HERE are a few men in Omaha who are really keen about classic music and who never miss an opportunity of hearing all of the great artists who come to Omaha, and who are regular subscribers to Miss Hopper's series of subscription concerts.

Of course, Omaha has the usual number of men who are professional musicians, who are making a career for themselves, but the average business man is inclined to prefer ragtime or the lighter music, and grand opera appears to him as Billy Baxter describes it in some of his writings.

There will be plenty of opportunity for the music lovers this season. Among the well known business men who are regular attendants at the concerts are Mr. F. S. Cowgill, a prominent grain man, who is quite a skilled violinist; Mr. Herbert Rogers, who plays the cello as his favorite pastime; Wallace Lyman could be a professional violinist if he wished; George Barker, Jr., had to decide whether to have a business career or a musical career; he is also a violinist; George McIntyre divides his time out of business hours between cello playing and vocal music, and is the possessor of a splendid bass voice; Dr. Paul Luddington probably has a more intimate knowledge of grand opera than most of the critics; while in college he rarely missed an opera in Philadelphia and later in Vienna.

Mr. D. C. Bradford is an organist and planned originally to have a pipe organ in his new home, George A. Joslyn, Gerrit Fort, W. A. C. Johnston and E. M. Andreesen rarely miss concerts or opera.

House Warming and Musicals.

Mrs. Edward Phalen entertained at a house warming and musicals this afternoon at her new home, 44 North Thirty-eighth street, the former Brandeis home. Roses were used in decoration, in the dining room were pink roses and in the hall and dining room red roses. Yellow chrysanthemums were in the sun room and living.

The program was given by Miss Eliouise Sheppard, accompanied by Madam, A. M. Borglum. Assisting were Mrs. E. O. Johnson of Danison, Ia., and Mrs. Leo Phalen of Grand Island. Seventy-five guests were present.

Evening Musicals.

Mrs. Joseph Maul Metcalf will open her spacious home on South Tenth street this evening for a musical, which will be one of the larger social events of the autumn. The rooms will be decorated with a profusion of variegated chrysanthemums. Pink roses buds will form the centerpiece for the dining room.

The program will be given by Miss Mary Munchhoff, soprano; Miss Bella Robinson, pianist, and Mrs. I. P. Crofoot, accompanist.

The piano will be at the foot of the stairs in the large reception hall so that all of the guests can see the artists. Mrs. Metcalf will be assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. E. J. Cornish of New York and Judge and Mrs. A. J. Cornish of Lincoln.

Assisting in the dining room will be Miss Dorothy Morgan, Miss Rose Coffman, Mrs. Frederic Thomas, Mrs. Ella Bierbower, Mrs. Ella Squires and Mrs. F. L. Haller.

Seats have been arranged for 200 guests.

Theater Parties.

All social affairs were postponed Monday afternoon, for society attended the matinee concert at the Brandeis, which was the first of a series, given under the direction of Miss Hopper.

One box party included Mrs. H. E. Munchhoff, Mrs. A. V. Kinsler, Miss Mary Munchhoff, Miss Margaret McConnell, Mrs. Pherson, Miss Gretchen McConnell.

Johnson Fined for Chastising His Wife

Anthony Johnson, residing at the Northwestern hotel, distinguished himself Tuesday morning by receiving the only sentence bestowed by Judge Foster during the short period that police court was in session. Johnson was arrested by Officer Aughe Monday charged with disturbing the peace by beating his wife. Aughe was attracted by a woman's cry to 33 South Eleventh street, where Flora Johnson, Anthony's wife, lives. The woman showed signs of having received a beating and Johnson was brought to the station. In police court he testified that he and his spouse had separated and he was trying to persuade her to come back to him.

Judge Foster fined the man $5 and costs. The fact that this was the only punishment administered by the court renders Tuesday a day equalled by none in the calendar of police court annals so far this year.

OVER HALF OF ALL SICKNESS CAUSED BY WEAKENED, CLOGGED-UP KIDNEYS

Hundreds Suffer From Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It. Backache, Bladder Disorders and Rheumatism is Result.

It is a well recognized fact among physicians today that a greater part of all sickness can be avoided by keeping the kidneys working properly.

This is even more important than for the bowels to move regularly.

The kidneys and bladder are the filters and sewers of the body, and they must filter the blood and keep it pure. When they fail to do this properly, you suffer with pain in the back or sides; have bladder or urinary disorders, lumbago, rheumatism, dizziness, nervousness, it feel tired and worn out. If you have any such symptoms, don't neglect yourself another day. Secure an original package of Croxone which costs but a trifle, take three doses a day for a few days, and you will be surprised how entirely different you will feel.

This new effective preparation soaks right in and cleans out the clogged up, inactive kidneys, so that they can filter out all the poisonous waste matter and uric acid and keep the blood pure.

Croxone is truly a remarkable remedy for the prompt relief of kidney and bladder disorders. You will find it entirely different from anything you have ever used. It is so quick-acting and effectively prepared, that it is practically impossible to take it without results.

Every druggist recommends it, and is authorized to return the purchase price, if Croxone fails to give the desired results the very first time you use it.—Advertisement.

TO ANTI-SALOON CONVENTION

Twelve Nebraskans Go to National League Meet at Columbus.

COAST TO COAST CAMPAIGN

Efforts Will Be Made at the Meeting to Arrange to Strike Some Telling Blows Against Saloon Traffic.

Twelve delegates from Nebraska are on their way to the national convention of the Anti-Saloon league at Columbus, O., where matters pertaining to the policy of the league for the next few years are to be mapped out. Four of the delegates are Omaha people and the rest are from Lincoln and other parts of the state.

The list of Nebraska delegates is U. S. Rohrer and wife, Hastings; Rev. H. H. Spracklin, Broken Bow; Rev. G. W. Bling, St. Paul; H. F. Carson, Lincoln, superintendent of the Nebraska Anti-Saloon league; F. A. High, Omaha, district superintendent of the State league; Frances B. Heald, Osceola; Rev. A. Atack, Benson; W. E. Fosher, Omaha; Mrs. Snyder, Kearney; D. C. John, Omaha; Rev. A. C. Douglas, Omaha, and Dr. W. E. Schell of York.

As has been definitely announced long ago, this convention is the start of a nation wide campaign for national prohibition. The league feels that it has been "beating around the bush" long enough in their fight against the liquor traffic, and feels that the time is now ripe to strike the decisive blow. At any rate they are ready to "win the issue squarely in the nation."

STREET CAR COMPANY IS ALL READY FOR THE SNOW

While not anticipating any snow storms, the street railway company has put its snow plowing machinery in the best possible condition for a campaign. With nine big snow plows and a dozen small ones, the company has not added to its equipment. However, it has supplied all of the plows with new brooms and is in excellent condition for going into winter.

OMAHA HUNTERS HAVING SOME GOOD SHOOTING

Charles Lewis Arthur Metz and Gus Rense are spending the week at Charlie Metz's ranch in Cherry county, on Three Springs lake, where it is reported they are enjoying splendid shooting. The flight of birds has been above the average for the last ten days and the Omaha men are expected to bring home a good showing of the feathered ones.

Makes Face Young—Tightens Love Ties

(Aurilla in Woman's Sphere.)

A fresh expression, a wrinkled face and a faded complexion, do more to drive the male members from home than is commonly supposed. It was one of my greatest difficulties when my dear one was with me. But I have overcome all that. I have changed my mental attitude and I now find it second nature to look cheerful. Due partly to this, partly to a remarkable treatment recommended by a friend, my appearance has so improved I look fifteen years younger than before.

A simple face lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half-pint witch hazel, proved a wonderful wrinkle-chaser. I still use this occasionally. To regenerate my complexion I purchased a jar of "Aurilla" and before using this up, a marvelous transformation had taken place. It was like removing an ugly mask, revealing a new face, a youthful complexion of distinctive delicacy, clear, white and velvety. I merely applied the wax like cold cream before retiring, washing it off mornings. Ten days' treatment sufficed.—Advertisement.

Can You Afford It?

Can anyone afford to wear wrinkled and soiled clothes when it costs practically nothing to have them looking fresh and bright like new.

Dry cleaning adds enough to the cost of a garment to more than pay for the cleaning.

You can prove this to your own satisfaction by sending your jackets, overcoats, dresses, waists, suits, furs, gloves, etc., to an up-to-date establishment like the Pantorium, where you will be sure to get thorough and careful work.

The Pantorium guarantees their work satisfactory or will make no charge.

Ramsey and Baxter Will Debate Merits of George's Policy

The big single tax debate of the Economic League is scheduled for Tuesday evening of next week at the regular meeting place of the league in the court house. At that time Dr. F. P. Ramsey, of the University of Omaha is to be pitted against W. F. Baxter in a debate on the merits and demerits of the Henry George doctrine.

A great deal of single tax philosophy has filled the atmosphere at the meetings of the Economic League for a year or more. Many of the members are avowed single taxers. Others are stubbornly opposed to it. Notable among the latter is Dr. F. P. Ramsey. Recently, when the matter was mentioned again in a league meeting, Dr. Ramsey declared the single taxers in the league were afraid to debate the question with him. Two weeks later, at the next meeting, W. F. Baxter issued an open challenge to Ramsey to debate the issue. Ramsey accepted, and the decks are now being cleared for action.
