrate the day.

Some of them, however, were disappointed. Nebraska was the goal he set for himself, and because of his efforts, mainly, stands the object of admiration of all other synods. Dr. Kearns has been working toward another goal, that of securing to every home missionary in the state a yearly salary of at least $1,500 with a manse.

Dr. Kearns was called on for an address, which he made with much feeling, reviewing his work and thanking those who had helped him. He was accorded a most flattering ovation. The outcome of this questioning was pronounced a complete vindication of Dr. Kearns' aggressive position and a tribute to his six years of service in the field. He leaves the state self-supporting and self-administrative.

Evangelism the Keynote. This resolution by Rev. H. J. Angell of Coleridge was adopted as an amendment to the standing rules: Synod shall also have a permanent committee on evangelistic work, which shall consist of a chairman appointed by the synod and of the chairmen of such committees of all of the presbyteries respectively, but if any presbytery does not have a standing committee on evangelistic work, it shall be represented on synod committee by one member chosen for that purpose by such presbytery.

This committee shall be charged with the promotion to the utmost possible of evangelism and evangelistic work in the self-supporting churches of synod, and also in the home mission churches and fields, so far as may be helped by aid desired by synod's committee on home missions and Sabbath school work.

Dr. Kearns and Dr. Angell laid stress on the paramount importance now of evangelism, in fact, that was the dominant note of synod. At the popular meeting Rev. A. G. McGaw, a missionary from Etah, India, gave a most interesting address. In the afternoon many delegates visited Bellevue college as President Stookey's guests. Synod adjourned for this purpose.

SYNOD SOLVES GREAT PROBLEMS OF CHURCH

Endorses Bellevue to Board for Aid and Upholds Home Mission Policy.

FOR SYNOD SUPERINTENDENT Order Issued Making This Change in Policy.

WARM TRIBUTE FOR KEARNS Home Mission Policy Given Strong Support.

EVANGELISM COMES TO FORE Amendment to Standing Rules Adopted by Naming Committee on Evangelistic Work, All Presbyteries Represented.

The Presbyterian synod of Nebraska Saturday at North church completed action on the two biggest questions before it, the synodical college and home mission policy, and now has but a few routine matters left over for Monday morning. It selected Madison, with its new church edifice, as the meeting place for next year.

After settling the college matter in the afternoon to general satisfaction by endorsing Bellevue to the college board for aid, the synod in the evening recorded itself once more in support of the home mission policy by the adoption of this resolution, brought in by a large special committee, of which Dr. D. E. Jenkins was chairman.

Whereas Dr. W. H. Kearns has served the synod of Nebraska with distinction and success without pay since his appointment to the position of field secretary.

We record our appreciation of his splendid efforts in leading us to self-support, and in his home mission and Sunday school interests of the synod demand the full time of a superintendent, who shall execute the plans of the synodical committee on home missions, and direct the district missionaries and direction of the evangelistic work in home mission fields, that we direct the synodical committee of home missions and Sabbath school work to appoint a synodical superintendent for this year, and that Dr. Kearns be requested to act as superintendent until the committee shall make the appointment.

Tribute to Dr. Kearns. It is the belief the superintendent will be named within two months. Dr. Kearns was solely synodical superintendent up to two years ago, when the board of home missions prompted him to be field secretary of the northwest with Minnesota, the Dakotas and Nebraska as his territory and headquarters at Minneapolis. He has simply been carrying on the synodical superintendency for Nebraska in conjunction with his larger work for this period in this state. His additional responsibility of superintending the synodical work in this territory is a very serious task to lay down this part of the work, although will continue in it until the superintendent is appointed.

It was frequently asserted in the synod that under Dr. Kearns' businesslike administration Nebraska has been brought to its present high standard of self-support, both in the home mission and Sabbath school work, the goal he set for himself, and because of his efforts, mainly, stands the object of admiration of all other synods. Dr. Kearns has been working toward another goal, that of securing to every home missionary in the state a yearly salary of at least $1,500 with a manse.

COURT RULES SONS CANNOT DISPOSSESS THEIR FATHER

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 19.—Samuel Inman, 57 years old, who, starting upon a trip to Europe two years ago, and fearing something might happen to him before he could return, turned over his controlling interests in a local box factory to three sons, will not lose his control of the business. This was decided by Circuit Judge Bird here today.

When he went abroad Inman divided his twenty-seven box factory shares, valued at $60,000, between the sons, equally. These and other papers were placed in a safe, to be opened should the father meet misfortune. Mr. Inman alleged that on his return the sons refused to give him back his business.

"This is an exceptional case," the court said in his decision. "I will not see this old man who spent his lifetime building up a business, dispossessed by three young men who believe they know more than he."

ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP TRAIN

Dynamite Explodes in Front of Passenger Carrying Guards.

ENGINEER SEES FUSE AND STOPS Force of Blast So Great Piece of Shattered Rail Hurlled Through Window of House Block Away.

CALUMMET, Mich., Oct. 19.—Detectives were working today on clues in connection with an attempt at Copper City, in the copper strike district, this morning to blow up a Keweenaw Central passenger train which was carrying forty-two mine guards to the Mohawk mine and eighteen passengers to various Keweenaw county points.

The officers have a description of the man who is said to have lighted the fuse to a charge of dynamite which exploded and tore up a section of the track just as Engineer Coking, who had seen the smoking fuse, stopped his train a short distance from the spot. So great was the force of the explosion that a piece of shattered rail was blown through the window of a house a block from the scene.

Following the arrival of mounted troops, who drove back several hundred strikers who had surrounded the train, the mine guards were escorted to Mohawk by the militia. As the Copper City strike involves interference with the transportation of the mails, it will be made the subject of a report to the Postoffice department.

Wipe Out Social Evil? Change Hearts of Men

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—"Segregation does not segregate. Regulation does not regulate, but rather, gives a false security. Absolute annihilation is the ideal."

Rev. W. T. Sumner, dean of the Cathedral of St. Paul of Chicago, made this declaration tonight about commercialized vice in an address at a social service mass meeting.

"Too long we have approached this business from the supply side," he said. "It is time to discuss it from the demand side, because so long as there is a demand there is going to be a form of supply. And the change is not coming with legislation; it is not coming with prosecution; it is coming only with the change in the hearts of men."

WINTRY WEATHER ON TAP IN WEATHER MAN'S STOCK

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Wintry weather is predicted for the next few days in the greater part of the country east of the Rocky mountains.

"It is probable," says the weekly bulletin tonight, "that general frosts will occur the first half of the week in the general central valleys. Normal temperatures will prevail during the week on the Pacific slope. The next disturbance of importance to cross the country will appear in the northwest Tuesday or Wednesday and move eastward and cross the great central valley Thursday or Friday."

This disturbance will be preceded by a general change to higher temperature, be attended by rains in the north Pacific states and the southern and middle states east of the Rocky mountains, and rain and snow along the northern border. It will be followed by colder weather, which will appear in the northwest about Thursday.

STORY OF BLOOD USED AT DEDICATION PROVED FALSE KIEV, Russia, Oct. 18.—The myth concerning the presence of two Jews in the neighborhood about the time the boy, Andrew Yushinsky, was murdered was dispelled today at the trial of Mendel Beils, charged with the murder, by the testimony of the Jews in question, Landan and Ettinger by name, who accounted for all their movements. It had been alleged that these two men were in some way implicated in the crime.

First Snow of the Season on Sunday

The "Gee, I Wish It Was Summer Again Guy," got in his first effective work about 11 o'clock yesterday morning when he noticed the beautiful white fluttering downward, sideways and upward. The snow was the first of the season, and the indications are that there will be no more hot spells this year. Freezing weather settled down on Omaha and vicinity last night, and the mother-covered flannels got their first ride of the season.

The snow was not effective enough to please the small boy, as it melted almost as soon as it fell. Along during the day a cold wind sprang up, which divided itself into as many parts as Gaut and played tag with itself.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 19.—More than twenty-five persons are reported killed in the wreck of a troop train near State Line, Miss., today. 300 Inmates of Ten Cent Joint Vaccinated

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Three hundred inmates of "Hogan's flop," a 10-cent lodging house, were vaccinated tonight when the health authorities learned that John Scarry, a smallpox patient at the county hospital, had slept there on Thursday night.

Consternation seized the lodgers when they discovered the purpose of the four physicians and six policemen who went over the four floors of the cheap hotel arousing the occupants. Twenty of them escaped by climbing down a fire escape and the reserves were called out from a nearby station to guard the building while the doctors performed their huge task.

BABY IS IMPRISONED IN THE COUNTY JAIL

For the first time in many years a baby is imprisoned in the county jail and there is much rejoicing in the women's department of the institution. According to the matron not one of the inmates under her care has been indifferent to the little one, though some have hardened, and evil faces.

The baby is thirteen months old and is the daughter of Mrs. Levina Houchin indicted by the federal grand jury on a charge of violating the white slave law. She is held pending trial. In the rooms where the baby is kept only women who are held on minor charges are allowed.

LINCOLN CHARTER IS READY

Men Who Framed it Have Brought in the Removal Fight.

OPPOSITION GAINS GROUND Public Realizes What Has Been Attempted in the Way of Taxing All to Make Up the Guarantee.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Oct. 19.—(Special.)—Although fifty patriotic citizens of the capital city of Nebraska offered themselves last spring at the city primaries to be chosen to help draw up a new charter under the commission form adopted by the people, but fifteen of them could be successful.

At last the charter has been completed and it abounds with so many different ideas that it looks as if it was going to find hard sledding when it meets the people face to face at the lecture to be called to adopt or reject it.

A peculiarity of the new draft is that it has brought the university removal proposition into the fight. It will be remembered that when the proposition of university removal was before the legislature that some of the business men of Lincoln living near the university and who own many a dollar by reason of the fact that they live close enough to the institution to gobble most of the dollars that the students have to spend, made a proposition to put up a bond to guarantee the legislature that the proposed additional six blocks of ground on which they desired the extension of the university, should not cost the state over a certain amount of money.

Provides Special Levy. House roll 152, introduced by Representative Jeary of Lincoln, for the special purpose of amending the then charter of the city, provides for a special levy of "not to exceed five mills for the purpose of purchasing, holding and improving public grounds and parks, park extensions and improvements and university campus extension."

The proposed charter in paragraph 64 of article five, provides for the raising of $3,000 for university extension. This is what is raising the trouble in the city and causing taxpayers, who will not be benefited by the location of the university down town to howl.

The bill introduced by Mr. Jeary calls for a 5 per cent levy for park extensions as well as university extension. The new charter proposes to let the parks take care of themselves and put $20,000, one-ninth of all the money that can be raised for all purposes, $600,000, into the scheme to keep the university down town where the big stores can receive all the benefits.

Should Not Tax All. One man who owns a home in the south part of the city said yesterday that he was in favor of having the university down town, but he did not think that after the big stores near the campus had offered to guarantee the state that the new grounds should not cost over a certain amount that they could pull off a stunt in tax the people over the city, who would not be benefited to help them out.

While nearly everybody in Lincoln opposed bitterly moving the university to the state farm at the time the proposition was before the legislature and were ready to deny franchise to everybody who favored it and proposed to kill off politically every member of the senate or house who favored it if they ever came up for office, a large number of them are beginning to see through the whole scheme just as the senate committee saw through it and give those senators credit for their far-sightedness.

The election which will settle the fate of the new charter will to a certain extent be settled on university removal lines, for in its adoption the people see bigger taxes for them for the benefit of the few, while if the charter is adopted they will be compelled to vote for the removal of the university to the state farm in order to save paying the extra tax of from 25 to 50 per cent which will be levied if the university extension is made down town.

HILL'S PRIVATE CAR NOT ATTACHED TO WRECKED TRAIN

LA CROSSE, Wis., Oct. 19.—The story sent out today saying that James J. Hill of the Great Northern railway was aboard his private car, attached to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy train wrecked at Nelson, Wis., was an error. According to information received here tonight, Mr. Hill's car was attached to another train traveling almost an hour behind the one wrecked.

DENOUNCES BOARD OF INQUIRY English Woman Talks of Star Chamber Proceedings.

BLAMES BRITISH OPPONENTS Chicago Suffragette Passes Resolutions Protesting Against Action of Immigration Authorities and Send it to Wilson.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Immigration Commissioner Caminetti today declined to release Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, British militant suffragist, on bond from the Ellis island immigration station, New York, pending final adjudication of her appeal from the order of deportation issued yesterday by a special board of inquiry. Her case will be taken up formally tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock by Commissioner Caminetti, and it is expected a definite decision on her release or deportation may be reached during the day.

"Prisoner" on Island. NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, foremost of English militant suffragettes, who reached America yesterday on the liner Provence to appeal for the sympathy and support of the American people in the "revolution" for which she says she is fighting, is a prisoner tonight at Ellis island under order of deportation, awaiting the issue of an appeal which is expected to be decided Monday at Washington.

With Miss Rheta Childe Dorr, one of the arriving English militants' strong sympathizers, who was "voluntarily" detained, that she might be with her leader, Mrs. Pankhurst occupies the commissioner's suite of two rooms in the administration building. While presenting an appearance of bareness, the rooms are comfortably furnished and are the best in the building. They are the ones in which Cipriano Castro, former Venezuelan dictator, was detained while his case was pending. From the broad windows overlooking the harbor Mrs. Pankhurst can see the status of Liberty.

Taken Before Special Board. Mrs. Pankhurst was detained by an immigration inspector on her arrival here and was at once taken before a special board of inquiry, which, after examining her, decided that because she had been charged with acts involving moral turpitude she was an undesirable alien. The board therefore ordered her exclusion.

An appeal was immediately entered and Immigration Commissioner Caminetti is to hear argument on her case Monday in Washington. Mrs. Pankhurst's representatives here expressed confidence that whatever might be done about the appeal, the English militant would be released under bond for three weeks, so that she might fill her speaking engagements here. Mrs. Pankhurst tonight had still another recourse under consideration.

"Even if the appeal fails, we still have the habeas corpus proceedings," she said. Meeting Postponed. Because of the uncertainties surrounding the immediate course of the proceedings in her case, the meeting at Madison Square Garden, set for tomorrow night, at which Mrs. Pankhurst was to speak, was today postponed to Monday night. Mrs. Pankhurst, herself, seemed to have little doubt that she would be freed in time to speak at that meeting and to carry her message in all completeness to the people of this country. She was on the point of starting a "hunger strike," when she heard that the order of deportation was issued. But on learning that a speedy decision of the appeal was probable she consumed with evident relish a chicken sandwich and a pot of tea, which she had requested.

"I am confident that whatever happens, it will be good for the cause in which I am interested," she said. "I have great faith in the sense of justice and fair play of the American people, and I know they want to give me a chance to defend the movement which has been so mis-

Perhaps there is no month in the year during which a woman's shopping is so important as during the month of October. In looking over the advertisements in her newspaper she will see everywhere repeated the alluring call "new—new—fashionable new ideas, new fabrics, new millinery, new accessories, new everything."
