individual, it is now clearly perceived bears upon all and shames society and bears upon all and shames society and the state.

The greatest force in the world is moral force and the moral sentiment of the people is gathering and growing into a tremendous agency for righteousness. The day is coming. If it is not already here, what the moral senses of the people and the law will forbid that any man be placed at a disadvantage except by his own conduct. These are the things for which all men should be devoutly thankful upon a state or national Thanks, giving day. It is impossible to think of a great state or nation, however, tremendously rich it may be, apart from a high-minded, just citizenship inspired by great ideals. Great crops, gursting granaries and banks full of money are fine, things, to be sure, for which we should be very grateful, but they are insufficient, and in the end destroy unless they become a basis for the higher thiags.

In conformity with a custom long established and with the proclamation of the president of the United States calling upon the people throughout the state, do hereby also name said, day as Thanksgiving day is lows and engrees that the people throughout the state assemble in their churches, and looking beyond material things, express their profound gratitude in speech, song and prayer for the strong the first of the chings in our life and pray that in the chings in our life and pray that in the days it come we may have a deeper concern said sympathy for human the thing way make our state which contained the cowd.

shy gave out a long statement tonight in reply to the charges recently made by William Sulzer. Of the accusations uttered by Sulzer in his campaign speeches and in newspapers all but one are denied by the Tammany hali leader. The exception related to a $25,000 campaign contribution of Judge Beardsley. Sulzer said he rejected this contributton upon learning that it came from Anthony N. Brady and that the money subsequently went to Murphy, who, he declared, had made no accounting of it. Murphy said tonight he received the ney from Beardsley but returned it to Mr. Brady the following day. Mr. Brady died in London last spring, several months after the incidents mentioned by Murphy and Suizer. Murphy in his statement emphasized the fact that Sulzer did not make his charges before the court which im-

"Why was Mr. Sulzer afraid to face the court and there make his statement under oath on the witness stand?" demanded Murphy. "I was willing to appear. He declined to appear. Mr. Sulzer tried to arouse prejudice by publicly aserting that the solemn verdict of the ighest court in the state was due to my influence. The fact is that the only man responsible for the disgrace and downfall of Governor Sulzer, is William Sulzer himself."

Murphy denied charges that he offered o pay off Sulzer's debts; that he met Sulzer at specified times alleged by Sulzer; that he suggested certain men for heads of state departments; that he demanded pledges regarding legislation; that he sent a threat to Sulzer regarding an appointment of highway commissioner for James E. Gaffney that it would be "Gaffney or war:" that he attempted to influence Sulser in the matter of appointments to judiciary positions; that he threatened to diagrace Sulser and wreck his administration; that he ever told Sulver he would "stand by" Stilwell, former state senator, now in Sing Sing
