Keep an eye on your gate. Ah, g'wan, who's at-f-fraid of rho-o-at-s-sta? Some folks just fall for every slang expression that becomes current.

The New York City campaign shows that when tigers fall out the fur flies. "Fear kept the Mexican voters at home," says a news note. Something did, sure.

The problem with the autumn horse shows is what to do with the automobiles. It is well to teach the boy not to blame others for what he, himself, should be responsible.

Seeing a Light. The Bee is glad to find one of our amiable contemporaries, heretofore lined up as a champion of the Water board in its arbitrary exactions, seeing a light, and furnishing an argument to reinforce The Bee's persistent demand for lower water rates.

Thirty Years Ago—The first marriage in the new Holy Family church was solemnized yesterday by Father Shaffel. The bride was Miss Eliza Furry, sister of John R. Furry, and the groom was John A. Pink. They were attended by Prof. T. T. Downey of Creighton college and Miss Fallon of Hillsboro, Ohio.

Twenty Years Ago—The residence of A. T. Knight, 2302 North Twentieth street, was slightly damaged by fire.

Fighting Quack Doctors. The Chicago Tribune, which is making a bold and effective fight on quack doctors in Chicago, is receiving many letters of approval, some from medical men and heads of medical schools, urging it on in the good work.

Crazy Quilt Tariff Sheets. In a speech on the floor of the house dealing with freight rates and their proposed revision, Congressman George J. Kindel of Colorado briefly compared the German and American railroad tariffs, showing that while Germany's covers but a single small sheet of paper, ours is spread over yards of paper in a crazy-quilt fashion which is so complicated as to be incomprehensible to the average layman.

High living comes high in foot ball society. Box seats for the West Point-Annapolis game in New York, November 23, are priced at $25 each.

Philip Mohr, said to be the inventor of ice cream sodas, is dead at his home in Elizabeth, N. J., aged 83. Mr. Mohr saved the life of countless drug stores.

With the coat of living 2 cents a day in Japan the housewife of that nation has no need to worry over soaring prices, according to a paper given by Mrs. J. K. Parker before the Cleveland Literary guild.

Rev. Percy J. Green, one of the New Thought leaders of Portland, Ore., challenges supporters of orthodox customs by omitting the word "obey" from the marriage ceremony, uniting his daughter, Ethel Vera Green, to Edward Willam Dawson.

Gov. H. H. Johnson of California laughs at the idea of the bull moosees ever aligning with either one of the old parties. He laughs loudest, though, who laughs last, or words to that effect.

People Talked About. High living comes high in foot ball society.

Wester on Woman Suffrage. SILVER CREEK, Neb., Oct. 29.—To the Editor of The Bee: While in early years I was strongly opposed to woman suffrage, later, and until recently, I looked upon the agitation that question with indifference.

Political Straws. Charles Murphy, Tammany chief, is fighting with his back to the wall.

The Bee's Letter Box

Seeking the Little Fellow. OMAHA, Oct. 29.—To the Editor of The Bee: It appears that our illustrious way boss is not satisfied with the raw deal he contrived to hand to the Omaha populace concerning the water rates.

Another Version of the Fight. OMAHA, Oct. 29.—To the Editor of The Bee: Allow me to say a few words about the free-for-all fight in which O'Leary got a broken jaw, so that I may put the Clearmonts in the right and O'Leary in the wrong.

moderately comply with her request to buy her a silk skirt. The great leader (I will not say "infamous" leader) of the suffragettes, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, is now in the United States to collect money from her sympathizers (the woman suffragists) to help her to continue in England her nefarious warfare of the faggot.

LAUGHING GAS. Dick—Say, old man, I can get Brown's car. What do you say to a joy ride? Tom—No, thank you. About all the joy rides I've ever heard of have been followed by a funeral.—Boston Transcript.

LOOK OUT FOR HIM. Chicago News. A little wind creeps whining to my door. I hear its feeble hand upon the latch. But soon great Boreas, with angry roar, will come this way and leap upon my throat.
