

Society

By MELLIFICIA. Thursday, October 30, 1913.

NOVEMBER will start auspiciously with several most interesting musicales for society to attend.

Mrs. Joseph Maul Metcalf issued invitations today for an evening musical Tuesday, November 11, at 8 o'clock, at her spacious home, 1234 South Tenth street. Miss Mary Munchhoff, the well known soprano, and Miss Bella Robinson, pianist, will give the program. Both artists have spent several years in study abroad and their friends are pleased to have the opportunity of hearing them.

Mrs. Charles T. Kountze, president of the Tuesday Morning Musical club, issued invitations yesterday to the members for the first meeting, or President's day program and tea, which will be given at her home next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Douglas Welpton, contralto, will give several vocal numbers.

Another musical of interest will be Friday evening, November 7, at the Auditorium, when Madam Gaski will give a concert. About 4,000 teachers will be the guests of the Commercial club, and November 10 Miss Hopper will bring Madam Rappold to the Brandeis for a matinee recital.

Several women have engaged box seats for the series. One box party will include Mrs. C. M. Wilhelm, Mrs. W. S. Poppleton, Mrs. T. J. Mahoney, Mrs. J. W. Griffith, Mrs. Douglas Welpton, Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Eldridge. Another box party for the series will include Mrs. F. L. Haller, Mrs. F. H. Coles, Mrs. M. D. Cameron and Mrs. A. B. Somers. Mrs. Myron Learned has a box for the season.

The musical department of the Woman's club are also giving a series of interesting musicales every two weeks on Thursday afternoons.

MILK PRICES ARE ADVANCED

Cost to Wholesale and Retail Buyer is Raised.

PASTEURIZED IS NINE CENTS

Wholesale Price Advanced to 25 Cents a Gallon—Grocery Stores and Small Dealers Make an Advance.

Milk prices have been given a boost in Omaha, the smaller dealers raising the price to 8 1/2 cents a quart, and the wholesalers following to 25 cents a gallon and pasteurized milk being raised to 9 cents a quart.

An effort was made to raise the price of milk in Omaha a year ago, but some of the larger dealers stood out and the increase was not brought about. Notices have been sent out announcing the raise.

In the notices sent out by the Alamito company the reasons for the increase are: "An exceedingly hot summer," "four years of drought which have cut the supply, increasing the cost of hauling besides the price to the farmer," "farmers becoming prosperous, would rather raise hogs, sell alfalfa or fatten cattle, making as much money with less Sunday work," "city ordinances require a higher per cent of butter fat," "the gradual advance of wages, supplies and feed for horses."

"The wholesale price has been up for two months," said Charles Schweizer, president of the Alamito company, "and we are simply doing what all other cities have been compelled to do. Pasteurized milk at Kansas City, St. Louis, Denver and Detroit is 9 cents a quart and we are forced to pay more for milk than ever before. Grocery stores handling milk raised the price some time ago."

MID-TERM CLASS AT THE HIGH SCHOOL ELECTS

The mid-term graduating class of the high school has selected officers as follows: William Thompson, president; Leo Gardner, vice president; Anna Barnes, secretary; Austin Owens, treasurer; Elsie Neff and Esther Dennison, sergeants-at-arms.

The class, which is the third to graduate in February, is larger than either of the two preceding classes. Forty-two students have up to date signified their intention of graduating in February. Prior year was held at the high school, and all students who had a sufficient number of points to complete their school course in the mid-year were forced to remain over until June. In 1911, however, the Board of Education decided to allow eligible students a first-class diploma in February, and the idea is steadily gaining in favor at the school.

The present class decided to give a class entertainment in the near future and selected a committee, consisting of Louise Raabe, Irene Clabaugh, Anna Barnes and Marion Levy to arrange the details.

MRS. BYERS ADDRESSES CONFERENCE THIS EVENING
