Texas Side of the Rio Grande.

NOGALLES, Sonora, Mex., Nov. 2.—General Venustiano Carranza, leader of the Mexican constitutionalists, announced here tonight that he would make a formal appeal to Washington, probably tomorrow or Monday, for recognition of the belligerency of the Mexican insurgents.

General Carranza arrived tonight on a special train from Hermosillo, the capital of Sonora. He was preceded by General Lucio Blanco, military governor of the state of Tamaulipas, and other revolutionary leaders.

It was declared in revolutionary circles that Carranza's mission was to meet and confer with an agent of President Wilson, who was expected to arrive tomorrow.

Washington Still Waiting.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Administration officials shed no further light today on their plans for dealing with the Mexican situation. The government here still is awaiting some announcement from the Houston administration as to the result of the last election.

Reports describing the conduct of the elections and giving impressions of the political situation generally in Mexico, were received today from John Lind at Vera Cruz. It is believed that some of the suggestions under consideration here have been submitted to Mr. Lind for approval.

Drive Cattle Across Border.

EAGLE PASS, Tex., Nov. 2.—Fearing an engagement between constitutionalists and federal American owners of cattle on the Mexican border today removed large herds to the Texas side of the Rio Grande.

The constitutionalist junta here announced no military moves would be made until the property of foreigners is safe.

It is believed an extended movement is contemplated with the object of retaking Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass. Piedras Negras was the provisional capital of the rebels, but is now in the hands of the federalists.

PHYSICIAN AT LINCOLN ARRESTED BY INSPECTOR

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 2.—Dr. H. C. Williams, a former Hastings physician, was arrested here today by United States Inspector Coble of Omaha. Williams is accused of using the mails to further a scheme to defraud. It is charged he has been sending letters offering promise of relief to ailing, which could not be fulfilled. Dr. Williams said he would fight the charge and was released on a bond of $500.

After being closely questioned by the coroner today, Mr. Vogt became hysterical and, it is said, left town in an automobile, presumably for Belgrade.

The body of Mrs. Vogt will be taken to Belgrade Sunday, accompanied by a brother of Mrs. Vogt, who arrived here this evening.

The body was given out at the time of Mrs. Vogt's death that it was caused by taking headache tablets containing acetaminophen. Dr. Hummel and Morrill conducted the post-mortem.

MARSHALL CHASED AROUND COUNTRY BY BIG TURNIP

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—A huge Indiana turnip is following Vice President Marshall around the country via parcel post. The turnip weighs five pounds and is traveling in mail pouches in its natural state just as it was dug from the ground except for an identification tag tied on the turnip top.

The turnip reached the vice president's office in the capitol today. It was sent by William H. Busch from Columbus, Ind. The vice president's office force redirected the tag and sent the turnip hurrying out to Arizona, where the vice president and his wife will visit.

Agreement of Wholesale and Retailers Alleged that Makes it Almost Impossible for Outsiders to Do Business.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 2.—Special The legal department of the state is co-operating with the federal authorities in the northern Iowa district to probe the plumbers' trust in that state, which virtually means for the country, and it is almost certain that there will be some developments in the next few days.

The method pursued is identical with that in some other combinations that have been broken up as the result of investigations. No person other than a member of the association can purchase goods of the manufacturers and jobbers of plumbing goods except in rare cases. No member of the association will do any work except on his own contracts.

HORSE CARS SPRING INTO BEING

Pite and Drum Corps Come on Scene
When Deposed Governor Attempts to Talk from Balcony.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Of the many spirited episodes of recent speech making throughout the city, William Sulzer, deposed governor and now a candidate for the assembly from the Sixth district on the lower east side, met with one last night that caused him to accuse his political enemies of adopting a new method of campaign warfare.

Sulzer went into the Second assembly district to denounce Alfred E. Smith, speaker of the assembly, who is seeking re-election. Sulzer found himself in a strong Tammany territory. He took his place in an improvised balcony diagonally opposite the local Tammany headquarters.

Four wagons bearing McCall and Smith signs drove into a crowd of several hundred voters gathered in the street. Men set upon the wagons, tore off the signs and warned the drivers to leave. They had hardly gone when fire engines dashed up, someone having sent in a false alarm. When Sulzer finally was able to speak thirty giant fire crackers were set off in rapid order. Madison street horse cars, which run ordinarily at about thirty-minute intervals, began to pass through the crowd frequently, each loaded with passengers who insisted that the conductor stop where the throng was most dense.

A bevy of girls in a doorway began a campaign of shrieking when Sulzer tried to talk. A fire and drum corps came on the scene. A hundred men carrying Tammany banners marched behind him. After a few minutes the police diverted the parade into a side street. Sulzer was then assailed with eggs and vegetables. He retired into a building, his auditors following. When he left after his speech the disorder was resumed.

Bleachers Collapse as Crowd Cheers; Hundreds Are Injured

GREENCASTLE, Ind., Nov. 2.—One hundred persons, most of whom were women, were hurt, eight seriously, when the bleachers on De Pauw university athletic field collapsed just before the De Pauw-Rose Polytechnic foot ball game yesterday. It was estimated that more than 700 men and women were on the bleachers when they went down.

Members of both foot ball squads did good work in disentangling the twisted mass of lumber and humanity. The most seriously injured are: Chester Balfour, Terre Haute, legs injured; Mrs. H. Foster, Greencastle, Ind., injured from shock; Miss Eugenie Pickett, Greencastle, back wrenched; Mrs. R. A. Foeter, Indianapolis, left leg crushed; Ray Wade, Indianapolis, neck lacerated; W. J. Wheeler, Evansville, internally injured; Miss Gladys Light, Terre Haute, ankle dislocated; Miss Florence Dillman, Connersville, leg broken.

The swaying of the crowd in cheering the De Pauw team as it came on the field is believed to have been the immediate cause of the collapse.

Omaha Art Guild Opens Its Exhibits

The second annual exhibition of the Omaha Art guild opened in the Omaha public library building Saturday with splendid attendance. Pictures representing the best efforts of the local artists received quantities of deserved praise and as a whole the class of work shown was such as to occasion the visitors, as well as members of the guild, more than justifiable pride in Omaha's representative art contributions.

Probably the pictures that occasioned the greatest comment were portrait studies of Rev. T. J. Mackay and George W. Linsinger, the products of J. Laurit Wallace's brush. A number of landscapes by George Barker, Jr. received a kindly share of attention, as did the water-color bits for which August Knight is responsible.

Water color studies depicting scenes in Italy by H. A. Ranker were among the best of the exhibit and ranked high in the consideration of the crowd. Other pictures had hosts of admirers, and if the enthusiasm evinced on the opening night continues through the week the second annual exhibit will be a decided success.

Victim Holds Up "Stickup Man" for Loot; Lets Him Go

After being held up at the point of a long revolver near the Auditorium, on Howard street, and robbed of his watch and $5, Eugene Nadreau, formerly comedian with the Irvin Bros. Wild West show, turned the tables on the robber and got only regained his property but the bandit's pistol as well, early last night.

The robber had just completed "frisking" his victim and was backing away, when he stumbled over a brick. In an instant he was sprawling on his back, his pistol clattering a dozen feet away. Nadreau seized the opportunity to secure the gun and promptly "stuck up" the stick-up man. He took his money and watch and was going to call the police, when the captured desperado began to beg and plead.

"I just got out of Anamosa three weeks ago, mister," he begged. "I don't want to go back there again. Please let me go."

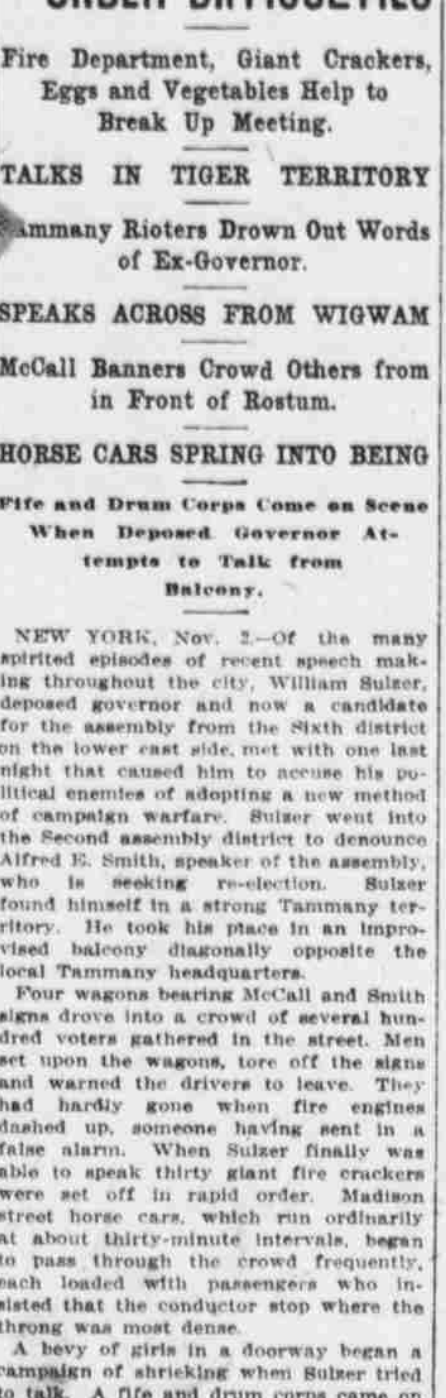

Nadreau was jubilant at recovering his property and he was generous. "All right, old horse, just beat it down the street, double-quick. I guess I'll keep this gun for a souvenir."

Prisoners Will Be Known by Names in U. S. Penitentiary

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 2.—Prisoners at the Atlanta federal penitentiary hereafter will be known by names, instead of by numbers, and their uniforms no longer will bear the letters "U. S. P." Announcement of departure from a custom which has been in existence as long as the institution itself, today was made by Good Works, the prison paper. Convicts also have been required to wear on their clothing letters branding them as United States prisoners.

For more than a year Warden Moyer has urged on the officials of the Department of Justice at Washington that these degrading marks of prison life be abolished and recently his plan was given official sanction. Hereafter, while each prisoner's clothing will bear his registration number, it will be for identification and will be concealed from sight.

RIOTING IN INDIANAPOLIS

No Attempt Made by the Company to Operate Street Cars.

MOB FIGHTS IN CITY STREETS

Thousands of Men and Women Wear
Placards Reading "We Walk;
Do You?"—Strikebreakers
Are Imperiled.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 2.—Governor Samuel M. Ralston refused last night to take any action in the street car strike which tied up the service here today. He told Mayor Shank, who admitted that the situation was beyond control by the city authorities, that the police were not doing their full duty, and that if they would not do their duty to appeal to Sheriff Theodore Porteus of Marion county for aid.

No attempt was made to move a car tonight, although about 400 strikebreakers were brought into the city this afternoon on a special train from Chicago. President Robert L. Todd of the street car company said that he was prepared to start the cars at any time that he was offered adequate police protection.

For more than an hour a mob estimated at 5,000 persons fought in the downtown business section before it could be broken up by the mounted police. The trouble started when Joe Hinchman, an inspector for the car company, tried to repair a broken trolley pole on a car standing at a corner in the central business district. The mob pulled Hinchman from the car and dragged him a block toward the union headquarters when he was rescued by the police. The crowd started to take the inspector away from the police and the officers had to shoot into the air to drive the crowd back. The crowd continued rioting and fighting the police until the mounted reserves arrived.

Thousands of men and women walked the streets tonight wearing placards which read: "We walk; do you?" Women took a prominent part in the disorder. They stood in the crowd, defying the police and the strikebreakers.

POST-MORTEM REVEALS AN ATTEMPTED OPERATION

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 2.—(Special Telegram)—A post-mortem examination was held this evening on the body of Mrs. M. W. Vogt, who died suddenly at the Lincoln hotel yesterday.

Conditions were disclosed which caused Coroner Matthews to notify the sheriff of Nance county of the result of the post-mortem. Evidence of a recent attempted operation was found. Mrs. Vogt was about 18 years of age and was married to Mr. Vogt about three weeks ago and they were on a wedding trip. She was a daughter of Charles Wood of Belgrade and had become acquainted with Vogt, who traveled as solicitor for the Wood-

ELSASSERS HOLD REUNION

"FAMILY IS LIKE A LODGE"

Idea of Gathering Them All Together Originated with Peter
Elsasser and Will Be Made
Annual Affair.

Stand aside, Smiths, and make way for the Elsassers.

It required Miller's hall at Seventeenth and Vinton streets Saturday to hold all the Omaha Elsassers, who had their first annual family reunion. There were 168 members of that family present. In addition to that, there was dancing and music and lunch galore.

The idea proved to be so successful that the mammoth family plans to make the reunion an annual affair. As one member said, "It is like a lodge. We know in a general way how many there are of us, but it takes a reunion like this to bring us together so we can get better acquainted." There you have it. It was the idea of Peter Elsasser, and the rest of the family instantly took it up.

From the time G. Fred Elsasser, the first of the family, arrived in Omaha, that family has obeyed the Bible injunction in the matter of increasing Omaha's population, and they are justly proud of their efforts. The first Elsasser came to Omaha in October, 1886. Then came Christ and Peter Elsasser and Mrs. Brummer.

The Elsassers are in every conceivable line of business in Omaha. The oldest member of the family present last night was Mrs. Jacob Pflout, 81 years old. The youngest was the child of William Elsasser, three weeks young, who is patiently waiting to learn what given name he will carry with him through life.

TOO HEAVY DYNAMO LOAD

Penitentiary Will Be Unable to Fur- nish Current for State.

CAPITOL ELEVATOR RESPONSIBLE

Board Must Make Provision for More Power or Buy Electricity from the City of Lincoln.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Nov. 2.—(Special)—On account of the installation of the elevator at the Capitol building, penitentiary authorities are claiming that the increased current taken is liable to cripple the plant at that institution which has for a few years past furnished light for the state house, governor's mansion and orthopedic hospital.

The board of control which has charge of the penitentiary and the board of public lands and funds which has charge of the Capitol building and the governor's mansion will seek to find some way to relieve the situation and at the present time are considering whether it will be best to increase the plant at the pen or pay the city for light for the state house and mansion at the rate of 3 cents per kilowatt.

As it is now the emergency dynamo with the regular dynamo is sufficient, but it will be necessary to put in a new emergency generator if the state gets its light from the pen, and it is this question which is being considered.

Prize Packages Legal.

The tin whistle and the power monkey scored a touchdown against Food Commissioner Harman in the district court of Lancaster county yesterday when Judge Stewart declared an unconstitutional law which prohibited the placing of prizes in packages for sale.

The case was one in which Nick Arrigo and Michael Indivino, a couple of Italian fruit dealers, had been arrested for selling packages of cracker-jack containing prize premiums in violation of the gift enterprise law. Attorneys E. G. Magal and Tom Allen represented the defendant, and two prisoners taking part in one court to another as rapidly as possible as a test case in order to get a decision. It will probably be carried to the supreme court.

The new well for the penitentiary one-fourth of a mile north of the institution has been completed and tomorrow the water will be in use. The well will be pumped by electricity, dynamo at the well having been installed with an electric current cable runs to the power house at the penitentiary to carry the current.

Very few people know that at the penitentiary there is a debating club composed of "trustees" of the institution which occasionally engage in debates upon the live questions which agitate the people of the outside world. Two weeks ago they discussed the woman suffrage question, two prisoners taking part in each side while three more acted as judges. Woman suffrage won the day in that debate. Last night the second debate was held, the liquor question being the subject. It was decided that the sale of liquor should be abolished. It is remarkable what a change has taken place in the men since the abolition of hope from the pen. There seems to be an entirely new atmosphere about the place and men who have been some of the hardest users of the drug and pot to be trusted, are now among the most trusted of the prisoners.

TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS.

Elections will be held next Tuesday as follows:
Massachusetts—Governor and state officers and legislature.
New Jersey—Governor and legislature.
New York—Chief judge court of appeals, nine supreme court justices, assembly and senator Twenty-first district.
Maryland—United States senator, state controller.
Pennsylvania—Two judges superior court.
Kentucky—Two circuit judges and legislature.
Virginia—Governor and state officers.
Congressional—Third Massachusetts district and Twentieth New York and Third Maryland districts.
Municipal elections will be held in many cities, the more important contests being in New York, Philadelphia and Cincinnati.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The battle for the majority of New York, with attendant skirmishes for lesser offices, practically closed last night, ending a campaign in which economic issues were buried under an interchange of personalities and a flood of vituperation. On Tuesday ballots will be cast; final speeches will be made on Monday.

The foes of Tammany Hall, united under the standard of fusion, with John Furroy Mitchell as their leader, have centered their fire upon Charles F. Murphy, Tammany chief. Mitchell, although a tireless campaigner, was eclipsed as an orator by John A. Hennessy, a political comet whose course deflected the candidates from their prescribed orbits of campaigning to acrimonious debate, largely centered about the recent removal of William Sulzer from office and revelations resultant therefrom.

Hennessy was Sulzer's investigator of graft in state departments and he has made public what he claims to have unearthed in the way of corruption. His bombardment of Murphy and Edward E. McCall, Tammany candidate for mayor, resulted in a John Doe investigation by the district attorney and the revelation that former State Senator Sullivan, now in Sing Sing for bribery, sought a pardon from Sulzer by turning informer against Tammany. These charges have been met with hot denials.

Republicans Charge.

Among the interesting developments of the last day save one of the campaign was the repudiation by Edward E. McCall, Tammany's candidate, of a charge that he borrowed $10,000 from former Police Inspector McLaughlin, presumably to meet a "campaign assessment" when he was nominated for the state supreme court in 1902. McLaughlin made a similar denial.

The story touched upon in campaign speeches by John A. Hennessy, Governor Sulzer's graft investigator, and brought up again by Hennessy yesterday in the "John Doe" inquiry into campaign charges of graft and irregularities became public in its latest form today through a published affidavit by McLaughlin's son, William W. McLaughlin, Jr., who related that his father had a hard time recovering the money from McCall and that finally it had been repaid in the form of a check at which his father had a photograph taken.

When it comes to voting for the kind of clothes you buy and the shops you patronize, and deciding as to the best disposition to make of your weekly or monthly outlay, your newspaper will stand you in good stead if you study it.

The bright and attractive advertisements constantly appearing in The Bee are making speeches to you all the time. They point out the good qualities of the candidates—the advertised articles—and show you how to express your choice—to vote straight, so to speak.

And that which you thus elect to buy for yourself or provide for your household and its members, if it is chosen with care and thought, will bring you most satisfactory returns.

The very best things the land affords are strong candidates for every home, and, through the advertising pages of The Bee and other good newspapers, are being elected with overwhelming majorities.

Voting right on the question of what and where to buy is not difficult to the constant reader of newspaper advertisements.
