Trailers Nearly Ready—The big elevator cars for use as trailers on the Council Bluffs line of the street railway are about completed and it is expected they will be put in service early in December.

Stockman See Foot Ball Game—A delegation from South Omaha representing the Union stock yards, headed by E. Buckingham and Ed Cahow, will attend the foot ball game between Creighton and the Haskell Indians Saturday.

New Y on Lake Street—The Omaha Street Railway company is putting in a double Y at the intersection of Lake and Twenty-fourth streets. This will enable them to switch cars back and forth from all lines in the north part of the city.

Michel Gives a Dinner—George E. Michel of the Nebraska Cattle company will be host to Fred Graff and the principals and musical directors of the Omaha public schools at a dinner to be given Thursday evening, November 6, at the Loyal hotel.

Schools Observe Fire Day—Schools will observe fire day Tuesday, November 11. Fire day this year is November 7, but as schools are dismissed next week for the Nebraska State Teachers' association the observance has been postponed.

To Discuss Rural Credits—George N. Laumann, professor of rural economics and sociology at Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y., is to be one of the strong speakers at the program of the Farmers' congress when it convenes here. He is to discuss rural credits.

Field for Shooting Pigeons—Francis Smith, son of Mel Smith, 337 Fowler avenue, and Ralph Wadum, son of Sigfred Wadum, 321 Taylor street, two youthful hunters, will appear in juvenile court Saturday to face charges of shooting pigeons within the city limits.

Condition of Van Nostrand the Same—The condition of J. W. Van Nostrand of 847 South Twenty-sixth street practically is unchanged. His physicians do not look for a recovery, nor do they expect a sudden end. Mr. Van Nostrand is a pioneer of Omaha and for many years has been identified in school and church affairs. He was the first city clerk in Omaha. He is stricken with paralysis on the left side.

Job for Omaha Builders—Plans for two new wings to the Chadron Normal school building are to be on file at the Builders' exchange in Omaha November 4, so that Omaha contractors may look them over with a view to bidding for the job. J. C. Stitt of Norfolk is the architect. He is working on the plans now and is expecting to have them finished by that time. The wings are to cost about $2,000.

Milwaukee Shares New Train—When the schedule of Union Pacific train No. 10 is changed next Sunday this train will be shared jointly between the Milwaukee and the Northwestern, each handling its own equipment between Omaha and Chicago. From Omaha, west the train will be made up of the cars of the three roads, the Union Pacific furnishing the motive power. Eastbound the train will reach Omaha about 3 o'clock in the morning, putting passengers into Chicago early in the afternoon.

Denison Says Health Needed for Efficiency—A large audience made up of employees of the Nebraska Clothing company listened to an interesting address by E. F. Denison, general secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, Wednesday night.

Mr. Denison's topic was "Some Personal Requisites to Efficiency," touching on the subject of good health as a first requisite. He said "good health is imperative to largest efficiency" and that "health is largely in one's own control," proper nourishment and adequate sleep being the first steps to good health.

"He will succeed who improves his time out of business hours and prepares himself for the next step above, for vicious habits are always conducive to success."

Never having sold goods, Mr. Denison stated that his view was from the customer's standpoint and that each customer has a right to courteous treatment and that all of these things were but the expression of a man's own character.

INTENSE BURNING AND ITCHING Scalp Red and Inflamed. Would Scratch and Rub. Lay Awake Nights. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured in Short Time.

323 South Sixty St., Circleville, Ohio.—"My little girl's trouble first started on her head in a bunch of little bumps full of yellow-looking matter, and they would spread in large places. In a short time her scalp was awfully red and inflamed and the burning and itching were so intense that she would scratch and rub until it would leave ugly scars."

"The scabs also appeared on her body, and her clothing irritated them so that I had to put real soft cloth next to her body. She would lie awake nights and was very nervous. At times she was tormented with itching and burning, and she would scratch and rub with no benefit for months. I had given up all hope of her ever getting rid of it, then I concluded to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The second application gave relief. I first bathed the parts thoroughly with Cuticura Soap and then applied the Cuticura Ointment in a short time she was entirely cured." (Signed) Mrs. Alice Kille, Nov. 4, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough skin, itching, scaly scalp, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and chapped faces. That it is almost criminal not to use them. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere. Sample of each mailed free, with 25-cent Skin Book. Address post-paid, Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

FADING BERTHA ARRESTED

Famous Police Character Just Can't Be Good All of the Time.

BEHAVED ONE WHOLE WINTER

Longest Record Accomplished by Unfortunate Woman Was When She Was Under Supervision of Rev. Mr. Savigde.

Bertha Lieke, otherwise known as "Fainting Bertha," despite her protestations of reformation upon her return to Omaha from Hastings a few short weeks ago, was arrested in a state of intoxication at Fifteenth and Howard streets by Officers Voboul and Thornton at noon.

For several years Bertha has been missing from among the familiar faces of the local police court characters, but her return to the ranks bordered on a reception when, screaming and fighting, she was escorted to a cell.

Every prisoner bade her welcome, but much to their disappointment she was in no condition to reply in a rational manner. Bertha's nom de plume, "Fainting Bertha," was given her as the result of her inability to faint at will during which "lapse of consciousness" she would go through the pockets of any person who might chance to come to her aid.

Upon her return to Omaha she was accompanied by her husband-to-be, but it seems that the match has not culminated in a satisfactory manner. Several efforts toward reformation in the past by the woman have resulted as has her latest attempt. Several years ago Rev. Mr. Savigde of the People's church succeeded in keeping her straight for an entire winter, but toward spring she suddenly disappeared from the pastor's home as did also a large quantity of silverware and some jewelry.

Bertha is declared to be only partially responsible for her misdeeds, and this fact has kept the woman from receiving a jail sentence of any great length. Reports from hotels where she has been working in the last two weeks have led the police to believe that it would not be long before she again paid them a visit.

Cop Passes Chance for a Pinch When He Sees Man Loosen Up

Policeman Johnnie Barta, advocate of a liberal administration, craves front page space in the hopes of converting some of the Anti-Saloon leaguers.

A man well known in Omaha, and whose very name is synonymous with "stinginess" came up Douglas street early yesterday from Eleventh, intoxicated. Barta was standing in the doorway of the Merritt pharmacy and saw the intoxicated man a block away.

"That sucker ought to go to jail, if for no other reason than for his hypocrisy, but if I pinched him, he's got 'pull' enough, I suppose, to get me in trouble," thought Barta.

As Barta was thinking, a newboy with his arm bulging out with morning papers, crossed the street between the officer and the stinky, non-drinking drunken man.

"Polpas," howled the lad, his voice echoing up and down the still silent street. The drunken man was close to the newboy.

"Got a Bee?" he asked, as he reeled when he stopped.

"See her World-Herald," answered the boy.

"H' much," asked the drunken man.

"Two cents," answered the newboy.

"Not enough," answered the drunken one, as he gave the newboy a nickel and then five silver dollars on top.

"Any kid that's got nerve enough to get out of bed on a cold morning like this at 4 o'clock, is enough of a hero to get 50 cents of mine," he growled, as he moved on up the street, with the two morning papers under his arm.

"Well, for Ge-a-w'd's sake!" muttered Barta. "Look whose here. I'll just go him one better. Any time that guy loosens up with five, I'm for him to the extent of passing up a credit on me pinch record."

And Barta walked a half block out of his way in order not to "see" the drunken man.

Hallow'e'n Party Saturday Night by Omaha Uni Sophs

Following the custom of the preceding sophomore classes the sophomore class of the University of Omaha is planning a mammoth Hallow'e'n party Saturday evening to be given at the university. The entire school has been invited, and from indications one of the largest crowds ever turned out for a school function at the university is expected.

The entertainment committee plans to pull off some of the most original Hallow'e'n stunts ever tried, and from the preparations they are making an unusual good time is assured. All students have been asked to come in masked costumes, prizes being offered for those in the best makeup. The halls of the school are to be decorated with Hallow'e'n decorations lending more of a Hallow'e'n effect to the party.

From the preparations of the refreshment committee the students are more than assured of a good time. Pumpkin pie, cider, apples and the various other things that go to make a Hallow'e'n party a success will be on hand in large quantities.

AXEL SUND WILL RETURN TO THE LIFE OF A FARMER

Axel Sund, elevator conductor at the Burlington headquarters, was one of the lucky ones in the North Platte land lottery, pulling out No. 55. During the years of his youth Sund was a farmer and next spring he will return to the land. He will not file on the forest reserve, but instead will select a tract on the military reservation near Valentine and move there. He figures that he made not less than $5,000 in the drawings.

Diarrhoea Quicker Cured.—"I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. Yorks, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others that gave it to." writes M. E. Gehart, Orléans, Pa. That is not an all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy. For sale by all druggists.—Advertisement.

Concert by Gadski Given for Teachers by Publicity Bureau. Somewhere the impression has gone out to teachers in the state that they will be asked to pay for the Mrs. Gadski concert during their stay in Omaha at the teachers' association meeting. This is not true. This concert is given free of charge to the teachers, members of the association, by the bureau of publicity of Omaha. It is a complimentary entertainment by the bureau. Four big excursions are now scheduled for the teachers. They are to the Union Stock yards, South Omaha; Union Pacific headquarters building, the daily newspaper offices and the Iteu Siscout company and O'Brien candy factory in one excursion. Besides these side trips and excursions probably will be arranged from day to day if a dozen or more teachers at any one time decide they want to make a certain trip. On the other hand invitations from business houses in the city will still be considered, and all invitations will be read before the association in order that the teachers may act on any of them that they see fit besides the four that are already arranged. Every mail brings in more word of towns in the state from which the entire corps of teachers, expects to attend the convention.

Date for Dr. Shaw's Speech is Changed. Instead of speaking at the Commercial club November 5 as was scheduled, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, the suffrage leader, will speak there November 7. A wire has just been received at the club from her in which she states that she had misunderstood the arrangement, and that it will be impossible for her to reach Omaha before November 7. She explains that she made the engagement while under the impression that her Commercial club date was the same day as her engagement to speak before the teachers' association. The club has arranged to change the date to November 7 so that they may not be cheated out of the privilege of hearing her. COMES TO ARRANGE FOR A BELGIAN CONSUL HERE. Leon De Waele, Belgian consul at New Orleans, is to be in Omaha Saturday. He wired from St. Louis that it would be impossible to reach here before that time.

AT ONCE, CLOGGED NOSTRILS OPEN, HEAD COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH. Breathe Freely! Clears Stuffed-up, Inflamed Nose and Head and Stops Catarrhal Discharge. Ourses Dull Mucous. Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle, anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dizziness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone. End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils, penetrates and breaks the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately. Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing; Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dripping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing, but truly needless. Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.—Advertisement.
