

HUSKERS TO MEET IOWA NEXT

Coch Stiehm Expects Hardest Game of Year Next Saturday.

IOWA BACKFIELD IS PERFECT

Offensively Coach Hawley Has the Most Dangerous Team in the Big Nine—Dick and Gross Stars.

By JAMES E. LAWRENCE. LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—Nebraska will close the 1913 football season next Saturday, meeting the wonderful Iowa team coached by Hawley in the first game between the two state universities since 1909. It was then that the University of Iowa came to Lincoln to add to the dedication of the new athletic field, where the game will be played Saturday, and Mark Hyland and his trusty boot stayed off an Iowa defeat when he sent two well-placed drop kicks between the goal posts, knotting the six points which the Cornhuskers had earlier scored on a touchdown and goal.

Iowa will find a different team opposed to it than the one in 1909, while reports relative to Nebraska show it will encounter a much sturdier foe than in the 1912 Hawkeyes.

Nebraska does not fear any kicking prodigy as was encountered in 1909, but looks with deep concern on the wonderful Iowa backfield, which, based on performances in the last two games, is easily the most brilliant in the Big Nine conference. Can Nebraska's backs stop the sweeping flank dashes of Gross and Meritts, and can Nebraska's forwards stop the famous spread play evolved by Coach Hawley? So far, Iowa's opponents have fallen before the electrifying attack of the Hawkeyes, and the game regarded first as a comparatively easy one is now viewed very dubiously in the Cornhusker camp.

Iowa Backfield Dangerous. There is no doubt at Nebraska that Iowa has offensively the most dangerous eleven in the Big Nine. The way Hawley's proteges shattered the Northwestern and Indiana defenses was conclusive proof of the speed and power of Iowa's second unit.

Gross and Meritts have shown wonderful ability to skirt the ends for long gains and lend to the game that element of the spectacular which goes to make it a delight, at least from the spectator's standpoint. Stiehm is not worrying about line smashing plays. The husky Gophers tested the walls of the Nebraska line, and even they were not able to batter it.

In Nebraska, however, Hawley will find an eleven as well versed in the open style of play as any in the middle west. Stiehm has perfected the forward pass with remarkable success, and with the aid of Dudley, has some dazzling plays which have completely mystified the Husker opponents heretofore. The same spread play which Iowa is using this year was Coach's favorite formation four years ago and while the Huskers still have it in an altered form, it has been abandoned to a large extent.

The Twelfth Game. The game will be the twelfth between the two schools. In the eleven played, three have resulted in tie scores, seven with victories for the Cornhuskers and one for Iowa. In the eleven games, the Huskers have piled up a record of 134 points as against fifty-eight for the Iowans.

Ekkerhall to Officiate. Walter Ekkerhall, the famous Midway star, will be the referee in the Iowa game while Jimmy Masker of the Kansas City Athletic club will be the other official on the field. The presence of these two men assures Nebraska of the competent and fair treatment, the two being the best known officials in the middle west.

The first few days following the close of the season will be busy ones for the Cornhuskers. The Commercial club, several business men around town and the university authorities are planning to give laureates in their honor. The election of a captain for the 1914 season will follow shortly after the close of the games.

Five names have been mentioned in connection with the captaincy. Max Towle, the little quarterback, who has earned the title of the best field general in the valley, is being pushed, but Towle has already announced his intention of taking his degree this year and it is not altogether sure that he could be prevailed upon to stay in school another season.

Victor Halligan, who finished last in the greatest tackle he has ever seen in the west; who was shifted from fullback to tackle at the beginning of the season and who has played the greatest game of his life, has also been mentioned. His ability is not questioned and he will probably be a strong contender for the honors of the 1914 leader.

Howard Also Named. Warren Howard is the third man most prominently mentioned in connection with the captaincy. The former Omaha

Five Generations in Direct Line of Descent

A little company of people gathered at the home of E. W. Atwater, Albion, Neb., which was unique in its character, owing to the fact that it consisted of five generations who had gathered from far and near to have a photograph taken to commemorate the unusual fact. The one who had traveled the farthest was the oldest of the group, the mother of E. W. Atwater, and who represented generation No. 1, Mrs. Elizabeth Atwater Kroll of Topeka, Ill. Mrs. Kroll was born in Germany February 20, 1824, and with her parents came to America when 7 years of age and with them settled in Mason county, Illinois, which has since been her home, she having lived there eighty-three years. In December, 1850, she was married to William Atwater, a prominent man of that locality. She was the mother of twelve children and is hale and hearty for one of her years and withstood the 500-mile journey without undue fatigue. E. W. Atwood, representing generation No. 2, was born January 24, 1862, and with his wife and children removed to this state in 1880 and has resided at Albion ever since. He was a successful farmer until a few years ago, when he retired from active farm life. Mrs. Bessie Atwater Gross of Ord, Neb., the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Atwater, and wife of Frank M. Gross, a prominent stockdealer of Ord, represented the third generation. She was born in Mason county, Illinois, in August, 1871. Mrs. Hazel Gross Dunker of Spalding, Neb., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Gross, representing the fourth generation, was born at Albion, Neb., August 16, 1891, and was married in 1910 to D. F. Dunker, a druggist at Spalding, Neb. Little Margaret Edna Dunker was the sole representative of generation No. 5 and is a dear little midget of 3 years, her birth date being October 23, 1911.

star has won a wide reputation for himself with his wonderful punting this year and is generally popular with the players. Mastin and Beck, the two ends, are the other two players who may be chosen as leader. Whoever receives the honor next year will inherit a mighty formidable aggregation, for nearly all of this year's team is eligible. Captain Purdy and possibly Quarterback Towle being the only ones to leave.

Military Academy Player is Injured

FAIRBURY, Neb., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—While playing in a game of football at the ball park gridiron in this city last evening, George Emery, right guard on the Nebraska Military academy team of Lincoln, sustained serious injuries. He was one of the active and star players of the soldier team and during a scrimmage of the first quarter was kicked in the forehead by one of the opposing eleven. He did not know of the injury he sustained until the second quarter, when he became exceedingly violent, indicating that he was out of his mind.

Seven friends took charge of the young man and he was hurriedly taken to Dr. A. J. Coats' office in an automobile and treatment administered. Dr. Coats is of the opinion that he sustained a concussion of the brain. He was taken to his home in Lincoln today and was somewhat better, but it is thought he is in a precarious condition. He is about 18 years of age. The Nebraska Military academy and Fairbury High school were playing when the accident to young Emery happened.

DEFEAT FOR HASTINGS SECOND TEAM BY HARVARD. HARVARD, Neb., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—Harvard High school football team yesterday beat the Hastings High school second team, 25 to 6. On the first down Harvard fumbled. Theobald, Hastings' left end, recovered the ball and raced twenty-five yards, being down on Harvard's one-yard line. Klein carried the ball over. This was the only time during the game that Hastings had a chance of scoring.

Harvard scored a touchdown in the first quarter and wasted most of the time during the second quarter in unsuccessful forward passes. In the third quarter Harvard settled down to straight football and Smith, Hartley and Moger hit the line for an average of eight yards on each down.

CRETE HIGH SCHOOL WINS GAME OF BASKET BALL

CRETE, Neb., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—The Crete High school won a game of basketball from the Twentieth Century Athletic club here Friday night by a score of 23 to 16. The high school led in the game very easily. Their team work was effective and the Methodists were unable to break it up.

The lack of team work on the part of the club boys is due largely to the fact that the team is made up of office workers and are unable to meet often for practice. Lineup: EFTANSHERDU, HIGH SCHOOL. Substitutes: C. Fendel, J. Balke, Deems.

Columbus High Overwhelmed. CENTRAL CITY, Neb., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—In a game replete with forward passes and fumbles and fake plays, the Columbus High school overpowered the local high school here today by the score of 18 to 6. Only once during the game did the visitors have a chance to score, advancing to the five-yard line, where they were held. Clayton, Lotter, Wilder and Ayers scored almost at will. The last home game will be played next Friday with the David City team. Referee: Zomer. Grand Island: Umpire: Daniela, Aurora.

Missouri Shuts Out Washington Eleven

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15.—The University of Missouri football eleven defeated the Washington team in their annual gridiron battle, the Tiger aggregation making nineteen points to none for the Myrtle and Maroon squad. Missouri was penalized often for holding in the line, the arbiters setting back the visiting eleven eighty-five yards during the game.

PITTSBURGH WINS FROM WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 15.—Playing a whirlwind brand of football, in which quickness had the better of strength, Washington and Jefferson college today defeated the University of Pittsburgh, 19 to 6. Washington and Jefferson had previously held Yale to a tie 0 to 0 score, while the local university had defeated both Cornell and Carleton. A drizzling rain fell throughout.

Beloit Defeats Knox. GALESBURG, Ill., Nov. 15.—Beloit defeated Knox by 14 to 7 today on a muddy field.

Y. M. C. A. HEALTH LEAGUE

Adjunction Arm to Work Now Extends to Omaha.

MAXWELL ONE OF DIRECTORS

League Designed to Promote Health Education and Service, to the End of Clean and Long Lives.

J. Truitt Maxwell, physical director of the Omaha Young Men's Christian association, has been made one of the advisory committee of the Health League, an agency through which the association in this country and Canada is lending its co-operation toward sanitation and longevity.

There are four other members of this committee, residing respectively in Des Moines, Chicago, Winnipeg and Philadelphia. All are physical directors, as the physical department is the point of contact between the league and the association.

This league is defined as "a concerted effort on the part of the members of the Young Men's Christian association to promote two things, health education and health service." Under the head of "health education" is included literature on health by scientists and experts, lectures, sermons and so on. For instance, one such treatise will take up the subject of tuberculosis, showing what tuberculosis does, what it is, predisposing causes, immediate causes, commonest early symptoms, tuberculosis in children, how it may be treated and cured, how prevented and what is being done to prevent it, and how each person can help.

Health Service. The "health service" department is to enlist persons in definite service for the improvement of their own and others' health. Eligibility to membership in the league is limited only to those paying a nominal sum. This service department is furnished, under certain circumstances, with lantern slides and moving picture films for the purpose of illustrating the aspects of the work. For example, the films deal with the fly pest, alcohol and efficiency, posture of the body, play and playgrounds, conservation of vision, tuberculosis, form in athletics, "call of the out-of-doors," and mouth hygiene.

This is the league's third year. It had a membership in each of the two preceding years of approximately 4,000. Already this year more than 5,000 members have been taken in, and at least another 1,000 are expected before the close of the year. Mr. Maxwell is the door of entrance to the local league, and is gathering in new recruits steadily. This adjunct to Young Men's Christian association work was originated and promoted by George J. Fisher, M. D., secretary of the physical department of the international committee of the association, with headquarters in New York. Its rapid growth has encouraged the belief among association workers that it is to be one of the most useful arms of that organization.

Guardsman Admits Taking Army Blanket

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—Court martial proceedings being conducted by a court consisting of Major J. M. Spielman, Captain Monte Lum, Company A, Fifth regiment; Lieutenant Harry Geilhaar of the same company, and Colonel H. F. Allen, judge advocate general, appointed by Adjutant General Hall, begun yesterday, are still in session at the state house.

Lord Teague of Company A, Fifth regiment, is one of the parties charged with an offense contrary to military law. He was brought into court under guard and charged with appropriating army blankets belonging to the state and selling them. He asked for counsel, and Major John M. Birkner was appointed.

Health and Beauty Helps

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN. Grace: Certainly that brittleness of the hair and your dandruff are dangerous conditions and should be corrected quickly. A proper shampoo is the best. Get some from your druggist and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water, then pour this mixture on the hair, and scrub with your fingers. This makes an abundance of rich, cleansing lather, and rinsing leaves the scalp and hair wonderfully sweet and clean. These shampoos are very soothing to tender, itchy scalps and so invigorate the hair roots that a growth of glossy, soft, even-colored hair results. Clean shampoos are invaluable to the finest growth of hair and prevent as well as overcome all scalp and hair difficulties.
